

Breakfast Keynote/Fireside Chat A Glimpse into an Activist's Playbook

9 – 10 a.m.

Scott Ostfeld
Partner and Co-Portfolio Manager
JANA Strategic Investments

As co-portfolio manager of JANA Partners' Strategic Investments Fund, Scott Ostfeld is responsible for special situations investments, including active shareholder engagement. Before joining JANA in 2006, Ostfeld was a member of GSC Partners' distressed debt private equity group, which focused on acquiring companies through the bankruptcy restructuring process and enhancing value as an active equity owner. Previously, he was an investment banker at Credit Suisse First Boston, where he worked on a variety of M&A and capital raising assignments. Ostfeld holds J.D., MBA and bachelor's degrees from Columbia University.

Abe M. Friedman
Chief Executive Officer
CamberView Partners

Abe Friedman founded CamberView in 2012 and serves as its CEO. Previously, Friedman was managing director and global head of corporate governance and responsible Investment at BlackRock, where his team made proxy voting decisions on thousands of portfolio companies annually. He served in leadership positions at Barclays Global Investors from 2005 until the company merged with BlackRock in 2009. Friedman helped found Glass, Lewis & Co. in 2003, developed its voting guidelines and led its proxy research business as chief policy officer and general counsel. He currently serves as co-director of the Stanford Institutional Investor Forum. Friedman holds J.D., master's and bachelor's degrees from the University of California, Berkeley.