“Cedar Rapids is the second largest city in Iowa and is considered an economic hub of the state, located in the core of the Interstate 380 Technology Corridor. Relatively low cost of living expenses and high income levels give residents 10% more purchasing power than other Iowans and 13% more than the average U.S. resident. Look at a U.S. map and you will see that Cedar Rapids is close to the center. That center puts Cedar Rapids within a day's truck drive of more than 72 million consumers.”
