CF Industries Comments on Terra's Determination That CF Industries Offer is "Superior Proposal"

DEERFIELD, Ill., Mar 10, 2010 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- CF Industries Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: CF) today issued the following statement regarding Terra Industries Inc.'s (NYSE: TRA) announcement that it has determined CF Industries' offer to purchase Terra a "superior proposal" under the terms of Terra's agreement with Yara International ASA (OSLO: YAR.OL).

"We believe that Terra is worth more to CF Industries than to any other acquirer, given the strategic benefits of the transaction, including synergies, which only CF Industries can achieve," said Stephen R. Wilson, chairman, president and chief executive officer of CF Industries. "Any offer from Yara must be heavily discounted for the substantial risks and length of time associated with closing."

CF Industries confirmed that, at Terra's request, CF Industries has delivered a signed merger agreement to Terra relating to CF Industries' offer of $37.15 in cash and 0.0953 of a share of CF Industries common stock for each Terra share made on March 5, 2010. CF Industries also noted that Yara has five business days following Terra's notice of its determination that CF Industries' offer is a "superior proposal" under the terms of Terra's agreement with Yara to submit a revised proposal.
