Highwoods Signs Long-Term Renewal in Tampa

Company's Largest 2021 Expiration Renewed

Raleigh, NC – September 6, 2019 – Highwoods Properties, Inc. (NYSE:HIW) has signed a 176,000 square foot renewal at Highwoods Preserve in Tampa. This was the Company's largest remaining lease expiration through 2021. Following this lease renewal, the Company has only five lease expirations greater than 100,000 square feet scheduled to expire through 2021.

Ted Klinck, President and CEO stated, "I applaud our Tampa team for signing this long-term lease, thereby securing steady cash flow for the foreseeable future and reducing our near-term lease rollover risk."

Certain matters discussed in this press release are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws, such as the following: the expected financial and operational results and the related assumptions underlying our expected results; and anticipated total investment, projected leasing activity, estimated replacement cost and expected net operating income of acquired properties and properties to be developed. These statements are distinguished by use of the words "will", "expect", "intend" and words of similar meaning. Although Highwoods believes the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are based upon reasonable assumptions, it can give no assurance that its expectations will be achieved.

Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the Company's current expectations include, among others, the following: development activity by our competitors in our existing markets could result in excessive supply of properties relative to customer demand; development, acquisition, reinvestment, disposition or joint venture projects may not be completed as quickly or on as favorable terms as anticipated; we may not be able to lease or re-lease second generation space quickly or on as favorable terms as old leases; our markets may suffer declines in economic growth; we may not be able to lease our newly constructed buildings as quickly or on as favorable terms as originally anticipated; unanticipated increases in interest rates could increase our debt service costs; unanticipated increases in operating expenses could negatively impact our NOI; we may not be able to meet our liquidity requirements or obtain capital on favorable terms to fund our working capital needs and growth initiatives or to repay or refinance outstanding debt upon maturity; the Company could lose key executive officers; and others detailed in the Company's 2018 Annual Report on Form 10-K and subsequent SEC reports.
