

NEWS RELEASE

Date: December 20, 2017
From: Diana Davis, Market President
MainSource Bank | 937-339-8484

MainSource Bank Donates Computer Equipment to Sisters of the Precious Blood

MainSource Bank (NASDAQ: MSFG); local MainSource Bank recently donated 15 computers to the Sisters of the Precious Blood school / church in Trotwood, Ohio, who will gift them to area families.

Sisters of the Precious Blood reach out to where the need is great and are dedicated in responding to those needs. In serving in a wide capacity, they rely on special gifts and talents of each Sister to advocate for justice, provide voices for the unheard, hope to the hopeless and light to those living in darkness. Sisters of the Precious Blood is a faith community that works to create positive change in the world.

MainSource Bank is proud to donate resources that truly impact the families in the area and make a difference in their lives. Every day, you'll find the MainSource team working to strengthen the communities they serve through various activities, services and programs.

"We're honored to assist in the wellbeing of our local neighbors," noted Diana Davis, Market President for MainSource Bank. "Our Bank focuses on being a positive impact and is genuinely dedicated to helping others succeed."

Pictured are: Megan Ryan, Jon Bredeson, Martin Blasko, Joseph Hurr, Diana Davis and Stacy Peterson.

For more information about MainSource Bank, visit www.mainsourcebank.com.

MainSource Financial Group is listed on the NASDAQ National Market (under the symbol: "MSFG") and is a community-focused, financial holding company with assets of approximately $4.6 billion. The Company operates 94 full-service offices throughout Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky and Ohio through its banking subsidiary, MainSource Bank, Greensburg, Indiana.
