CACI Awarded Prime Position on $92 Million Multiple-Award Contract to Provide Operations Support to U.S. Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center Pacific

Critical Support for Surveillance and Reconnaissance Operations That Advance Maritime Dominance

ARLINGTON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- CACI International Inc (NYSE: CACI) announced today it has been awarded a prime position on a $92 million multiple-award, indefinite delivery/indefinite quantity contract to provide a range of operations support solutions for the Space and Naval Warfare (SPAWAR) Systems Center (SSC) Pacific. The two-year contract represents new work for CACI in its Surveillance and Reconnaissance market area.

SSC Pacific conducts research, development, delivery, and support of integrated command, control, communications, computers, intelligence, surveillance, and reconnaissance (C4ISR), cyber, and space systems across all military domains. Under this contract, CACI will provide a range of surveillance and reconnaissance operations support solutions, including research, development and prototyping, and testing of integrated ISR solutions. The company's history of strong performance in providing ISR solutions and mission support is bolstered by its corporate culture of ethics and integrity.

CACI Chief Operating Officer and President of U.S. Operations John Mengucci said, "CACI has a deep understanding of the Navy's and SSC Pacific's mission, and the specialized expertise supporting surveillance and reconnaissance capabilities and operations that the SSC Pacific requires to achieve its objectives."

Ken Asbury, CACI's President and Chief Executive Officer, said, "This new work with the Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center Pacific gives CACI additional opportunities to both grow our Surveillance and Reconnaissance business and leverage our surveillance and reconnaissance capabilities to provide our military with the critical information necessary to gain decisive maritime dominance."
