HORMEL FOODS CORPORATION
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(Unaudited)

NOTE A GENERALBasis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements of Hormel Foods Corporation (the Company) have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial information, and with the instructions to Form 10-Q and Rule 10-01 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring adjustments) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. Operating results for the interim period are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the full year. The balance sheet at October 26, 2014, has been derived from the audited financial statements at that date but does not include all of the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements. For further information, refer to the consolidated financial statements and footnotes included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended October 26, 2014.

Investments

The Company maintains a rabbi trust to fund certain supplemental executive retirement plans and deferred income plans, which is included in other assets on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Position. The securities held by the trust are classified as trading securities. Therefore, unrealized gains and losses associated with these investments are included in the Company's earnings. Securities held by the trust generated gains of $1.5 million and $3.0 million for the second quarter and six months ended April 26, 2015, respectively, compared to gains of $0.9 million and $1.4 million for the second quarter and six months ended April 27, 2014. The Company has transitioned the majority of this portfolio to more fixed return investments to reduce the exposure to volatility in equity markets.

Supplemental Cash Flow Information

Non-cash investment activities presented on the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows generally consist of unrealized gains or losses on the Company's rabbi trust, amortization of affordable housing investments, and amortization of bond financing costs. The noted investments are included in other assets on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Position. Changes in the value of these investments are included in the Company's net earnings and are presented in the Consolidated Statements of Operations as either interest and investment income (loss) or interest expense, as appropriate.

On March 16, 2015, the Company purchased the remaining 19.29% ownership interest in its Shanghai Hormel Foods Corporation joint venture from the minority partner Shanghai Shangshi Meat Products Co. Ltd., resulting in 100.0% ownership of that business at the end of the second quarter. The interest was purchased with $11.7 million in cash, along with the transfer of land use rights and buildings held by the joint venture. The difference between the fair value of the consideration given and the reduction in the noncontrolling interest was recognized as an $11.9 million reduction in additional paid-in capital attributable to the Company. The Company will continue to manufacture at the Shanghai facility by leasing the land use rights and buildings from the previous minority partner.

Guarantees

The Company enters into various agreements guaranteeing specified obligations of affiliated parties. The Company's guarantees either terminate in one year or remain in place until such time as the Company revokes the agreement. The Company currently provides revocable standby letters of credit totaling $3.5 million to guarantee obligations that may arise under workers compensation claims of an affiliated party. This potential obligation is not reflected in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Financial Position.

New Accounting Pronouncements

In January 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) updated the guidance within Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 323, Investments-Equity Method and Joint Ventures. The update provides guidance on accounting for investments by a reporting entity in flow-through limited liability entities that manage or invest in affordable housing projects that qualify for the low-income housing tax credit. The amendments modify the conditions that a reporting entity must meet to be eligible to use a method other than the equity or cost methods to account for qualified affordable housing project investments. If the modified conditions are met, the amendments permit an entity to make an accounting policy election to amortize the initial cost of the investment in proportion to the amount of tax credits and other tax benefits received and recognize the net investment performance in the income statement as a component of income tax expense (benefit). Additionally, the amendments introduce new recurring disclosures about all investments in qualified affordable housing projects irrespective of the method used to account for the investments. The updated guidance is to be applied retrospectively, and is effective for fiscal years, and interim periods within those years, beginning after December 15, 2014, with early adoption permitted. The Company expects to adopt the new provisions of this accounting standard at the beginning of fiscal year 2016, and adoption is not expected to have a material impact on its consolidated financial statements.

In May 2014, the FASB issued ASC 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. This topic converges the guidance within U.S. generally accepted accounting principles and international financial reporting standards and supersedes ASC 605, Revenue Recognition. The new standard requires companies to recognize revenue to depict the transfer of goods or services to customers in amounts that reflect the consideration to which the company expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The new standard will also result in enhanced disclosures about revenue, provide guidance for transactions that were not previously addressed comprehensively, and improve guidance for multiple-element arrangements. The new guidance is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2016, including interim reporting periods within that reporting period, and early application is not permitted. Accordingly, the Company plans to adopt the provisions of this new accounting standard at the beginning of fiscal year 2018, and is currently assessing the impact on its consolidated financial statements.

In April 2015, the FASB updated the guidance within ASC 835, Interest. The update provides guidance on simplifying the presentation of debt issuance cost. The amendments require debt issuance costs related to a recognized debt liability be presented in the balance sheet as a direct deduction from the carrying amount of that debt liability. The new guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2015, and interim periods within those fiscal years, with early adoption permitted. The Company expects to adopt the new provisions of this accounting standard at the beginning of fiscal year 2017, and is currently assessing the impact on its consolidated financial statements.

In April 2015, the FASB updated the guidance within ASC 715, Compensation — Retirement Benefits. The update provides guidance on simplifying the measurement date for defined benefit plan assets and obligations. The amendments allow employers with fiscal year ends that do not coincide with a calendar month end to make an accounting policy election to measure defined benefit plan assets and obligations as of the end of the month closest to their fiscal year ends. The new guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2015, and interim periods within those fiscal years, with early adoption permitted. The Company expects to adopt the new provisions of this accounting standard at the beginning of fiscal year 2017, and adoption is not expected to have a material impact on its consolidated financial statements.

In May 2015, the FASB updated the guidance within ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures. The update provides guidance on the disclosures for investments in certain entities that calculate net asset value (NAV) per share (or its equivalent). The amendments remove the requirement to categorize within the fair value hierarchy all investments for which fair value is measured using the NAV per share (or its equivalent) as a practical expedient. The updated guidance is to be applied retrospectively and is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2015, and interim periods within those fiscal years, with early application permitted. The Company expects to adopt the provisions of this new accounting standard at the beginning of fiscal year 2017, and is currently assessing the impact on its consolidated financial statements.

NOTE B ACQUISITIONS

On August 11, 2014, the Company acquired CytoSport Holdings, Inc. (CytoSport) of Benicia, California for a preliminary purchase price of $424.3 million in cash. The purchase price is preliminary pending final working capital and other purchase accounting adjustments, and was funded by the Company with cash on hand and by utilizing funds from its revolving line of credit. The agreement provides for a potential additional payment of up to $20.0 million subject to meeting specific financial performance criteria over the next two years. The Company has recognized $10.3 million related to this potential payment as of April 26, 2015, based on the current estimated fair value determined by an independent appraisal.

The acquisition was accounted for as a business combination using the acquisition method. The Company has estimated the acquisition date fair values of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed, using independent appraisals and other analyses, and is in the process of determining final working capital adjustments. Therefore, a preliminary allocation of the purchase price to the acquired assets, liabilities, and goodwill is presented in the table below.

(in thousands)
Accounts receivable	$ 34,057
Inventory	62,246
Prepaid and other assets	3,133
Property, plant and equipment	8,119
Intangible assets	183,607
Goodwill	267,313
Current liabilities	(52,298)
Long-term liabilities	(25,182)
Deferred taxes	(56,667)
Purchase price	$ 424,328

The liabilities shown above include $15.0 million representing potential payments owed under a supplier agreement, which are contingent on future production levels.

Goodwill is calculated as the excess of the purchase price over the fair value of the net assets recognized. The goodwill recorded as part of the acquisition primarily reflects the value of the assembled workforce, manufacturing synergies, and the potential to expand presence in alternate channels. The goodwill balance is not expected to be deductible for income tax purposes. The goodwill and intangible assets have been allocated to the Specialty Foods and International & Other reporting segments.

Operating results for this acquisition have been included in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations from the date of acquisition and are reflected in the Specialty Foods and International & Other reporting segments. The acquisition contributed $87.2 million and $151.4 million of net sales for the second quarter and six months ended April 26, 2015.

CytoSport is the maker of Muscle Milk[®] products and is a leading provider of premium protein products in the sports nutrition category. CytoSport's brands align with the Company's focus on protein while further diversifying the Company's portfolio.

On November 26, 2013, the Company acquired the China based SKIPPY peanut butter business from Conopco, Inc. (doing business as Unilever United States Inc.), of Englewood Cliffs, N.J. for a final purchase price of $41.9 million in cash. This acquisition includes the Weifang, China manufacturing facility and all sales in Mainland China. The purchase price was funded by the Company with cash on hand.

Operating results for this acquisition have been included in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations from the date of acquisition and are reflected in the International & Other reporting segment. The acquisition contributed an incremental $5.9 million of net sales for the first quarter of fiscal 2015.

SKIPPY is a well-established brand that allows the Company to expand its presence in the center of the store with a non-meat protein product and reinforces the Company's balanced product portfolio. The acquisition also provides the opportunity to strengthen the Company's global presence and complements the international sales strategy for the SPAM family of products.

Pro forma results of operations are not presented, as no acquisition was considered material, individually or in the aggregate, to the consolidated Company.

NOTE C STOCK-BASED COMPENSATION

The Company issues stock options and nonvested shares as part of its stock incentive plans for employees and non-employee directors. The Company's policy is to grant options with the exercise price equal to the market price of the common stock on the date of grant. Options typically vest over four years and expire ten years after the date of the grant. The Company recognizes stock-based compensation expense ratably over the shorter of the requisite service period or vesting period. The fair value of stock-based compensation granted to retirement-eligible individuals is expensed at the time of grant.

A reconciliation of the number of options outstanding and exercisable (in thousands) as of April 26, 2015, and changes during the six months then ended, is as follows:

	Shares	Weighted-Average Exercise Price	Weighted-Average Remaining Contractual Term	Aggregate Intrinsic Value (in thousands)
Outstanding at October 26, 2014	17,402	$ 24.61
Granted	1,502	52.53
Exercised	881	18.75
Forfeited	1	18.71
Outstanding at April 26, 2015	18,022	$ 27.22	5.4 years	$ 497,872
Exercisable at April 26, 2015	13,725	$ 22.55	4.4 years	$ 443,314

The weighted-average grant date fair value of stock options granted and the total intrinsic value of options exercised (in thousands) during the second quarter and first six months of fiscal years 2015 and 2014, are as follows:

	Three Months Ended		Six Months Ended
	April 26, 2015	April 27, 2014	April 26, 2015	April 27, 2014
Weighted-average grant date fair value	$ 9.00	$ 9.04	$ 9.84	$ 9.68
Intrinsic value of exercised options	$ 23,409	$ 18,567	$ 32,601	$ 31,969

The fair value of each option award is calculated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes valuation model utilizing the following weighted-average assumptions:

	Three Months Ended		Six Months Ended
	April 26, 2015	April 27, 2014	April 26, 2015	April 27, 2014
Risk-free interest rate	1.6%	2.4%	2.1%	2.5%
Dividend yield	1.9%	1.8%	1.9%	1.8%
Stock price volatility	19.0%	20.0%	19.0%	20.0%

As part of the annual valuation process, the Company reassesses the appropriateness of the inputs used in the valuation models. The Company establishes the risk-free interest rate using stripped U.S. Treasury yields as of the grant date where the remaining term is approximately the expected life of the option. The dividend yield is set based on the dividend rate approved by the Company's Board of Directors and the stock price on the grant date. The expected volatility assumption is set based primarily on historical volatility. As a reasonableness test, implied volatility from exchange traded options is also examined to validate the volatility range obtained from the historical analysis. The expected life assumption is set based on an analysis of past exercise behavior by option holders. In performing the valuations for option grants, the Company has not stratified option holders as exercise behavior has historically been consistent across all employee and non-employee director groups.

The Company's nonvested shares granted on or before September 26, 2010, vest after five years or upon retirement. Nonvested shares granted between September 27, 2010, and July 27, 2014, vest after one year. Nonvested shares granted on or after July 28, 2014, vest on the earlier of the day before the Company's next annual meeting date or one year. A reconciliation of the nonvested shares (in thousands) as of April 26, 2015, and changes during the six months then ended, is as follows:

	Shares	Weighted-Average Grant-Date Fair Value
Nonvested at October 26, 2014	70	$ 33.58
Granted	37	51.74
Vested	70	33.58
Nonvested at April 26, 2015	37	$ 51.74

The weighted-average grant date fair value of nonvested shares granted, the total fair value (in thousands) of nonvested shares granted, and the fair value (in thousands) of shares that have vested during the first six months of fiscal years 2015 and 2014, are as follows:

	Six Months Ended
	April 26, 2015	April 27, 2014
Weighted-average grant date fair value	$ 51.74	$ 43.46
Fair value of nonvested shares granted	$ 1,920	$ 1,440
Fair value of shares vested	$ 2,347	$ 2,056

Stock-based compensation expense, along with the related income tax benefit, for the second quarter and first six months of fiscal years 2015 and 2014 is presented in the table below.

	Three Months Ended		Six Months Ended
(in thousands)	April 26, 2015	April 27, 2014	April 26, 2015	April 27, 2014
Stock-based compensation expense recognized	$ 7,025	$ 5,987	$ 12,549	$ 10,944
Income tax benefit recognized	(2,668)	(2,275)	(4,765)	(4,159)
After-tax stock-based compensation expense	$ 4,357	$ 3,712	$ 7,784	$ 6,785

At April 26, 2015, there was $12.3 million of total unrecognized compensation expense from stock-based compensation arrangements granted under the plans. This compensation is expected to be recognized over a weighted-average period of approximately 2.9 years. During the second quarter and six months ended April 26, 2015, cash received from stock option exercises was $3.9 million and $6.0 million, respectively, compared to $2.1 million and $5.5 million for the second quarter and six months ended April 27, 2014. The total tax benefit to be realized for tax deductions from these option exercises for the second quarter and six months ended April 26, 2015, was $8.9 million and $12.4 million, respectively, compared to $7.0 million and $12.1 million in the comparable periods of fiscal 2014.

Shares issued for option exercises and nonvested shares may be either authorized but unissued shares, or shares of treasury stock acquired in the open market or otherwise.

NOTE D GOODWILL AND INTANGIBLE ASSETS

The carrying amounts of goodwill for the second quarter and six months ended April 26, 2015, are presented in the table below. Purchase adjustments during the second quarter relate to the CytoSport acquisition. The reduction in the first six months is entirely due to the sale of an immaterial product line.

NOTE E INVESTMENTS IN AND RECEIVABLES FROM AFFILIATES

The Company accounts for its majority-owned operations under the consolidation method. Investments in which the Company owns a minority interest, and for which there are no other indicators of control, are accounted for under the equity or cost method. These investments, along with any related receivables from affiliates, are included in the Consolidated Statements of Financial Position as investments in and receivables from affiliates.

Investments in and receivables from affiliates consists of the following:

(in thousands)	Segment	% Owned	April 26, 2015	October 26, 2014
MegaMex Foods, LLC	Grocery Products	50%	$ 199,005	$ 208,221
Foreign Joint Ventures	International & Other	Various (26-50%)	65,049	56,230
Total			$ 264,054	$ 264,451

Equity in earnings of affiliates consists of the following:

(in thousands)	Segment	Three Months Ended		Six Months Ended
		April 26, 2015	April 27, 2014	April 26, 2015	April 27, 2014

MegaMex Foods, LLC	Grocery Products	$ 7,157	$ 4,529	$ 15,214	$ 7,057
Foreign Joint Ventures	International & Other	717	(946)	(5,680)	1,265
Total		$ 7,874	$ 3,583	$ 9,534	$ 8,322

Equity in earnings in the first six months of fiscal 2015 included nonrecurring charges related to the exit from international joint venture businesses. There were $10.0 million of dividends received from affiliates for both the three and six months ended April 26, 2015, respectively, compared to $0.0 million and $10.0 million dividends received for the three and six months ended April 27, 2014.

The Company recognized a basis difference of $21.3 million associated with the formation of MegaMex Foods, LLC, of which $16.6 million is remaining as of April 26, 2015. This difference is being amortized through equity in earnings of affiliates.

NOTE F EARNINGS PER SHARE DATA

The reported net earnings attributable to the Company were used when computing basic and diluted earnings per share. The following table sets forth the shares used as the denominator for those computations:

(in thousands)	Three Months Ended		Six Months Ended
	April 26, 2015	April 27, 2014	April 26, 2015	April 27, 2014
Basic weighted-average shares outstanding	264,028	263,926	263,852	263,839
Dilutive potential common shares	6,416	6,484	6,401	6,478
Diluted weighted-average shares outstanding	270,444	270,410	270,253	270,317

For the second quarter and six months ended April 26, 2015, 1.2 million and 0.9 million weighted-average stock options, respectively, were not included in the computation of dilutive potential common shares since their inclusion would have had an antidilutive effect on earnings per share, compared to 1.0 million and 0.8 million for the second quarter and six months ended April 27, 2014.

NOTE I DERIVATIVES AND HEDGING

The Company uses hedging programs to manage price risk associated with commodity purchases. These programs utilize futures contracts and swaps to manage the Company’s exposure to price fluctuations in the commodities markets. The Company has determined that its programs which are designated as hedges are highly effective in offsetting the changes in fair value or cash flows generated by the items hedged.

Cash Flow Hedges: The Company currently utilizes corn futures to offset the price fluctuation in the Company’s future direct grain purchases, and has historically entered into various swaps to hedge the purchases of grain and natural gas at certain plant locations. The financial instruments are designated and accounted for as cash flow hedges, and the Company measures the effectiveness of the hedges at least quarterly. Effective gains or losses related to these cash flow hedges are reported in accumulated other comprehensive loss (AOCL) and reclassified into earnings, through cost of products sold, in the period or periods in which the hedged transactions affect earnings. Any gains or losses related to hedge ineffectiveness are recognized in the current period cost of products sold. The Company typically does not hedge its grain or natural gas exposure beyond the next two upcoming fiscal years. As of April 26, 2015, and October 26, 2014, the Company had the following outstanding commodity futures contracts that were entered into to hedge forecasted purchases:

Commodity	Volume
	April 26, 2015	October 26, 2014
Corn	20.4 million bushels	18.3 million bushels

As of April 26, 2015, the Company has included in AOCL, hedging losses of $9.1 million (before tax) relating to these positions, compared to losses of $14.8 million (before tax) as of October 26, 2014. The Company expects to recognize the majority of these losses over the next 12 months.

Fair Value Hedges: The Company utilizes futures to minimize the price risk assumed when forward priced contracts are offered to the Company’s commodity suppliers. The intent of the program is to make the forward priced commodities cost nearly the same as cash market purchases at the date of delivery. The futures contracts are designated and accounted for as fair value hedges, and the Company measures the effectiveness of the hedges at least quarterly. Changes in the fair value of the futures contracts, along with the gain or loss on the hedged purchase commitment, are marked-to-market through earnings and are recorded on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Position as a current asset and liability, respectively. Effective gains or losses related to these fair value hedges are recognized through cost of products sold in the period or periods in which the hedged transactions affect earnings. Any gains or losses related to hedge ineffectiveness are recognized in the current period cost of products sold. As of April 26, 2015, and October 26, 2014, the Company had the following outstanding commodity futures contracts designated as fair value hedges:

Commodity	Volume
	April 26, 2015	October 26, 2014
Corn	3.5 million bushels	8.0 million bushels
Lean hogs	0.3 million cwt	0.7 million cwt

Other Derivatives: During fiscal years 2015 and 2014, the Company has held certain futures and options contract positions as part of a merchandising program and to manage the Company’s exposure to fluctuations in commodity markets. The Company has not applied hedge accounting to these positions.

As of April 26, 2015, and October 26, 2014, the Company had the following outstanding futures related to these programs:

Commodity	Volume
	April 26, 2015	October 26, 2014
Corn	1.9 million bushels	2.9 million bushels

(1) Amounts represent the gross fair value of derivative assets and liabilities. The Company nets the derivative assets and liabilities for each of its hedging programs, including cash collateral, when a master netting arrangement exists between the Company and the counterparty to the derivative contract. The amount or timing of cash collateral balances may impact the classification of the derivative in the Consolidated Statements of Financial Position. See Note J "Fair Value Measurements" for a discussion of these net amounts as reported in the Consolidated Statements of Financial Position.

Derivative Gains and Losses: Gains or losses (before tax, in thousands) related to the Company's derivative instruments for the second quarter ended April 26, 2015, and April 27, 2014, were as follows:

- Amounts represent gains or losses in AOCL before tax. See Note G “Accumulated Other Comprehensive Loss” or the Consolidated Statements of Comprehensive Income for the after-tax impact of these gains or losses on net earnings.
- There were no gains or losses excluded from the assessment of hedge effectiveness during the second quarter or first six months.
- Amounts represent losses on commodity contracts designated as fair value hedges that were closed during the second quarter or first six months, which were offset by a corresponding gain on the underlying hedged purchase commitment. Additional gains or losses related to changes in the fair value of open commodity contracts, along with the offsetting gain or loss on the hedged purchase commitment, are also marked-to-market through earnings with no impact on a net basis.
- There were no gains or losses resulting from the discontinuance of cash flow hedges during the second quarter or first six months.
- There were no gains or losses recognized as a result of a hedged firm commitment no longer qualifying as a fair value hedge during the second quarter or first six months.

NOTE J FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

Pursuant to the provisions of ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures (ASC 820), the Company measures certain assets and liabilities at fair value or discloses the fair value of certain assets and liabilities recorded at cost in the consolidated financial statements. Fair value is calculated as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date (an exit price). ASC 820 establishes a fair value hierarchy which requires assets and liabilities measured at fair value to be categorized into one of three levels based on the inputs used in the valuation. Assets and liabilities are classified in their entirety based on the lowest level of input significant to the fair value measurement. The three levels are defined as follows:

Level 1: Observable inputs based on quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: Observable inputs, other than those included in Level 1, based on quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities in active markets, or quoted prices for identical assets and liabilities in inactive markets.

Level 3: Unobservable inputs that reflect an entity’s own assumptions about what inputs a market participant would use in pricing the asset or liability based on the best information available in the circumstances.

The Company’s financial assets and liabilities that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis as of April 26, 2015, and October 26, 2014, and their level within the fair value hierarchy, are presented in the tables below.

	Fair Value Measurements at April 26, 2015

Fair Value Measurements at October 26, 2014

(in thousands)	Fair Value at October 26, 2014	Quoted Prices in Active Markets for Identical Assets (Level 1)	Significant Other Observable Inputs (Level 2)	Significant Unobservable Inputs (Level 3)

Total Liabilities at Fair Value	$ 54,809	$ 23,642	$ 31,167	$ -

The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair value of the financial assets and liabilities above:

- The Company's cash equivalents consist primarily of bank deposits, money market funds rated AAA, or other highly liquid investment accounts. As these investments have a maturity date of three months or less, the carrying value approximates fair value.
- The Company holds trading securities as part of a rabbi trust to fund certain supplemental executive retirement plans and deferred income plans. The rabbi trust is included in other assets on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Position and is valued based on the underlying fair value of each fund held by the trust. A majority of the funds held related to the supplemental executive retirement plans have been invested in fixed income funds managed by a third party. The declared rate on these funds is set based on a formula using the yield of the general account investment portfolio that supports the fund, adjusted for expenses and other charges. The rate is guaranteed for one year at issue, and may be reset annually on the policy anniversary, subject to a guaranteed minimum rate. As the value is based on adjusted market rates, and the fixed rate is only reset on an annual basis, these funds are classified as Level 2. The remaining funds held are also managed by a third party, and include equity securities, money market accounts, bond funds, or other portfolios for which there is an active quoted market.

Therefore these securities are classified as Level 1. The related deferred compensation liabilities are included in other long-term liabilities on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Position and are valued based on the underlying investment selections held in each participant's account. Investment options generally mirror those funds held by the rabbi trust, for which there is an active quoted market. Therefore these investment balances are classified as Level 1. The Company also offers a fixed rate investment option to participants. The rate earned on these investments is adjusted annually based on a specified percentage of the United States Internal Revenue Service (I.R.S.) Applicable Federal Rates in effect and therefore these balances are classified as Level 2.

- The Company's commodity derivatives represent futures contracts used in its hedging or other programs to offset price fluctuations associated with purchases of corn, and to minimize the price risk assumed when forward priced contracts are offered to the Company's commodity suppliers. The Company's futures contracts for corn are traded on the Chicago Board of Trade, while futures contracts for lean hogs are traded on the Chicago Mercantile Exchange. These are active markets with quoted prices available and therefore these contracts are classified as Level 1. All derivatives are reviewed for potential credit risk and risk of nonperformance. The Company nets the derivative assets and liabilities for each of its hedging programs, including cash collateral, when a master netting arrangement exists between the Company and the counterparty to the derivative contract. The net balance for each program is included in other current assets or accounts payable, as appropriate, in the Consolidated Statements of Financial Position. As of April 26, 2015, the Company has recognized the right to reclaim net cash collateral of $6.3 million from various counterparties (including $13.7 million of cash less $7.4 million of realized losses on closed positions). As of October 26, 2014, the Company had recognized the right to reclaim net cash collateral of $11.5 million from various counterparties (including $55.6 million of cash less $44.1 million of realized losses on closed positions).

The Company's financial assets and liabilities also include accounts receivable, accounts payable, and other liabilities, for which carrying value approximates fair value. The Company does not carry its long-term debt at fair value in its Consolidated Statements of Financial Position. Based on borrowing rates available to the Company for long-term financing with similar terms and average maturities, the fair value of long-term debt, utilizing discounted cash flows (Level 2), was $276.5 million as of April 26, 2015, and $273.8 million as of October 26, 2014.

In accordance with the provisions of ASC 820, the Company also measures certain nonfinancial assets and liabilities at fair value that are recognized or disclosed on a nonrecurring basis (e.g. goodwill, intangible assets, and property, plant and equipment). During the six months ended April 26, 2015, and April 27, 2014, there were no remeasurements of assets or liabilities at fair value on a nonrecurring basis subsequent to their initial recognition.

NOTE L INCOME TAXES

The amount of unrecognized tax benefits, including interest and penalties, at April 26, 2015, recorded in other long-term liabilities was $25.3 million, of which $16.4 million would impact the Company's effective tax rate if recognized. The Company includes accrued interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions in income tax expense, with $0.4 million included in expense for both the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 2015. The amount of accrued interest and penalties at April 26, 2015, associated with unrecognized tax benefits was $3.1 million.

The Company is regularly audited by federal and state taxing authorities. During the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2014 the I.R.S. opened an examination of the Company's consolidated federal income tax returns for fiscal year 2013; that audit is still ongoing. During the first quarter of fiscal year 2015, the Company entered into a voluntary program with the I.R.S. called the Compliance Assurance Process ("CAP"). The objective of CAP is to contemporaneously work with the I.R.S. to achieve federal tax compliance and resolve all or most of the issues prior to filing of the tax return. The Company has elected to participate in the CAP program for 2015 and may elect to continue participating in CAP for future tax years; the Company may withdraw from the program at any time.

The Company is in various stages of audit by several state taxing authorities on a variety of fiscal years, as far back as 2008. While it is reasonably possible that one or more of these audits may be completed within the next 12 months and that the related unrecognized tax benefits may change, based on the status of the examinations it is not possible to reasonably estimate the effect of any amount of such change to previously recorded uncertain tax positions.

NOTE M SEGMENT REPORTING

The Company develops, processes, and distributes a wide array of food products in a variety of markets. The Company reports its results in the following five segments: Grocery Products, Refrigerated Foods, Jennie-O Turkey Store, Specialty Foods, and International & Other.

The Grocery Products segment consists primarily of the processing, marketing, and sale of shelf-stable food products sold predominantly in the retail market. This segment also includes the results from the Company's MegaMex joint venture.

The Refrigerated Foods segment includes the Hormel Refrigerated operating segment and the Affiliated Business Units. This segment consists primarily of the processing, marketing, and sale of branded and unbranded pork and beef products for retail, foodservice, and fresh product customers. The Affiliated Business Units include the Farmer John, Burke Corporation, and Dan's Prize businesses. Through fiscal 2014, this segment also included Precept Foods, LLC, a 50.01 percent owned joint venture that was dissolved at the end of the fiscal year.

The Jennie-O Turkey Store segment consists primarily of the processing, marketing, and sale of branded and unbranded turkey products for retail, foodservice, and fresh product customers.

The Specialty Foods segment includes the Diamond Crystal Brands, CytoSport/Century Foods International, and Hormel Specialty Products operating segments. This segment consists of the packaging and sale of private label shelf stable products, nutritional products, sugar, and condiments to industrial, retail, and foodservice customers.

This segment also includes the processing, marketing, and sale of nutritional food products and supplements to hospitals, nursing homes, and other marketers of nutritional products.

The International & Other segment includes the Hormel Foods International operating segment, which manufactures, markets, and sells Company products internationally. This segment also includes the results from the Company's international joint ventures and miscellaneous corporate sales.

Intersegment sales are recorded at prices that approximate cost and are eliminated in the Consolidated Statements of Operations. The Company does not allocate investment income, interest expense, and interest income to its segments when measuring performance. The Company also retains various other income and unallocated expenses at corporate. Equity in earnings of affiliates is included in segment operating profit; however, earnings attributable to the Company's noncontrolling interests are excluded. These items are included below as net interest and investment expense (income), general corporate expense, and noncontrolling interest when reconciling to earnings before income taxes.

Sales and operating profits for each of the Company's reportable segments and reconciliation to earnings before income taxes are set forth below. The Company is an integrated enterprise, characterized by substantial intersegment cooperation, cost allocations, and sharing of assets. Therefore, the Company does not represent that these segments, if operated independently, would report the operating profit and other financial information shown below.

NOTE N SUBSEQUENT EVENT

On May 26, 2015, subsequent to the end of the second quarter, the Company announced that it has entered into a definitive agreement to acquire Applegate Farms, LLC (Applegate), of Bridgewater, N.J. for a preliminary purchase price of $775 million in cash. The Company expects to close the acquisition within 60 days subject to regulatory approvals. The purchase price is expected to be funded by the Company with cash on hand generated from operations and short-term financing.

Applegate® is the No. 1 brand in natural and organic value-added prepared meats and this acquisition would allow the Company to expand the breadth of its protein offerings to provide consumers more choice in that fast growing category. Operating results for this acquisition will be reflected in the Refrigerated Foods reporting segment.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

There have been no material changes in the Company's Critical Accounting Policies, as disclosed in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended October 26, 2014.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Overview

The Company is a processor of branded and unbranded food products for retail, foodservice, and fresh product customers. It operates in five reportable segments as described in Note M in the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q.

The Company reported net earnings per diluted share of $0.67 for the second quarter of fiscal 2015, compared to $0.52 per diluted share in the second quarter of fiscal 2014. Significant factors impacting the quarter were:

- Record net earnings and sales with all five of the Company's reporting segments generating segment profit growth.
- The Refrigerated Foods segment delivered segment profit gains driven by strong value-added product sales and lower pork input costs.
- Jennie-O Turkey Store provided segment profit gains with continued growth of value-added products and lower grain and fuel input costs.
- Grocery Products segment profit benefitted from input cost relief.
- Specialty Foods segment profit benefitted from synergies achieved with the recently acquired CytoSport Holdings, LLC (CytoSport) business.
- International & Other segment profit gains were driven by improved joint venture results despite declines in exports.

Consolidated Results

Net earnings attributable to the Company for the second quarter of fiscal 2015 increased 28.6 percent to $180.2 million from $140.1 million in the same quarter of fiscal 2014. Diluted earnings per share for the second quarter increased to $0.67 from $0.52 in the second quarter of fiscal 2014. Net earnings attributable to the Company for the first six months of fiscal 2015 increased 19.9 percent to $351.9 million from $293.4 million in fiscal 2014. Diluted earnings per share for the same period were $1.30 in fiscal 2015, compared to $1.09 in the prior year.

Adjusted⁽¹⁾ net earnings attributable to the Company for the first six months of fiscal 2015 increased 25.3 percent to $367.5 million from $293.4 million in the same six months of fiscal 2014. Adjusted⁽¹⁾ diluted earnings per share for the same period increased 24.8 percent to $1.36 compared to $1.09 last year.

The non-GAAP adjusted financial measurements are presented to provide investors additional information to facilitate the comparison of past and present operations. The non-GAAP adjusted financial measurements are used for internal purposes to evaluate the results of operations and to measure a component of certain employee incentive plans in fiscal year 2015. Non-GAAP measurements are not intended to be a substitute for U.S. GAAP measurements in analyzing financial performance. These non-GAAP measurements are not in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and may be different from non-GAAP measures used by other companies.

⁽¹⁾Adjusted net earnings and diluted net earnings per share exclude nonrecurring charges relating to the closure of the Stockton, California, manufacturing facility and the exit from international joint venture businesses in the first quarter of fiscal 2015. The table below shows the calculations to reconcile from the non-GAAP adjusted measures to the GAAP measures.

Net sales for the second quarter of fiscal 2015 increased 1.5 percent to a record $2.28 billion from $2.24 billion in the second quarter of fiscal 2014. Net sales for the first six months of fiscal 2015 were also a record increasing 4.2 percent to $4.67 billion from $4.49 billion in the second quarter of fiscal 2014. Tonnage increased 5.3 percent to 1.29 billion lbs. for the second quarter compared to 1.22 billion lbs. in the same quarter of last year, and increased 4.2 percent for the first six months of fiscal 2015 to 2.60 billion lbs. compared to 2.49 billion lbs. for the comparable period in fiscal 2014.

Net sales and tonnage for the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 2015 were enhanced by the following incremental sales of material product lines not included in the prior year:

(in thousands)

Segment	Three Months		Six Months
	Net Sales	Tonnage (lbs.)	Net Sales	Tonnage (lbs.)
Specialty Foods	$ 82,655	35,082	$ 143,648	62,737
Grocery Products	24,121	15,862	41,578	30,075
International & Other	-	-	5,866	3,130

Continued sales gains of value-added products for Refrigerated Foods and Jennie-O Turkey Store also drove the increase for the second quarter. These gains offset lower export sales for the Company's international businesses and the dissolution of the Precept Foods joint venture at the end of fiscal year 2014.

Cost of products sold for the second quarter of fiscal 2015 decreased 2.5 percent to $1.82 billion compared to $1.87 billion in the second quarter last year, and increased 1.6 percent to $3.77 billion in the first six months compared to $3.71 billion in the prior fiscal year. Lower pork input costs for the Refrigerated Foods, Grocery Products, and International & Other segments led to the decrease for the quarter. For the second quarter and first six months, additional product costs from the acquisition of CytoSport and a $4.5 million charge for the closure of its production facility in Benicia, CA partially offset those reductions. First six month results also reflect nonrecurring charges totaling $10.5 million related to the closure of the Stockton, California manufacturing facility.

Gross profit for the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 2015 was $459.6 million and $904.2 million, respectively, compared to $378.8 million and $777.4 million for the same periods last year. Gross profit as a percentage of net sales increased to 20.2 percent for the second quarter of fiscal 2015 from 16.9 percent in the same quarter of fiscal 2014, and increased to 19.3 percent for the first six months compared to 17.3 percent in fiscal 2014. Continued robust value-added product sales for both Refrigerated Foods and Jennie-O Turkey Store enhanced margin gains. Lower pork input costs for Refrigerated Foods and favorable fuel costs for Jennie-O Turkey Store also contributed to the higher margins. Additionally, shipping and handling expenses for the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 2015 have increased in the Specialty Foods and Jennie-O Turkey Store segments.

The record results enjoyed in the first half of the year have well positioned the Company to deliver earnings growth for the fiscal year. However, the Company expects Jennie-O Turkey Store to be challenged by the expected headwinds created from the impact of highly pathogenic avian influenza (HPAI) on the turkey supply chain. Growth of value-added product lines in the Refrigerated Foods segment should offset lower pork operating margins. The Grocery Products segment is expected to benefit from lower pork input costs. Specialty Foods is positioned to deliver earnings increases in the second half of the year with the CytoSport business and the improving port conditions should provide some relief for the International segment in the second half of the year. The Company expects the pending Applegate Foods, LLC (Applegate) acquisition to be neutral to earnings in fiscal 2015 after factoring in transaction costs and fair value adjustments. The benefits of this acquisition should be fully realized in fiscal 2016.

Selling, general and administrative expenses for the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 2015 were $189.7 million and $370.0 million, respectively, compared to $165.8 million and $332.0 million in the prior year. Selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of net sales increased to 8.3 percent and 7.9 percent of net sales in the second quarter and first six months of 2015 compared to 7.4 percent for both the second quarter and first six months in 2014. Higher employee-related expenses and increased advertising expenses representing the additions from acquisitions led to the increase compared to last year. The Company expects selling, general and administrative expenses to be between 7.5 percent and 7.8 percent for the full year in fiscal 2015.

Equity in earnings of affiliates was $7.9 million and $9.5 million for the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 2015, respectively, compared to $3.6 million and $8.3 million for the same periods last year. Improved results from the Company's MegaMex Foods joint venture reflecting incentive expense in the prior year more than offset overall lower results in the Company's international joint ventures in the second quarter and pre-tax charges associated with the exit from international joint venture businesses totaling $9.5 million in the first quarter of fiscal 2015 compared to last year.

The effective tax rate for both the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 2015 was 34.6 percent, compared to 34.0 percent and 34.2 percent for the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 2014. The higher rate for the second quarter and first six months of the current year is predominantly due to the unfavorable impact of the exit from international joint venture businesses. The Company expects a full-year effective tax rate between 34.0 and 35.0 percent for fiscal 2015.

Grocery Products

The Grocery Products segment consists primarily of the processing, marketing, and sale of shelf-stable food products sold predominantly in the retail market. This segment also includes the results from the Company's MegaMex joint venture.

Results for the Grocery Products segment for the second quarter and first six months compared to the prior year are as follows:

(in thousands)	Three Months			Six Months
	April 26, 2015	April 27, 2014	% Change	April 26, 2015	April 27, 2014	% Change

Segment profit	$ 55,327	$ 54,890	0.8	$ 96,702	$ 111,232	(13.1)

Additional MegaMex Foods products not included in the prior year contributed an incremental $24.1 million of net sales and 15.9 million lbs. for the second quarter, and $41.6 million of net sales and 30.1 million lbs. for the first six months of fiscal 2015 to top-line results. Strong sales of the SPAM family of products also contributed to the improved net sales results. Sales of Hormel Compleats microwave meals declined during the second quarter. Sales of SKIPPY peanut butter products were also down due to pricing declines in the category.

Grocery Products continues to drive sales by leveraging the Company's iconic brands in new and innovative ways. The coast-to-coast SPAMERICAN™ Tour kicked off in the second quarter, featuring the SPAM family of products.

Segment profit results in the second quarter were aided by lower pork input costs and increased equity results, while the decline in segment profit in the first six months of fiscal 2015 was largely attributed to nonrecurring charges totaling $10.5 million related to the closure of the Stockton, California manufacturing facility.

The Company anticipates strong segment profit growth in the second half of the year, benefitting from continued lower input costs and softer prior year comparisons.

Refrigerated Foods

The Refrigerated Foods segment includes the Hormel Refrigerated operating segment and the Affiliated Business Units. This segment consists primarily of the processing, marketing, and sale of branded and unbranded pork and beef products for retail, foodservice, and fresh product customers. The Affiliated Business Units include the Farmer John, Burke Corporation, and Dan's Prize businesses. Through fiscal 2014, this segment also included Precept Foods, LLC, a 50.01 percent owned joint venture that was dissolved at the end of the fiscal year.

Results for the Refrigerated Foods segment for the second quarter and first six months compared to the prior year are as follows:

(in thousands)	Three Months			Six Months
	April 26, 2015	April 27, 2014	% Change	April 26, 2015	April 27, 2014	% Change
Net sales	$ 1,022,511	$ 1,111,244	(8.0)	$ 2,166,726	$ 2,239,665	(3.3)
Tonnage (lbs.)	584,315	578,101	1.1	1,187,022	1,196,620	(0.8)
Segment profit	$ 114,837	$ 75,397	52.3	$ 215,989	$ 160,696	34.4

Retail sales gains were led by Hormel pepperoni and Hormel Gatherings party trays for both the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 2015. Foodservice sales of Hormel Bacon 1 fully cooked bacon and Hormel pizza toppings also experienced gains for both the second quarter and first six months. A new Austin Blues competition-style barbecue meats line was launched in the second quarter in the foodservice channel as the Company continues to drive innovation in the category. Despite robust value-added sales, sales declined overall in the second quarter primarily due to price decreases on items such as bacon, driven by declining pork markets, and the dissolution of the Precept Foods joint venture at the end of fiscal 2014.

Strong segment profit results were driven by lower input costs along with strong sales growth of value-added products. Both the value-added retail and foodservice businesses as well as the Affiliated Business Units posted significant segment profit gains compared to the prior year.

Entering the second half of the year, the Company expects to continue to benefit from lower input costs. Additionally, value-added sales are expected to continue to enhance both top and bottom-line results, although year-over-year growth is expected to be less robust in light of difficult comparisons to the prior year's strong third quarter. Additional Applegate sales are expected towards the end of the third quarter, but the benefit of that business will be offset by expenses and fees related to the transaction. The benefits of this acquisition should be fully realized in fiscal 2016.

Jennie-O Turkey Store

The Jennie-O Turkey Store (JOTS) segment consists primarily of the processing, marketing, and sale of branded and unbranded turkey products for retail, foodservice, and fresh product customers.

Results for the JOTS segment for the second quarter and first six months compared to the prior year are as follows:

(in thousands)	Three Months			Six Months
	April 26, 2015	April 27, 2014	% Change	April 26, 2015	April 27, 2014	% Change

Net sales	$	438,912	$	380,425	15.4	$	878,931	$	779,825	12.7
Tonnage (lbs.)		229,144		201,819	13.5		460,357		413,431	11.4
Segment profit	$	74,596	$	52,808	41.3	$	167,616	$	112,353	49.2

Net sales growth for the second quarter of fiscal 2015 was primarily driven by robust sales of value-added products compared to the prior year. Sales growth was led by strong sales of Jennie-O lean ground turkey and Jennie-O rotisserie turkey for both the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 2015.

In addition to improved value-added product results, segment profit for the second quarter of fiscal 2015 benefitted from improved live production performance. Lower feed and fuel costs also contributed to the improved performance as compared to the higher costs seen in the prior year due to the extended harsh winter.

In late March, the Midwest began experiencing significant outbreaks of HPAI impacting farms scheduled to supply Jennie-O Turkey Store with turkeys, which caused a modest financial impact in the second quarter. Looking ahead in fiscal 2015, the Company expects Jennie-O Turkey Store to be significantly challenged due to the impacts of HPAI on the turkey supply chain. The number of birds through the Company's facilities was reduced at the beginning of the third quarter as a result of the impact of HPAI on bird supply. Rationalization of future sales promotions and product mix is taking place to properly manage the available meat supplies as prices are expected to increase as additional farms are identified.

Specialty Foods

The Specialty Foods segment includes the Diamond Crystal Brands (DCB), CytoSport/Century Foods International, and Hormel Specialty Products (HSP) operating segments. This segment consists of the packaging and sale of private label shelf stable products, nutritional products, sugar, and condiments to industrial, retail, and foodservice customers. This segment also includes the processing, marketing, and sale of nutritional food products and supplements to hospitals, nursing homes, and other marketers of nutritional products.

Results for the Specialty Foods segment for the second quarter and first six months compared to the prior year are as follows:

(in thousands)	Three Months			Six Months
	April 26, 2015	April 27, 2014	% Change	April 26, 2015	April 27, 2014	% Change
Net sales	$ 287,424	$ 217,176	32.3	$ 550,698	$ 413,155	33.3
Tonnage (lbs.)	177,038	151,028	17.2	345,910	295,243	17.2
Segment profit	$ 21,144	$ 19,134	10.5	$ 39,720	$ 40,389	(1.7)

The comparative sales results for the second quarter and first six months reflect the addition of the CytoSport business acquired on August 11, 2014, which contributed $82.6 million of net sales and 35.0 million lbs. for the second quarter and $143.6 million of net sales and 62.7 million lbs. for the first six months for Specialty Foods in fiscal 2015.

The improved segment profit results for the second quarter of fiscal 2015 were primarily driven by the incremental CytoSport results, despite a $4.5 million charge due to the closure of its production facility in Benicia, C.A.

Specialty Foods is positioned for strong performance in the second half of the year as the Company has realized synergies and distribution gains while igniting innovation to build the Muscle Milk brand to enhance segment growth.

International & Other

The International & Other segment includes the Hormel Foods International operating segment, which manufactures, markets, and sells Company products internationally. This segment also includes the results from the Company's international joint ventures and miscellaneous corporate sales.

Results for the International & Other segment for the second quarter and first six months compared to the prior year are as follows:

(in thousands)	Three Months			Six Months
	April 26, 2015	April 27, 2014	% Change	April 26, 2015	April 27, 2014	% Change
Net sales	$ 133,233	$ 143,991	(7.5)	$ 271,047	$ 261,343	3.7
Tonnage (lbs.)	78,928	81,065	(2.6)	151,259	145,878	3.7
Segment profit	$ 21,383	$ 20,863	2.5	$ 35,767	$ 43,420	(17.6)

Lower sales in the second quarter were primarily due to declines in exports which were hampered by port challenges and demand pressure from the strong US dollar. Continued strong growth in China partially offset the decline. The additional China based SKIPPY peanut butter sales also enhanced top-line results for the first six months of fiscal 2015, contributing an incremental $5.9 million of net sales and 3.1 million lbs.

For segment profit results, improved royalties and positive results from the Company's international joint ventures for the second quarter were partially offset by reduced exports due to the port challenges. For the first six months, International & Other segment profits were also negatively impacted by nonrecurring charges of $9.5 million related to the exit from international joint venture businesses.

On March 16, 2015, the Company purchased the remaining 19.29% ownership interest in its Shanghai Hormel Foods Corporation joint venture from the minority partner Shanghai Shangshi Meat Products Co. Ltd., resulting in 100.0% ownership of that business at the end of the second quarter.

Looking ahead, the Company expects the International & Other segment to deliver growth with improved export sales and solid results from the Company's China business.

Unallocated Income and Expenses

The Company does not allocate investment income, interest expense, and interest income to its segments when measuring performance. The Company also retains various other income and unallocated expenses at corporate. Equity in earnings of affiliates is included in segment operating profit; however, earnings attributable to the Company's noncontrolling interests are excluded. These items are included in the segment table for the purpose of reconciling segment results to earnings before income taxes.

Net interest and investment expense (income) for the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 2015 was a net expense of $2.0 million and $3.9 million, respectively, compared to $3.4 million and $5.3 million for the second quarter and six months of fiscal 2014. Interest expense was flat with the prior year at $3.1 and $6.2 million for the second quarter and first six months, respectively.

General corporate expense for the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 2015 was $9.8 million and $13.1 million, respectively, compared to $7.2 million and $16.1 million for the comparable periods of fiscal 2014. The increased expense for the second quarter was primarily due to increased salary-related expenses while the decreased expense for the first six months reflects the miscellaneous sale of assets and sales and use tax refunds.

Net earnings attributable to the Company's noncontrolling interests were $0.2 million and $0.9 million for the second quarter and first six months of fiscal 2015, respectively, compared to $0.6 million and $1.7 million for the comparable periods of fiscal 2014. The change reflects the dissolution of the Company's Precept Foods joint venture at the end of fiscal 2014.

Related Party Transactions

There has been no material change in the information regarding Related Party Transactions that was disclosed in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended October 26, 2014.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Cash and cash equivalents were $624.4 million at the end of the second quarter of fiscal year 2015 compared to $499.3 million at the end of the comparable fiscal 2014 period.

Cash provided by operating activities was $445.7 million in the first six months of fiscal 2015 compared to $275.0 million in the same period of fiscal 2014. Increased earnings and overall favorable changes in working capital were the primary drivers of the improved cash flows in fiscal 2015.

Cash used in investing activities was $38.6 million in the first six months of fiscal 2015 compared to $112.4 million in the comparable quarter of fiscal 2014. The first six months of 2014 include $41.5 million spent to purchase the China based SKIPPY peanut butter business in Weifang, China from Unilever United States Inc. Capital expenditures in the first six months of fiscal 2015 have decreased to $55.0 million from $77.1 million in the comparable six months of fiscal 2014. The Company currently estimates its fiscal 2015 capital expenditures will be approximately $165.0 to $180.0 million.

Cash used in financing activities was $115.2 million in the first six months of fiscal 2015 compared to $97.1 million in the same period of fiscal 2014. On March 16, 2015, the Company purchased the remaining 19.29% ownership interest in its Shanghai Hormel Foods Corporation joint venture from the minority partner Shanghai Shangshi Meat Products Co. Ltd., resulting in 100.0% ownership of that business at the end of the second quarter. The interest was purchased with $11.7 million in cash, along with the transfer of land use rights and buildings held by the joint venture. The Company did not repurchase any of its common stock in the first six months of fiscal 2015 compared to $15.1 million purchased in the first six months of the prior year. For additional information pertaining to the Company's share repurchase plans or programs, see Part II, Item 2 "Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and Use of Proceeds."

Cash dividends paid to the Company's shareholders continue to be an ongoing financing activity for the Company. Dividends paid in the first six months of fiscal 2015 were $118.7 million compared to $97.6 million in the comparable period of fiscal 2014. For fiscal 2015, the annual dividend rate has been increased to $1.00 per share, representing the 49th consecutive annual dividend increase. The Company has paid dividends for 347 consecutive quarters and expects to continue doing so.

The Company is required, by certain covenants in its debt agreements, to maintain specified levels of financial ratios and financial position. At the end of the second quarter of fiscal 2015, the Company was in compliance with all of these debt covenants.

Cash flows from operating activities continue to provide the Company with its principal source of liquidity. The Company does not anticipate a significant risk to cash flows from this source in the foreseeable future because the Company operates in a relatively stable industry and has a balanced business model that provides the Company the ability to navigate challenges and continue to deliver consistent growth over the long term.

Maximizing the value returned to shareholders through quarterly dividend payments remains a priority for the Company in fiscal 2015. The Company seeks strategic acquisitions to generate growth, as evidenced by the recent announcement of the pending Applegate acquisition, and will continue to invest in product innovations. Capital spending to enhance and expand current operations will also be a significant cash outflow for fiscal 2015.

Contractual Obligations and Commercial Commitments

The Company records income taxes in accordance with the provisions of ASC 740, Income Taxes. The Company is unable to determine its contractual obligations by year related to this pronouncement, as the ultimate amount or timing of settlement of its reserves for income taxes cannot be reasonably estimated. The total liability for unrecognized tax benefits, including interest and penalties, at April 26, 2015, was $25.3 million.

On May 26, 2015, subsequent to the end of the second quarter, the Company entered into a definitive agreement to acquire Applegate for a preliminary purchase price of $775 million in cash. The Company expects to close the acquisition within 60 days subject to regulatory approvals. The purchase price is expected to be funded by the Company with existing cash on hand generated from operations and short-term financing. There have been no other material changes to the information regarding the Company's future contractual financial obligations that was disclosed in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended October 26, 2014.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

As of April 26, 2015, and October 26, 2014, the Company had $42.0 million and $41.7 million, respectively, of standby letters of credit issued on its behalf. The standby letters of credit are primarily related to the Company's self-insured workers compensation programs. However, that amount also includes $3.5 million of revocable standby letters of credit for obligations of an affiliated party that may arise under workers compensation claims. Letters of credit are not reflected in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Financial Position.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This report contains "forward-looking" information within the meaning of the federal securities laws. The "forward-looking" information may include statements concerning the Company's outlook for the future as well as other statements of beliefs, future plans, strategies, or anticipated events and similar expressions concerning matters that are not historical facts.

The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (the Reform Act) provides a "safe harbor" for forward-looking statements to encourage companies to provide prospective information. The Company is filing this cautionary statement in connection with the Reform Act. When used in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, the Company's Annual Report to Stockholders, other filings by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the Commission), the Company's press releases, and oral statements made by the Company's representatives, the words or phrases "should result," "believe," "intend," "plan," "are expected to," "targeted," "will continue," "will approximate," "is anticipated," "estimate," "project," or similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Reform Act. Such statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from historical earnings and those anticipated or projected.

In connection with the "safe harbor" provisions of the Reform Act, the Company is identifying risk factors that could affect financial performance and cause the Company's actual results to differ materially from opinions or statements expressed with respect to future periods. The discussion of risk factors in Part II, Item 1A of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q contains certain cautionary statements regarding the Company's business, which should be considered by investors and others. Such risk factors should be considered in conjunction with any discussions of operations or results by the Company or its representatives, including any forward-looking discussion, as well as comments contained in press releases, presentations to securities analysts or investors, or other communications by the Company.

In making these statements, the Company is not undertaking, and specifically declines to undertake, any obligation to address or update each or any factor in future filings or communications regarding the Company's business or results, and is not undertaking to address how any of these factors may have caused changes to discussions or information contained in previous filings or communications. Though the Company has attempted to list comprehensively these important cautionary risk factors, the Company wishes to caution investors and others that other factors may in the future prove to be important in affecting the Company's business or results of operations.

The Company cautions readers not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements, which represent current views as of the date made. Forward-looking statements are inherently at risk to any changes in the national and worldwide economic environment, which could include, among other things, economic conditions, political developments, currency exchange rates, interest and inflation rates, accounting standards, taxes, and laws and regulations affecting the Company and its markets.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

Hog Markets: The Company's earnings are affected by fluctuations in the live hog market. To minimize the impact on earnings, and to ensure a steady supply of quality hogs, the Company has entered into contracts with producers for the purchase of hogs at formula-based prices over periods of up to 10 years. Purchased hogs under contract accounted for 94 percent and 97 percent of the total hogs purchased by the Company during the first six months of fiscal 2015 and 2014, respectively. The majority of these contracts use market-based formulas based on hog futures, hog primal values, or industry reported hog markets. Other contracts use a formula based on the cost of production, which can fluctuate independently from hog markets. Under normal, long-term market conditions, changes in the cash hog market are offset by proportional changes in primal values. Therefore, a hypothetical 10 percent change in the cash hog market would have had an immaterial effect on the Company's results of operations.

Certain procurement contracts allow for future hog deliveries (firm commitments) to be forward priced. The Company generally hedges these firm commitments by using hog futures contracts. These futures contracts are designated and accounted for as fair value hedges. The change in the market value of such futures contracts is highly effective at offsetting changes in price movements of the hedged item, and the Company evaluates the effectiveness of the contracts at least quarterly. Changes in the fair value of the futures contracts, along with the gain or loss on the firm commitment, are marked-to-market through earnings and are recorded on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Position as a current asset and liability, respectively. The fair value of the Company's open futures contracts as of April 26, 2015, was $2.2 million compared to $0.6 million as of October 26, 2014.

The Company measures its market risk exposure on its hog futures contracts using a sensitivity analysis, which considers a hypothetical 10 percent change in market prices. A 10 percent increase in market prices would have negatively impacted the fair value of the Company's April 26, 2015, open contracts by $2.0 million, which in turn would lower the Company's future cost of purchased hogs by a similar amount.

Turkey and Hog Production Costs: The Company raises or contracts for live turkeys and hogs to meet some of its raw material supply requirements. Production costs in raising turkeys and hogs are subject primarily to fluctuations in feed prices, and to a lesser extent, fuel costs. Under normal, long-term market conditions, changes in the cost to produce turkeys and hogs are offset by proportional changes in their respective markets.

To reduce the Company's exposure to changes in grain prices, the Company utilizes a hedge program to offset the fluctuation in the Company's future direct grain purchases. This program currently utilizes corn futures for JOTS, and these contracts are accounted for under cash flow hedge accounting. The open contracts are reported at their fair value with an unrealized loss of $(7.5) million, before tax, on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Position as of April 26, 2015, compared to an unrealized loss of $(11.3) million, before tax, as of October 26, 2014.

The Company measures its market risk exposure on its grain futures contracts using a sensitivity analysis, which considers a hypothetical 10 percent change in the market prices for grain. A 10 percent decrease in the market price for grain would have negatively impacted the fair value of the Company's April 26, 2015, open grain contracts by $8.1 million, which in turn would lower the Company's future cost on purchased grain by a similar amount.

Long-Term Debt: A principal market risk affecting the Company is the exposure to changes in interest rates on the Company's fixed-rate, long-term debt. Market risk for fixed-rate, long-term debt is estimated as the potential increase in fair value, resulting from a hypothetical 10 percent decrease in interest rates, and amounts to approximately $3.3 million. The fair value of the Company's long-term debt was estimated using discounted future cash flows based on the Company's incremental borrowing rate for similar types of borrowing arrangements.

Investments: The Company holds trading securities as part of a rabbi trust to fund certain supplemental executive retirement plans and deferred income plans. As of April 26, 2015, the balance of these securities totaled $120.3 million. A majority of these securities represent fixed income funds. The Company is subject to market risk due to fluctuations in the value of the remaining investments, as unrealized gains and losses associated with these securities are included in the Company's net earnings on a mark-to-market basis. A 10 percent decline in the value of the investments not held in fixed income funds would have a direct negative impact to the Company's pretax earnings of approximately $4.1 million, while a 10 percent increase in value would have a positive impact of the same amount.

International: While the Company does have international operations and operates in international markets, it considers its market risk in such activities to be immaterial.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

(a) Disclosure Controls and Procedures.

As of the end of the period covered by this report (the Evaluation Date), the Company carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of management, including the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of its disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rule 13a-15(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act)). In designing and evaluating the disclosure controls and procedures, management recognized that any controls and procedures, no matter how well designed and operated, can provide only reasonable assurance of achieving the desired control objectives. Based on that evaluation, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that, as of the Evaluation Date, the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were effective to provide reasonable assurance that information the Company is required to disclose in reports it files or submits under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized, and reported within the time periods specified in Commission rules and forms, and that such information is accumulated and communicated to the Company's management, including its Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

(b) Internal Controls.

During the first six months of fiscal year 2015, there has been no change in the Company's internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) under the Exchange Act) that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

PART II - OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings

The Company is a party to various legal proceedings related to the on-going operation of its business, including claims both by and against the Company. At any time, such proceedings typically involve claims related to product liability, contract disputes, wage and hour laws, employment practices, or other actions brought by employees, consumers, competitors, or suppliers. The Company establishes accruals for its potential exposure, as appropriate, for claims against the Company when losses become probable and reasonably estimable. However, future developments or settlements are uncertain and may require the Company to change such accruals as proceedings progress. Resolution of any currently known matters, either individually or in the aggregate, is not expected to have a material effect on the Company's financial condition, results of operations, or liquidity.

Item 1A. Risk Factors

The Company's operations are subject to the general risks of the food industry.

The food products manufacturing industry is subject to the risks posed by:

- food spoilage;
- food contamination caused by disease-producing organisms or pathogens, such as Listeria monocytogenes, Salmonella, and pathogenic E coli;
- food allergens;
- nutritional and health-related concerns;
- federal, state, and local food processing controls;
- consumer product liability claims;
- product tampering; and
- the possible unavailability and/or expense of liability insurance.

The pathogens which may cause food contamination are found generally in livestock and in the environment and thus may be present in our products as a result of food processing. These pathogens also can be introduced to our products as a result of improper handling by customers or consumers. We do not have control over handling procedures once our products have been shipped for distribution. If one or more of these risks were to materialize, the Company's brand and business reputation could be negatively impacted. In addition, revenues could decrease, costs of doing business could increase, and the Company's operating results could be adversely affected.

Deterioration of economic conditions could harm the Company's business.

The Company's business may be adversely affected by changes in national or global economic conditions, including inflation, interest rates, availability of capital markets, energy availability and costs (including fuel surcharges), and the effects of governmental initiatives to manage economic conditions. Decreases in consumer spending rates and shifts in consumer product preferences could also negatively impact the Company.

Volatility in financial markets and the deterioration of national and global economic conditions could impact the Company's operations as follows:

- The financial stability of our customers and suppliers may be compromised, which could result in additional bad debts for the Company or non-performance by suppliers; and
- The value of our investments in debt and equity securities may decline, including most significantly the Company's trading securities held as part of a rabbi trust to fund supplemental executive retirement plans and deferred income plans, and the Company's assets held in pension plans.

The Company also utilizes hedging programs to manage its exposure to various commodity market risks, which qualify for hedge accounting for financial reporting purposes. Volatile fluctuations in market conditions could cause these instruments to become ineffective, which could require any gains or losses associated with these instruments to be reported in the Company's earnings each period. These instruments may also limit the Company's ability to benefit from market gains if commodity prices become more favorable than those that have been secured under the Company's hedging programs.

Additionally, if a highly pathogenic disease outbreak developed in the United States, it may negatively impact the national economy, demand for Company products, and/or the Company's workforce availability, and the Company's financial results could suffer. The Company has developed contingency plans to address infectious disease scenarios and the potential impact on its operations, and will continue to update these plans as necessary. There can be no assurance given, however, that these plans will be effective in eliminating the negative effects of any such diseases on the Company's operating results.

Fluctuations in commodity prices of pork, poultry, feed ingredients, avocados, peanuts, energy, and whey could harm the Company's earnings.

The Company's results of operations and financial condition are largely dependent upon the cost and supply of pork, poultry, feed grains, avocados, peanuts, and whey as well as energy costs and the selling prices for many of our products, which are determined by constantly changing market forces of supply and demand.

The live hog industry has evolved to very large, vertically integrated operations operating under long-term supply agreements. This has resulted in fewer hogs being available on the cash spot market. Additionally, overall hog production in the U.S. has declined. The decrease in the supply of hogs could diminish the utilization of harvest and production facilities and increase the cost of the raw materials they produce. Consequently, the Company uses long-term supply contracts based on market-based formulas or the cost of production to ensure a stable supply of raw materials while minimizing extreme fluctuations in costs over the long term. This may result, in the short-term, in costs for live hogs that are higher than the cash spot market depending on the relationship of the cash spot market to contract prices. Market-based pricing on certain product lines, and lead time required to implement pricing adjustments, may prevent all or part of these cost increases from being recovered, and these higher costs could adversely affect our short-term financial results.

Jennie-O Turkey Store raises turkeys and also contracts with turkey growers to meet its raw material requirements for whole birds and processed turkey products. Additionally, the Company owns various hog raising facilities that supplement its supply of raw materials. Results in these operations are affected by the cost and supply of feed grains, which fluctuate due to climate conditions, production forecasts, and supply and demand conditions at local, regional, national, and worldwide levels. The Company attempts to manage some of its short-term exposure to fluctuations in feed prices by forward buying, using futures contracts, and pursuing pricing advances. However, these strategies may not be adequate to overcome sustained increases in market prices due to alternate uses for feed grains or other changes in these market conditions.

International trade barriers and other restrictions could result in less foreign demand and increased domestic supply of proteins which could lower prices.

Outbreaks of disease among livestock and poultry flocks could harm the Company's revenues and operating margins.

The Company is subject to risks associated with the outbreak of disease in pork and beef livestock, and poultry flocks, including Bovine Spongiform Encephalopathy (BSE), pneumo-virus, Porcine Circovirus 2 (PCV2), Porcine Reproduction & Respiratory Syndrome (PRRS), Foot-and-Mouth Disease (FMD), Porcine Epidemic Diarrhea Virus (PEDv), and Highly Pathogenic Avian Influenza (HPAI). The outbreak of disease could adversely affect the Company's supply of raw materials, increase the cost of production, reduce utilization of the Company's harvest facilities, and reduce operating margins. Additionally, the outbreak of disease may hinder the Company's ability to market and sell products both domestically and internationally. Most recently, HPAI has impacted the Company's Jennie-O Turkey Store operations and several of the Company's independent turkey suppliers. The spread of HPAI in the industry continues to be a concern and will reduce volume through the Company's turkey facilities through at least the second half of the year. The Company has developed business continuity plans for various disease scenarios and will continue to update these plans as necessary. There can be no assurance given, however, that these plans will be effective in eliminating the negative effects of any such diseases on the Company's operating results.

Market demand for the Company's products may fluctuate.

The Company faces competition from producers of alternative meats and protein sources, including pork, beef, turkey, chicken, fish, peanut butter, and whey. The bases on which the Company competes include:

- price;
- product quality and attributes;
- brand identification;
- breadth of product line; and
- customer service.

Table of Contents

Demand for the Company's products is also affected by competitors' promotional spending, the effectiveness of the Company's advertising and marketing programs, and consumer perceptions. Trends within the food industry change often, and failure to identify and react to changes in these trends could lead to, among other things, reduced demand and price reductions for the Company's brands and products. The Company may be unable to compete successfully on any or all of these bases in the future.

The Company's operations are subject to the general risks associated with acquisitions.

The Company has made several acquisitions in recent years, including the recently announced acquisition of Applegate planned for the second half of fiscal 2015, and regularly reviews opportunities for strategic growth through acquisitions. Potential risks associated with acquisitions include the inability to integrate new operations successfully, the diversion of management's attention from other business concerns, the potential loss of key employees and customers of the acquired companies, the possible assumption of unknown liabilities, potential disputes with the sellers, potential impairment charges if purchase assumptions are not achieved or market conditions decline, and the inherent risks in entering markets or lines of business in which the Company has limited or no prior experience. Any or all of these risks could impact the Company's financial results and business reputation. In addition, acquisitions outside the United States may present unique challenges and increase the Company's exposure to the risks associated with foreign operations.

The Company's operations are subject to the general risks of litigation.

The Company is involved on an ongoing basis in litigation arising in the ordinary course of business. Trends in litigation may include class actions involving employees, consumers, competitors, suppliers, shareholders, or injured persons, and claims relating to product liability, contract disputes, intellectual property, advertising, labeling, wage and hour laws, employment practices, or environmental matters. Litigation trends and the outcome of litigation cannot be predicted with certainty and adverse litigation trends and outcomes could adversely affect the Company's financial results.

The Company is subject to the loss of a material contract.

The Company is a party to several supply, distribution, contract packaging, and other material contracts. The loss of a material contract could adversely affect the Company's financial results.

Government regulation, present and future, exposes the Company to potential sanctions and compliance costs that could adversely affect the Company's business.

The Company's operations are subject to extensive regulation by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, the U.S. Department of Agriculture, the U.S. Food and Drug Administration, federal and state taxing authorities, and other state and local authorities that oversee workforce immigration laws, tax regulations, animal welfare, food safety standards, and the processing, packaging, storage, distribution, advertising, and labeling of the Company's products. The Company's manufacturing facilities and products are subject to continuous inspection by federal, state, and local authorities. Claims or enforcement proceedings could be brought against the Company in the future. The availability of government inspectors due to a government furlough could also cause disruption to the Company's manufacturing facilities. Additionally, the Company is subject to new or modified laws, regulations, and accounting standards. The Company's failure or inability to comply with such requirements could subject the Company to civil remedies, including fines, injunctions, recalls, or seizures, as well as potential criminal sanctions.

The Company is subject to stringent environmental regulation and potentially subject to environmental litigation, proceedings, and investigations.

The Company's past and present business operations and ownership and operation of real property are subject to stringent federal, state, and local environmental laws and regulations pertaining to the discharge of materials into the environment, and the handling and disposition of wastes (including solid and hazardous wastes) or otherwise relating to protection of the environment. Compliance with these laws and regulations, and the ability to comply with any modifications to these laws and regulations, is material to the Company's business. New matters or sites may be identified in the future that will require additional investigation, assessment, or expenditures. In addition, some of the Company's facilities have been in operation for many years and, over time, the Company and other prior operators of these facilities may have generated and disposed of wastes that now may be considered hazardous. Future discovery of contamination of property underlying or in the vicinity of the Company's present or former properties or manufacturing facilities and/or waste disposal sites could require the Company to incur additional expenses. The occurrence of any of these events, the implementation of new laws and regulations, or stricter interpretation of existing laws or regulations, could adversely affect the Company's financial results.

The Company's foreign operations pose additional risks to the Company's business.

The Company operates its business and markets its products internationally. The Company's foreign operations are subject to the risks described above, as well as risks related to fluctuations in currency values, foreign currency exchange controls, compliance with foreign laws, compliance with applicable U.S. laws, including the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, and other economic or political uncertainties. International sales are subject to risks related to general economic conditions, imposition of tariffs, quotas, trade barriers and other restrictions, enforcement of remedies in foreign jurisdictions and compliance with applicable foreign laws, and other economic and political uncertainties. All of these risks could result in increased costs or decreased revenues, which could adversely affect the Company's financial results.

Deterioration of labor relations or increases in labor costs could harm the Company's business.

As of April 26, 2015, the Company had approximately 20,600 employees worldwide, of which approximately 5,300 were represented by labor unions, principally the United Food and Commercial Workers Union. A significant increase in labor costs or a deterioration of labor relations at any of the Company's facilities or contracted hog processing facilities that results in work slowdowns or stoppages could harm the Company's financial results. Union contracts at the Company's facilities in Algona, Iowa; Atlanta, Georgia; Austin, Minnesota; Beloit, Wisconsin; and Fremont, Nebraska will expire during fiscal 2015, covering a combined total of approximately 3,300 employees. Negotiations at these facilities have not yet been initiated. A union contract at the Company's facility in Vernon, California expired in April 2015, and the Company negotiated a new contract for this facility during the second quarter.

(b) Unless otherwise expressly provided, for purposes of this Agreement, the following rules of interpretation shall apply:

(i) Calculation of Time Period. When calculating the period of time before which, within which or following which any act is to be done or step is to be taken pursuant to this Agreement, the date that is the reference date in calculating such period shall be excluded. If the last day of such period is a non-Business Day, the period in question shall end on the next succeeding Business Day.

(ii) Dollars. Any reference in this Agreement to “$” means U.S. dollars. The specification of any dollar amount in the representations and warranties or otherwise in this Agreement or in the Disclosure Schedules is not intended and shall not be deemed to be an admission or acknowledgment of the materiality of such amounts or items, nor shall the same be used in any dispute or controversy between the parties to determine whether any obligation, item or matter (whether or not described herein or included in any schedule) is or is not material for purposes of this Agreement.

(iii) Exhibits/Schedules. All Exhibits and Schedules annexed hereto or referred to herein are hereby incorporated in and made a part of this Agreement as if set forth in full herein and are an integral part of this Agreement. Any capitalized terms used in any Schedule or Exhibit but not otherwise defined therein shall be defined as set forth in this Agreement. References to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement include the transactions contemplated by the Seller Documents, the Company Documents, the Blocker Documents and the Buyer Documents.

(iv) Gender and Number. Any reference in this Agreement to gender shall include all genders, and words imparting the singular number only shall include the plural and vice versa.

(v) Headings. The provision of a Table of Contents, the division of this Agreement into Articles, Sections and other subdivisions and the insertion of headings are for convenience of reference only and shall not affect or be utilized in construing or interpreting this Agreement. All references in this Agreement to any “Article” or “Section” are to the corresponding Article or Section of this Agreement unless otherwise specified.

(vi) Herein. The words such as “herein,” “hereinafter,” “hereof,” “hereby,” “hereto” and “hereunder” refer to this Agreement as a whole and not merely to a subdivision in which such words appear unless the context otherwise requires.

(vii) Including. The word “including” or any variation thereof means “including, without limitation,” and shall not be construed to limit any general statement that it follows to the specific or similar items or matters immediately following it.

(viii) Reflected On or Set Forth In. An item arising with respect to a specific representation or warranty shall be deemed to be “reflected on” or “set forth in” a balance sheet or financial statements, to the extent any such phrase appears in such representation or warranty, if (A) there is a reserve, accrual or other similar item underlying a number on such balance sheet or financial statements that is related to the subject matter of such representation, (B) such item is otherwise specifically set forth on the balance sheet or financial statements or (C) such item is reflected on the balance sheet or financial statements and is specifically set forth in the notes thereto.

(ix) Or. The word “or” is not exclusive.

(x) Joint Drafting. The parties hereto have participated jointly in the negotiation and drafting of this Agreement and the other agreements contemplated hereby and, in the event an ambiguity or question of intent or interpretation arises, this Agreement shall be construed as jointly drafted by the parties hereto and no presumption or burden of proof shall arise favoring or disfavoring any party by virtue of the authorship of any provision of this Agreement.

(xi) Disclosure Schedules. The Disclosure Schedules have been arranged in sections corresponding to the sections of this Agreement. Each schedule of the Disclosure Schedules will be deemed to incorporate by reference all information disclosed in any other schedule of the Disclosure Schedules to the extent reasonably apparent on its face that such information applies to such other section. No reference to or disclosure of any item or other matter in the Disclosure Schedules shall be construed as an admission or indication that such item or other matter is material (nor shall it establish a standard of materiality for any purpose whatsoever) or that such item or other matter is required to be referred to or disclosed in the Disclosure Schedules. The information set forth in the Disclosure Schedules is disclosed solely for the purposes of this Agreement, and no information set forth therein shall be deemed to be an admission by any party hereto to any third party of any matter whatsoever, including any violation of Law or breach of any agreement or other instrument or obligation, or deemed or interpreted to expand in any way the scope or effect of the representations and warranties, covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement.

ARTICLE II

PURCHASE AND SALE

SECTION 2.1 Purchase and Sale. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, at the Closing, Buyer shall (i) purchase from each Unit Seller, and each Unit Seller shall assign, transfer and convey to Buyer, all Subject

Units owned by such Unit Seller and (ii) purchase from each Blocker Seller, and each Blocker Seller shall assign, transfer and convey to Buyer, all Blocker Interests owned by such Blocker Seller.

SECTION 2.2 Closing Date. Unless this Agreement shall have been terminated pursuant to Section 11.1 (Termination of Agreement), the closing of the transactions contemplated hereby (the “Closing”) shall take place at the offices of Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver & Jacobson LLP, One New York Plaza, New York, NY 10004 (or at such other place as Buyer and the Representative may designate in writing) at 10:00 a.m. local time on the third (3rd) Business Day after the satisfaction or waiver of each condition to the Closing set forth in Article IX (other than conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver of such conditions). The date on which the Closing shall occur is referred to in this Agreement as the “Closing Date”. The Closing shall be deemed to have occurred at 12:01 a.m. on the day upon which the Closing Date occurs.

SECTION 2.3 Closing Deliverables.

(a) At the Closing, Buyer shall:

(i) pay or cause to be paid to each Seller, each Seller’s share (as set forth on the Payment Schedule) of the Closing Payment, by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the account specified in the Payment Schedule;

(ii) pay or cause to be paid the Indemnification Escrow Amount by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account (the “Indemnification Escrow Account”) designated and administered by the Escrow Agent pursuant to the Escrow Agreement;

(iii) pay or cause to be paid the Reconciliation Escrow Amount by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account (the “Reconciliation Escrow Account”) designated and administered by the Escrow Agent pursuant to the Escrow Agreement;

(iv) pay or cause to be paid the Representative Expense Amount by wire transfer of immediately available funds to one or more accounts designated by the Representative;

(v) pay or cause to be paid, on behalf of the Company, to the lender under the Credit Agreement the amount set forth on the Payment Schedule by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the account specified in the Payment Schedule; and

(vi) pay or cause to be paid, on behalf of the Company, the Closing Transaction Expenses (as set forth on the Payment Schedule) by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the accounts specified in the Payment Schedule.

(b) At the Closing, the Company shall deliver to Buyer:

(i) written resignations, dated as of the Closing Date, duly executed by each of the members of the board of managers of the Company, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Buyer;

(ii) an LTIP Cancellation Agreement duly executed by each LTIP Holder;

(iii) a customary payoff letter with respect to the Credit Agreement that lists all obligations of the Company to the lenders thereunder as of the Closing Date under the Credit Agreement; and

(iv) a good standing certificate, dated within five (5) Business Days before Closing, from the Delaware Secretary of State stating that the Company is in good standing therein.

(c) At the Closing, the Blocker shall deliver to Buyer:

(i) written resignations, dated as of the Closing Date, duly executed by each of officers and directors of the Blocker, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Buyer; and

(ii) a good standing certificate, dated within five (5) Business Days before Closing, from the Delaware Secretary of State stating that the Blocker is in good standing therein.

(d) At the Closing, each Blocker Seller shall deliver to Buyer stock certificates evidencing the Blocker Interests owned by such Blocker Seller, duly endorsed in blank or accompanied by powers or other instruments of transfer duly executed in blank, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Buyer.

(e) At the Closing, each of the Unit Sellers shall deliver to Buyer an assignment and assumption agreement to effect the assignment of each Unit Seller's Subject Units to Buyer, duly executed by each Unit Seller, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Buyer.

SECTION 2.4 Escrow Agreement. On the Closing Date, Buyer and the Representative shall enter into an escrow agreement with the Escrow Agent effective as of the Closing Date which shall be substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit D (the "Escrow Agreement"). Subject to Section 10.9 (Reconciliation Escrow Amount and Indemnification Escrow Amount), at the eighteen (18) month anniversary of the Closing (the "Indemnification Escrow Release Date"), Buyer and the Representative shall issue joint written instructions to the Escrow Agent authorizing the distribution to the Sellers, in accordance with payment instructions delivered by the Representative to Buyer, the amount of funds then remaining in the Indemnification Escrow Account, if any, to the extent (i) not subject to unresolved indemnification claims made by Buyer or Buyer's Other Indemnified Persons in accordance with Article X prior to that time (and such funds subject to unresolved claims shall remain in the Indemnification Escrow Account until the resolution thereof) and (ii) the aggregate amount in dispute under Section 3.2 does not exceed the then current balance of the Reconciliation Escrow Account (and the portion of the aggregate amount in dispute under Section 3.2 that exceeds the then current balance of the Reconciliation Escrow Account shall remain in the Indemnification Escrow Account until resolution thereof). In the event of any conflict between this Agreement and the Escrow Agreement, the terms of this Agreement shall control.

SECTION 2.5 Payment Schedule. No later than three (3) Business Days prior to the Closing Date, the Company shall deliver to Buyer a schedule (i) setting forth each Seller's share of the Closing Payment, (ii) setting forth each Person to whom any Transaction Expense is owing and such Person's share of the Closing Payment, (iii) setting forth the Person to whom amounts are owing under the Credit Agreement and such Person's share of the Closing Payment and (iv) designating the accounts to which the Closing Payment due each Seller, each Person to whom any Transaction Expense is owing, and the Person to whom amounts are owing under the Credit Agreement shall be paid by Buyer at the Closing (the "Payment Schedule"), which shall be prepared consistently in all material respects with the methodology contained in the illustrative Payment Schedule set forth on Exhibit E.

ARTICLE III

ESTIMATED PURCHASE PRICE AND POST-CLOSING ADJUSTMENT

SECTION 3.1 Estimated Purchase Price. No later than three (3) Business Days prior to the Closing, the Company shall prepare and deliver to Buyer a statement (the "Estimated Statement") reflecting the Company's calculation of the Purchase Price (the "Estimated Purchase Price") based on good faith estimates of the Closing Indebtedness, the Closing Cash, the Closing Transaction Expenses and the Closing Net Working Capital, all of which shall be calculated on a basis consistent with this Agreement, including, as applicable, Exhibit B.

SECTION 3.2 Post-Closing Adjustment.

(a) As promptly as practicable after the Closing, but no later than ninety (90) days after the Closing Date, Buyer shall prepare and deliver to the Representative a statement (the "Closing Statement") setting forth Buyer's good faith calculation of the Closing Indebtedness, the Closing Cash, the Closing Transaction Expenses and the Closing Net Working Capital, which shall

(b) The Company and Buyer shall (i) permit the Representative and its representatives to have reasonable access at reasonable times to the books and records of the Company pertaining to or used in connection with the preparation of the Closing Statement and provide the Representative with copies thereof as reasonably requested by the Representative (except that no party hereto will be required to give access to or otherwise disclose any information if such access or disclosure would jeopardize any attorney-client or other privilege or contravene any applicable Law) and (ii) provide the Representative and its representatives reasonable access at reasonable times to the employees and accountants of the Company, Buyer and its Subsidiaries as reasonably requested by the Representative for the purpose of discussing the books and records pertaining to or used in connection with the preparation of the Closing Statement. If the Representative claims that Buyer has failed to comply with its obligations under this Section 3.2(b) to provide access to books, records and personnel, it may initiate the appointment of the Accounting Firm. The Accounting Firm shall have the authority to determine if Buyer has complied with its obligations to provide access and to order (if necessary) Buyer to comply with any such obligations. If the Representative disagrees with any part of Buyer's calculation of the Closing Indebtedness, the Closing Cash, the Closing Transaction Expenses or the Closing Net Working Capital as set forth on the Closing Statement, the Representative shall, within forty-five (45) days after the Representative's receipt of the Closing Statement, notify Buyer in writing of such disagreement (an "Objection Notice"). The Objection Notice shall specify the items and amounts of which aspects of the Closing Statement are being disputed and reasonably describe the basis for such dispute. Items and amounts identified in the Closing Statement that are not disputed by the Representative in the Objection Notice, shall be considered final and binding on all of the parties and such items and amounts shall not be subject to further review. If the Representative does not deliver an Objection Notice within such forty-five (45) day period to Buyer, then the Closing Statement shall be conclusive, final and binding on all of the parties (in such instance, a "Final Statement"). If the Representative delivers an Objection Notice to Buyer, then Buyer and the Representative shall negotiate in good faith to resolve their disagreements with respect to the computation of the Closing Indebtedness, the Closing Cash, the Closing Transaction Expenses and/or the Closing Net Working Capital, and any such resolution shall be conclusive and binding on all of the parties (in such instance, a "Final Statement"). In the event that Buyer and the Representative are unable to resolve all such disagreements within fifteen (15) days after Buyer's receipt of such Objection Notice, either Buyer or the Representative may elect that the parties shall jointly submit such remaining disagreements to KPMG LLP or, if KPMG LLP declines to serve, any other nationally recognized certified public accounting firm as is reasonably acceptable to Buyer and the Representative (the "Accounting Firm").

(c) Buyer and the Representative shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Accounting Firm to resolve all remaining disagreements with respect to the computation of the Closing Indebtedness, the Closing Cash, the Closing Transaction Expenses and/or the Closing Net Working Capital identified in the Objection Notice as promptly as practicable, but in any event shall direct the Accounting Firm to render a determination within thirty (30) days after its retention. The Accounting Firm shall consider only those items and amounts in Buyer's and the Representative's respective calculations of the Closing Indebtedness, the Closing Cash, the Closing Transaction Expenses and the Closing Net Working Capital, that are identified as being items and amounts to which Buyer and the Representative have been unable to agree. The Accounting Firm may not consider any items or amounts that were not presented on the Closing Statement or Objection Notice. In resolving any disputed item, the Accounting Firm may not assign a value to any item greater than the greatest value for such item claimed by either party in the Closing Statement or the Objection Notice, as applicable, or less than the smallest value for such item claimed by either party in the Closing Statement or the Objection Notice, as applicable. The Accounting Firm's determination of the Closing Indebtedness, the Closing Cash, the Closing Transaction Expenses and/or the Closing Net Working Capital, as applicable, shall be based solely on written materials submitted by Buyer and the Representative and oral submissions made by Buyer and the Representative (i.e., not on independent review) and on the definitions set forth in this Agreement. The determination of the Accounting Firm shall be conclusive and binding upon the parties hereto and shall not be subject to appeal or further review (other than with respect to errors in arithmetic calculations) (in such instance, a "Final Statement").

(d) The costs and expenses of the Accounting Firm in determining the Closing Indebtedness, the Closing Cash, the Closing Transaction Expenses and/or the Closing Net Working Capital shall be borne by Buyer and the Representative, respectively, in the proportion that the aggregate dollar amount of the disputed items submitted to the Accounting Firm by such party that are unsuccessfully disputed by such party (as finally determined by the Accounting Firm) bears to the aggregate dollar amount of disputed items submitted by Buyer and the Representative.

(e) For purposes of this Agreement, the “Final Purchase Price” means the Purchase Price as calculated based on the Closing Indebtedness, the Closing Cash, the Closing Transaction Expenses and the Closing Net Working Capital set forth on any Final Statement as determined in accordance with this Section 3.2. Within five (5) Business Days after the Final Purchase Price is determined pursuant to this Section 3.2:

(i) If the Final Purchase Price exceeds the Estimated Purchase Price, (A) Buyer will promptly pay to, or at the direction of, the Representative, for payment to the Sellers, an amount equal to such excess by wire transfer of immediately available funds and (B) Buyer and the Representative shall provide joint written instructions to the Escrow Agent to release all amounts remaining in the Reconciliation Escrow Account to, or at the direction of, the Representative, for payment to the Sellers, by wire transfer of immediately available funds.

(ii) If the Final Purchase Price is less than the Estimated Purchase Price (such difference being the “Shortfall Amount”), Buyer and the Representative shall provide joint written instructions to the Escrow Agent to (A) release to Buyer an amount equal to the lesser of (x) the Shortfall Amount and (y) the amount remaining in the Reconciliation Escrow Account, and (B) release all amounts remaining in the Reconciliation Escrow Account after the distribution described in clause (A) (if any) to, or at the direction of, the Representative, for payment to the Sellers, in each case, by wire transfer of immediately available funds. Pursuant to Section 10.9, Buyer shall have recourse against the Indemnification Escrow Amount to the extent the Shortfall Amount exceeds the Reconciliation Escrow Amount.

(f) Any payment to be made pursuant to Section 3.2(e) shall be treated by all parties for tax purposes as an adjustment to the purchase price, unless otherwise required under applicable Law.

ARTICLE IV

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE SELLERS

Except as disclosed in the disclosure schedules (the “Disclosure Schedules”) delivered to Buyer in connection with this Agreement, each Seller, severally and not jointly, hereby represents and warrants to Buyer that each statement contained in this Article IV is true and correct with respect to such Seller.

SECTION 4.1 Organization. If such Seller is a corporation or other legal entity, such Seller is duly incorporated or organized, validly existing and in good standing under the Laws of its jurisdiction of organization, and has all requisite power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and the other documents, instruments, certificates, and agreements contemplated hereby to be executed by such Seller in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (the “Seller Documents”) and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby. If such Seller is a corporation or other legal entity, the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and each Seller Document by such Seller have been duly authorized and approved by all necessary action with respect to such Seller, and each such authorization and approval remains in full force and effect. If such Seller is an individual, he or she has full legal capacity, right and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and the Seller Documents and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby.

SECTION 4.2 Authorization of Agreement. This Agreement has been, and each of the Seller Documents has been or will be at or prior to the Closing, duly and validly executed and delivered by such Seller, and this Agreement constitutes, and each Seller Document constitutes or when so executed and delivered will constitute, the legal, valid and binding obligation of such Seller, enforceable against such Seller in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium and similar laws affecting creditors’ rights and remedies generally, and subject, as to enforceability, to general principles of equity (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in a proceeding at law or in equity) (the “Bankruptcy and Equity Exception”).

SECTION 4.3 Conflicts; Consents of Third Parties.

(a) None of the execution and delivery by such Seller of this Agreement or the Seller Documents, the consummation by such Seller of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, or compliance by such Seller with any of the provisions hereof or thereof will result (with or without notice or lapse of time, or both) in any amendment, suspension, modification, acceleration of rights or obligations under, the imposition of any Lien, violation of or default under, or give rise to a right of amendment, suspension, modification, acceleration of rights or obligations, termination, cancellation, or to impose any Lien under, any provision of (i) if such Seller is a corporation or other legal entity, the certificate of incorporation or by-laws or comparable organizational documents of such Seller; (ii) any Order applicable to such Seller or by which any of the properties or assets of such Seller is bound; or (iii) any applicable Law, other than, in the case of clauses (i), (ii) and (iii), such amendments, suspensions, modifications, accelerations, obligations, impositions, violations, defaults, terminations or cancellations that would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect on such Seller's ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby.

(b) No consent, waiver, approval or authorization of, or declaration or filing with, or notification to, any Governmental Body is required on the part of such Seller in connection with the execution and delivery by such Seller of this Agreement or the Seller Documents or the consummation by such Seller of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, except for (i) compliance with the applicable requirements of the HSR Act and any other applicable Antitrust Laws, (ii) such consents, waivers, approvals, authorizations, declarations or filings that, if not obtained, made or given, would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect on such Seller's ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, and (iii) as may be necessary as a result of any facts or circumstance relating solely to Buyer or any of its Affiliates.

SECTION 4.4 Title. If such Seller is a Unit Seller, such Seller is the sole record and beneficial owner of, and has good and valid title to, the Units set forth opposite its name on Exhibit A and such Seller will deliver to Buyer at the Closing such Units free and clear of any Lien, and if such Seller is a Blocker Seller, such Seller is the sole record and beneficial owner of, and has good and valid title to, the Blocker Interests set forth opposite its name on Exhibit A and such Seller will deliver to Buyer at the Closing such Blocker Interests free and clear of any Lien.

SECTION 4.5 Exclusivity of Seller Representations. Except for the representations and warranties expressly set forth in this Article IV (as modified by the Disclosure Schedules) and any representations and warranties expressly set forth in any Seller Document, such Seller makes no other representation or warranty, and such Seller hereby disclaims all liability and responsibility for any other representation, warranty, projection, forecast, statement or information made, communicated or furnished (orally or in writing) to Buyer or any of its Affiliates or representatives (including any opinion, information, projection or advice that may have been or may be provided to Buyer or any of its Affiliates or representatives by any director, manager, officer, employee, agent, consultant or representative of any Seller, the Company, the Blocker or any of their respective Affiliates).

ARTICLE V

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE COMPANY

Except as disclosed in the Disclosure Schedules, the Company hereby represents and warrants to Buyer that each statement contained in this Article V is true and correct.

SECTION 5.1 Organization. The Company is a limited liability company duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware, and has all requisite power and authority to own, lease and operate its properties and to carry on its business as now conducted. The Company is duly qualified or authorized to do business as a foreign entity in each other jurisdiction in which it owns, leases or operates properties, or conducts business, so as to require such qualification or authorization, except where the failure to be so qualified or authorized would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect.

SECTION 5.2 Authorization of Agreement. The Company has all requisite limited liability company power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and the other documents, instruments, certificates, and agreements contemplated hereby to be executed by the Company in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (the “Company Documents”) and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and each Company Document by the Company have been duly authorized and approved by all necessary action with respect to the Company, and each such authorization and approval remains in full force and effect. This Agreement has been, and each of the Company Documents has been or will be at or prior to the Closing, duly and validly executed and delivered by the Company, and this Agreement constitutes, and each Company Document constitutes or when so executed and delivered will constitute, the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Company, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, subject to the Bankruptcy and Equity Exception.

SECTION 5.3 Conflicts; Consents of Third Parties.

(a) Except as set forth in Schedule 5.3(a), none of the execution and delivery by the Company of this Agreement or the Company Documents, the consummation by the Company of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, or compliance by the Company with any of the provisions hereof or thereof will result (with or without notice or lapse of time, or both) in any amendment, suspension, modification, acceleration of rights or obligations under, the imposition of any Lien, violation of or default under, or give rise to a right of amendment, suspension, modification, acceleration of rights or obligations, termination, cancellation, or to impose any Lien under any provision of (i) the certificate of formation of the Company or the Company Operating Agreement; (ii) any Contract or Permit to which the Company is a party or by which it or any of the properties or assets of the Company is bound; (iii) any Order applicable to the Company or by which any of the properties or assets of the Company is bound; or (iv) any applicable Law, other than, in the case of clauses (ii), (iii) and (iv), such amendments, suspensions, accelerations, impositions, violations, defaults, terminations or cancellations that are not material or that arise solely as a result of any facts or circumstances relating to Buyer or any of its Affiliates.

(b) No consent, waiver, approval or authorization of, or declaration or filing with, or notification to, any Governmental Body is required on the part of the Company in connection with the execution and delivery by the Company of this Agreement or the Company Documents or the consummation by the Company of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, except for (i) compliance with the applicable requirements of the HSR Act and any other applicable Antitrust Laws, (ii) such consents, waivers, approvals, authorizations, declarations, filings or notifications that, if not obtained, made or given, would not be material, and (iii) as may be necessary as a result of any facts or circumstance relating solely to Buyer or any of its Affiliates.

SECTION 5.4 Capitalization.

(a) The record owners of all of the outstanding Units are set forth in Schedule 5.4(a).

(b) All outstanding Units are duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable and not subject to and were not issued in violation of any purchase option, call option, right of first refusal, preemptive right, subscription right or any similar right under any provision of the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act, the certificate of formation of the Company or the Company Operating Agreement Company or any Contract to which the Company is a party or otherwise bound.

(c) Except as set forth in Schedule 5.4(c), (i) there is no option, warrant, call, put, convertible instrument, Contract, commitment, purchase right, subscription right, conversion right, exchange right, right of first refusal, or similar right, agreement, arrangement or undertaking of any kind whereby any Person has, or has a right to receive, any equity interest of, or right or obligation to acquire any equity interest of, the Company, (ii) there are no proxies, voting trusts, voting agreements or similar rights or Contracts with respect to the Units or the Company, and (iii) there are no unit appreciation rights, profit participation rights, phantom units or similar rights with respect to the Company.

(d) The Company does not own, or have any ownership interest in, any other Person.

SECTION 5.5 Financial Statements.

(a) The Company has delivered to Buyer copies of (i) the audited balance sheet of the Company as of each of December 28, 2012 and December 27, 2013 and the related audited statements of income and members' equity and cash flows of the Company for the fifty-two (52) weeks ended December 28, 2012 and December 27, 2013 (the December 28, 2012 and December 27, 2013 audited statements of income and members' equity and cash flows, together with the audited balance sheets of the Company as of December 28, 2012 and December 27, 2013, are the "Audited Financial Statements"), (ii) the balance sheet of the Company as of December 26, 2014 (the "Balance Sheet Date" and such balance sheet, the "Balance Sheet") and the related statements of income and members' equity and cash flows of the Company for the fifty-two (52) weeks ended December 26, 2014 (the December 26, 2014 statements of income and members' equity and cash flows, together with the Balance Sheet, are the "2014 Financial Statements"), and (iii) the unaudited balance sheet of the Company as of March 31, 2015 (the "Interim Balance Sheet") and the related unaudited statements of income and members' equity and cash flows of the Company for the three (3) fiscal months ended March 31, 2015 (the Interim Balance Sheet and the related unaudited statements of income and members' equity and cash flows of the Company for the three (3) fiscal months ended March 31, 2015, are collectively the "Interim Financial Statements" and all of the foregoing, together with the Audited Financial Statements and the 2014 Financial Statements, are collectively the "Financial Statements"). The Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with GAAP consistently applied and fairly present, in all material respects, the financial position, results of operations and cash flows of the Company as of the dates and for the periods indicated therein, subject in the case of the Interim Financial Statements, to the absence of footnote disclosure and to normal, recurring end-of-year adjustments. The Financial Statements were prepared in accordance with, and are consistent with, the books of account and financial records of the Company (which books and records are correct and complete in all material respects).

(b) The Company has delivered to Buyer a true, correct and complete copy of its certificate of formation and the Company Operating Agreement as in effect as of the date hereof. Schedule 5.5(b) sets forth a list of all the officers and directors of the Company as of the date hereof.

SECTION 5.6 No Undisclosed Liabilities. The Company does not have any liabilities of a nature that would have been required to be reflected on the Balance Sheet or in the notes thereto in accordance with GAAP and were not so reflected, other than (i) liabilities incurred in the Ordinary Course of Business after the Balance Sheet Date, (ii) liabilities incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, (iii) liabilities that have been discharged or paid in full prior to the date hereof in the Ordinary Course of Business, or (iv) taken into account in the Estimated Statement or the Final Statement.

SECTION 5.7 Absence of Certain Developments. Except as contemplated by this Agreement or as set forth in Schedule 5.7, since the Balance Sheet Date, (i) the Company has conducted its business in the Ordinary Course of Business, (ii) there has not been any event, condition or change that, individually or in the aggregate, constitutes a Material Adverse Effect, and (iii) the Company has not taken any action that, if such action had occurred after the signing of this Agreement and prior to the Closing, would have required the consent of Buyer pursuant to Section 8.2(b).

SECTION 5.8 Taxes.

(a) The Company has timely filed all material Tax Returns required to be filed by it and such Tax Returns were true and correct in all material respects, and all material Taxes owed by the Company have been timely paid (whether or not shown as due on any Tax Return).

(b) The Company has withheld and paid over, or caused to be withheld and paid over, to the appropriate Taxing Authorities, all material Taxes required to be so withheld and paid over for all periods under all applicable Law.

(c) No examination, claim, litigation or other Proceeding is pending or, to the Knowledge of the Company, threatened with regard to any material Taxes of the Company.

(d) No requests for waivers of the time to assess any material Tax have been made that are still pending (other than extensions of time to file Tax Returns obtained in the ordinary course).

(e) The Company is not engaged in any “listed transaction” within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.6011-4(b)(2).

(f) The Company has been taxed as a partnership for U.S. federal income and applicable state and local tax purposes since its organization.

(g) No written claim has been made in the last three (3) years by a Taxing Authority in a jurisdiction where the Company does not file any Tax Return that the Company is or may be subject to taxation by such jurisdiction.

(h) The Company will not be required to include any material item of income in, or exclude any material item of deduction from, taxable income for any taxable period (or portion thereof) ending after the Closing Date as a result of any (i) change in method of accounting for a taxable period ending on or before the Closing Date, (ii) “closing agreement” as described in Section 7121 of the Code or other agreement with a Taxing Authority (or any similar provision of any Law) executed on or before the Closing Date, (iii) intercompany transaction or excess loss account described in Treasury Regulations under Section 1502 of the Code (or any similar provision of any Law), (iv) installment sale or open transaction disposition made on or before the Closing Date, or (v) prepaid amount received on or before the Closing Date other than any such amount received in the Ordinary Course of Business.

(i) Neither the Company, nor any predecessor of the Company, has been a member of a group (including an affiliated group) with which it has filed or been included in a combined, consolidated or unitary income tax Tax Return, other than a group in which it is currently a member. The Company has not been a party to or bound by any Tax indemnity agreement, Tax sharing agreement, Tax allocation agreement or similar Contract that includes any Person other than the Company (other than any such agreement or Contract not primarily related to Taxes). Neither the Company nor any predecessor of the Company is liable for any Tax of any Taxpayer other than the Company under Treasury Regulations Section 1.1502-6 (or any similar provision of any Law), as a transferee or successor, by Contract (including any Tax allocation agreement, Tax sharing agreement or Tax indemnity agreement) or otherwise, in each case for any Taxable period beginning before the Closing Date. After the Closing Date, neither the Company nor any predecessor of the Company will be bound by or have any liability under any Tax indemnity agreement, Tax sharing agreement, Tax allocation agreement or similar Contract entered into before the Closing (other than any such agreement or Contract not primarily related to Taxes), including for any amount due with respect to any taxable period ending on or before the Closing Date.

SECTION 5.9 Real Property.

(a) The Company does not own, and has never owned, any real property.

(b) Schedule 5.9 sets forth a list by street or location of all leases or subleases of real property leased by the Company as tenant or lessee (including as subtenant or sublessee) or by the Company as lessor (including as sublessor) (collectively, the “Leased Real Property Leases”). The Leased Real Property Leases are in full force and effect, subject to proper authorization and execution of such lease by the other party thereto and the Bankruptcy and Equity Exception. The Company is not in default or material breach under any Leased Real Property Lease, and, to the Knowledge of the Company, no other party is in default or otherwise in material breach thereof. Sellers have provided to Buyer a true, correct and complete copy of each Leased Real Property Lease.

(c) To the Knowledge of the Company (provided that, for purposes of this sentence, “Knowledge of the Company” shall not require any inquiry or investigation), as of the date hereof, there is no material defect in any structural component of any improvement on any Leased Real Property or any of its electrical, plumbing, HVAC, life safety or other building systems. As of the date hereof, there is no pending or, to the Knowledge of the Company, threatened condemnation or other eminent domain proceeding affecting any Leased Real Property or any sale or other disposition of any Leased Real Property in lieu of condemnation.

(d) The Company has not given any mortgagee or other Person any estoppel certificate or similar instrument that would preclude assertion of any claim under any Leased Real Property Lease, affect any right or obligation under any Leased Real Property Lease or otherwise be binding upon any successor to the Company's position under any Leased Real Property Lease.

SECTION 5.10 Intellectual Property.

(a) Schedule 5.10(a) sets forth a list of all (i) patents and patent applications and trademark, service mark, domain names and copyright registrations and applications for registration, in each case, that are owned by the Company (collectively, "Company Registered Intellectual Property") and (ii) licenses of Intellectual Property (other than any non-exclusive license concerning commercially available data or software involving in any such case aggregate payments by the Company of less than $100,000) granted by third parties to the Company or by the Company to a third party ("Licensed Intellectual Property"). Except as set forth in Schedule 5.10(a), the Company either owns free and clear of all Liens (except for Permitted Exceptions), or has sufficient rights to use, all Intellectual Property used to conduct the business of the Company as currently conducted (collectively, the "Company Intellectual Property").

(b) All necessary registration, maintenance, renewal, and annuity fees have been paid, and all necessary documents have been filed, in connection with the Company Registered Intellectual Property. In connection with the Company Registered Intellectual Property, all registrations are in force and all applications for the same are pending in good standing and without any adverse action or proceedings pending or threatened by or before the Governmental Body in which the registrations or applications are issued or filed. The Company Registered Intellectual Property is valid and enforceable and none of the Company Registered Intellectual Property has been declared invalid or unenforceable or been limited by any court or arbitration panel. There are no pending or threatened actions by third parties challenging the validity or enforceability of, or contesting the Company's rights with respect to, any of the Company Registered Intellectual Property, other than office actions in the ordinary course of prosecution. The Company has not received in the past three (3) years any notice or claim challenging the validity or enforceability of any Company Registered Intellectual Property, other than office actions in the ordinary course of prosecution.

(c) The Company has taken reasonable steps to protect, preserve and maintain the secrecy and confidentiality of its confidential and proprietary information and data that the Company wishes to maintain as confidential and that is not otherwise disclosed by the Company's published patents, patent applications or copyrights.

(d) A privacy statement addressing the collection, retention, use and distribution of the personally identifiable information of individuals visiting the websites of the Company (the "Privacy Statement") is posted and accessible to individuals on each website of the Company. The Company (i) complies in all material respects with each of the Privacy Statements applicable to any given set of personally identifiable information collected by the Company; and (ii) complies in all material respects with all Laws regarding the collection, retention, use and disclosure of personally identifiable information. The Company has taken measures to protect and maintain the confidential nature of the personally identifiable information provided to the Company by individuals and to personal information collected from individuals against loss, theft and unauthorized access or disclosure, which measures are, as a whole, not less protective and comprehensive than those that would be taken by reasonably prudent business persons operating in the Company's industry. The Company has not received in the past three (3) years any written claims, notices or complaints regarding the Company's information practices or the disclosure, retention, or misuse of any personally identifiable information by the Federal Trade Commission, any similar foreign bodies, or any other Governmental Body.

(e) Except as set forth in Schedule 5.10(e), no Proceeding is currently pending and in the past six (6) years no claim or demand has been made or, to the Knowledge of the Company, threatened in writing by any Person that (i) the use by the Company of the Company Intellectual Property infringes, misappropriates or otherwise violates the Intellectual Property of a third party, or (ii) that the Company is required to pay any royalty, license fee, charge or other amount in regard to, any Company Intellectual Property other than as set forth in the applicable license agreement. No Proceeding is currently pending and in the past six (6) years no claim or demand has been made or, to the Knowledge of the Company, threatened in writing against any third party involving an infringement, misappropriation or violation by such third party of any Company Intellectual Property owned by the Company or exclusively licensed to the Company and, to the Knowledge of the Company, no third party is engaging in any activity that infringes, misappropriates or violates any Company Intellectual Property owned by the Company or exclusively licensed to the Company. Except as set forth in Schedule 5.10(e), the conduct of the business of the Company has not in the past six (6) years and does not infringe, misappropriate or otherwise violate any rights of any Person in respect of Intellectual Property. The representations and warranties set forth in this Section 5.10(e) constitute the only representations and warranties the Company makes in respect of infringement, misappropriation or other violation of third party Intellectual Property.

SECTION 5.11 Material Contracts.

(a) Schedule 5.11(a) sets forth a true, correct and complete list (and to the extent that a Material Contract is oral, such Schedule contains an accurate description of the material terms thereof, and such Schedule indicates the applicable clause(s) among the following to which each such Material Contract relates) of Contracts to which the Company is a party or by which it or its assets is bound as of the date of this Agreement (each a "Material Contract" and, collectively, the "Material Contracts") and which:

25

(i) involve payments of more than $200,000 per year and relate to the borrowing of money or to mortgaging, pledging or otherwise placing a Lien on any of the assets of the Company, other than Permitted Exceptions;

(ii) relate to partnerships, joint ventures or similar arrangements;

(iii) provide for transaction, sale, retention, change of control, or similar payments to employees;

(iv) would impose any material restriction upon the ability of the Company to freely engage in its business anywhere in the world;

(v) constitute a guaranty of any obligation of any Person (other than the Company) or under which the Company remains obligated to lend to or make any investment in (in the form of a loan, capital contribution or otherwise) any other Person;

(vi) relate to the supply, manufacturing, distribution, marketing, advertising or promotion of products or services involving in any such case payments by the Company of more than $200,000 per year (other than purchases made pursuant to purchase orders in the Ordinary Course of Business);

(vii) relate to the supply of products (including distribution, dealer, broker, and sales representative Contracts) or services by the Company (other than any such Contract that is or on the Closing Date will be terminable at will or upon not more than 30 days' notice by the Company without any liability of the Company);

(viii) relate to pending acquisitions or sales of any business;

(ix) provide for employment or severance of any employee of the Company, other than any such Contract that is terminable without cost or penalty by the Company by notice of not more than sixty (60) days;

(x) are terminable, cancellable or modifiable upon a change in control of the Company;

(xi) relate to capital expenditures or the acquisition of fixed assets with expected aggregate expenditures in excess of $200,000;

(xii) are subject to United States Department of Agriculture, Grain Inspection, Packers & Stockyards Administration oversight or the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921 (7 U.S.C § 181, et seq.), as amended, or regulations promulgated thereunder;

(xiii) relates to the hedging of currency, commodity or interest rate risk or contains a swap or similar arrangement;

(xiv) contains a license of Intellectual Property (other than any non-exclusive license concerning commercially available software involving in any such case aggregate payments by the Company of less than $100,000) granted by a third party (or third parties) to the Company or by the Company to a third party (or third parties);

(xv) contains any form of most-favored-nation clause or grants any party exclusivity; or

(xvi) relate to the indemnification of any individual who at the Closing is, or at any time prior to the Closing was, a director, manager or officer of the Company in such individual's capacity as director, manager or officer of the Company.

(b) To the Knowledge of the Company, the Company has not received any written notice of any material breach or default or event that with or without notice or lapse of time, or both, would constitute a material breach or default by the Company under any Material Contract. The Company is not and, to the Knowledge of the Company, no other party thereto is in material breach of or default under any Material Contract. No event has occurred with respect to the Company that (with or without the passage of time or giving of notice, or both) would constitute a material breach or default of, or permit termination, modification, acceleration or cancellation of, any Material Contract or of any material right or obligation thereunder. To the Knowledge of the Company, no event has occurred with respect to any party to a Material Contract that (with or without the passage of time or giving of notice, or both) would constitute a material breach or default of, or permit termination, modification, acceleration or cancellation of, any Material Contract or of any material right or obligation thereunder. The Company has not waived in writing any material right under any Material Contract. Except as set forth in Schedule 5.11(b), as of the date hereof, (i) the Company has not terminated, modified, accelerated or canceled any Material Contract or any material right or liability thereunder or communicated in writing its intent to do so, and (ii) the Company has not received any written notice from any party to any Material Contract communicating its intent to terminate, modify, accelerate or cancel any Material Contract. The Company has not received any prepayment under any Material Contract for any service that has not been fully performed or good that has not been supplied (other than as is fully reflected in the Interim Balance Sheet and will be in Closing Net Working Capital). If the parties to a Material Contract are performing under terms that have expired by the express terms of such Material Contract, then Schedule 5.10(a) identifies such expiration and describes the material terms under which such parties continue to perform. As of the date hereof, there are no ongoing negotiations with respect to any Material Contract, and the Company has not received any notice of a party's desire or intent to renegotiate a Material Contract.

(c) Each of the Material Contracts is legal, valid and binding on the Company and, to the Knowledge of the Company, each other party thereto, and is in full force and effect and enforceable (except to the extent enforceability may be limited by the Bankruptcy and Equity Exception) in accordance with its terms against the Company and, to the Knowledge of the Company, against each other party thereto, except to the extent such failures to be legal, valid, binding, in full force and effect or enforceable would not, individually or in the aggregate, be material.

SECTION 5.12 Employee Benefits Plans.

(a) Schedule 5.12(a) sets forth a list of each material Company Benefit Plan or Company Employee Agreement. The Company has made available to Buyer true, correct and complete copies of (i) each Company Benefit Plan or Company Employee Agreement (or, in the case of any such Company Benefit Plan or Company Employee Agreement that is unwritten, a description thereof) and any amendments, (ii) the most recent annual reports on Form 5500 required to be filed with the IRS with respect to each Company Benefit Plan (if any such report was required), (iii) the most recent summary plan description, and any summaries of material modifications, for each Company Benefit Plan for which such summary plan description is required, (iv) each trust agreement and insurance or group annuity contract relating to any Company Benefit Plan, and (v) all written communication to or from any Governmental Body materially affecting the Company Benefit Plans or Company Employee Agreements for the past three (3) years. The Company Benefit Plans and Company Employee Agreements are all in material compliance with their terms and the applicable provisions of ERISA, the Code and all other applicable Laws.

(b) All Company Benefit Plans that are “employee pension plans” (as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA) and that are intended to be tax qualified under Section 401(a) of the Code that are sponsored or maintained by the Company (each, a “Company Pension Plan”) have received a current favorable determination letter from the IRS or may rely on the opinion letter received by the pre-approved plan sponsor from the IRS with respect to the tax-qualified status thereof and (ii) to the Knowledge of the Company, no event has occurred since the date of the most recent determination or opinion letter relating to any such Company Pension Plan that would reasonably be expected to result in such Company Pension Plan losing tax-qualified status. The Company has made available to Buyer the most recent determination or opinion letter received with respect to each Company Pension Plan.

(c) None of the Company Benefit Plans or Company Employee Agreements provide retiree medical or other retiree welfare benefits to any Person, other than health continuation coverage as required by Section 4980B of the Code or Part 6 of Title I of ERISA or applicable state laws, and all such coverage is provided solely at the individual’s expense.

(d) No Company Benefit Plan is (i) an employee benefit plan subject to Title IV of ERISA or Section 412 of the Code or (ii) a “multiemployer plan” (within the meaning of Section 4001(a)(3) of ERISA). Neither the Company nor any Person that, together with the Company is or was (within the past six (6) years) treated as a single employer under Section 414 of the Code, has at any time contributed to, or has had any liability or obligation in respect of, any plan subject to Title IV of ERISA.

(e) There are no material claims, actions, administrative agency charges, proceedings or investigations pending or, to the Knowledge of the Company, threatened against the Company with respect to any Company Benefit Plans or Company Employee Agreements (other than claims for benefits in the Ordinary Course of Business).

(f) Except as set forth in Schedule 5.12(f), no Company Benefit Plan or Company Employee Agreement exists that, as a result of the execution of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (whether alone or in connection with any subsequent event), would reasonably be expected to (i) result in the payment of severance or any increase in severance pay upon any termination of employment after the date of this Agreement to any employee or (ii) accelerate the time of payment or vesting or result in any forfeiture, payment or funding (through a grantor trust of otherwise) of compensation or benefits under, or increase the amount payable pursuant to, any Company Benefit Plan or Company Employee Agreement with respect to any individual (other than with respect to any portion of the Purchase Price, if any, to which such individual is entitled as a Seller).

(g) All nonqualified deferred compensation plans (as defined in Section 409A of the Code) of the Company are in compliance with Section 409A of the Code and neither the Company Benefit Plans or Company Employee Agreements nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement will cause a participant in such Company Benefit Plan or Company Employee Agreement to be subject to the tax imposed by Section 409A of the Code.

(h) Upon the termination of any Company Benefit Plan, no benefits would be due to any participant other than the benefits described in such Company Benefit Plan.

(i) The execution of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby will not, as of the Closing, constitute an event under any Company Benefit Plan or Employee Agreement resulting in the payment of any amount that may be deemed an “excess parachute payment” under Section 280G of the Code.

(j) The Company has not engaged in a non-exempt “prohibited transaction” within the meaning of Section 4975 of the Code with respect to any Company Benefit Plan. There are no facts or circumstances that would reasonably be expected to result in the imposition on the Company of any Tax under Section 4980H of the Code.

SECTION 5.13 Labor.

(a) Schedule 5.13(a) contains a complete and accurate list identifying all current Employees of the Company as of the date hereof and specifying with respect to each such individual, as of the date hereof: (i) job title, primary work location, start date, base salary or regular hourly wage rate, target bonus for 2015 (if applicable), classification as full-time or part-time and as exempt or non-exempt under the Fair Labor Standards Act; (ii) whether the individual is on or, to the Knowledge of the Company, is expected to start any disability leave or other leave of absence (other than the use of vacation leave in the Ordinary Course of Business); and (iii) whether the individual is subject to any agreement with the Company that makes the relationship between the individual and the Company anything other than an “at-will” relationship that may be terminated by either party at any time, with or without notice, without any liability to the Company.

(b) Schedule 5.13(b) sets forth a list of all written Company policies, procedures, handbooks or codes of conduct that apply to any current Employee of the Company.

(c) Except as set forth in Schedule 5.13(c), (i) there are no pending or otherwise unresolved or, to the Knowledge of the Company, threatened workers’ compensation

Proceedings with respect to any Employee; (ii) there is no pending or, to the Knowledge of the Company, threatened Proceeding or investigation by any Governmental Body with respect to any Employee that involves any alleged violation or breach by the Company (or any of its officers or directors) of any applicable labor Law or Contract; and (iii) the Company has not been the subject of any pending, or, to the Knowledge of the Company, threatened complaints or investigations conducted by the Occupational Safety and Health Administration or similar state Governmental Body and, to the Knowledge of the Company, the Company has complied in all material respects with all applicable Laws concerning occupational safety and health.

(d) The Company is not a party to any unexpired labor or collective bargaining agreement. The Company is not a party or subject to any pending or, to the Knowledge of the Company, threatened material labor strike, organized work stoppage, slowdown, lock out, unfair labor practice charge or similar labor activity or dispute affecting the Company.

(e) The Company has materially complied with the applicable Laws relating to the preparation and retention of Form 1-9 for each current Employee with respect to whom such form is required under applicable Law.

(f) To the Knowledge of the Company, no current Employee is subject to any obligation of confidentiality or non-competition that would reasonably be expected to restrict or impede the activities of any such Employee on behalf of the Company.

(g) Except as set forth on Schedule 5.13(g), to the Knowledge of the Company, as of the date hereof, no member of the Company’s senior leadership team has any intention to terminate such Employee’s relationship with the Company either before or after the Closing.

SECTION 5.14 Litigation. There are no (a) investigations by a Governmental Body pending or, to the Knowledge of the Company, threatened against the Company, or (b) material Proceedings pending or, to the Knowledge of the Company, threatened against the Company. The Company is not subject to any Order, except to the extent the same would not reasonably be material to the Company. The Company is not in breach or default of any Order.

SECTION 5.15 Compliance with Laws; Permits.

(a) The Company is, and for the last three (3) years has been, in compliance in all material respects with all Laws applicable to its business or operations. During the last three (3) years, to the Knowledge of the Company, the Company has not received any written notice of the violation of any Laws by the Company.

(b) The Company currently has all material Permits required for the operation of its business as presently conducted, and each such Permit is listed in Schedule 5.15. The Company is in compliance in all material respects with the terms of the Permits to which it is a party. During the last three (3) years, to the Knowledge of the Company, the Company has not received any notice of revocation, suspension, modification or termination with respect to any such Permit. No such Permit is subject to revocation, suspension, modification or termination as a result of transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(c) Except as to meat and poultry products exempt from compliance, during the last six (6) years, the Company and its Products have been in compliance with California's Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act of 1986 (Proposition 65).

(d) During the last six (6) years, the Company's Products are and have at all times been produced, manufactured, packaged, distributed, and labeled in compliance with the Federal Meat Inspection Act (FMIA), the Poultry Product Inspection Act (PPIA), the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act (FDCA), and all similar U.S. Federal and state laws and regulations relating to food products.

(e) During the last six (6) years, the Company's Products have not been adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of the FMIA, PPIA, and FDCA, and all similar U.S. state laws, nor have such Products been an article prohibited from introduction into interstate commerce under the FMIA, PPIA or FDCA at the time such article was delivered to the Company's customers.

(f) During the last six (6) years, the Company's advertising, labeling, and claims for the Company's Products have been in compliance with the FMIA, PPIA, FDCA, Federal Trade Commission Act (FTCA), state law equivalents to the FTCA, the Uniform Deceptive Trade Practices Act (as adopted by the U.S. states), and any other similar unfair or deceptive trade practices or false advertising laws.

(g) Each source of raw material used in the Company's Products, including all producers and processors that supply product to any co-packer on behalf of the Company, is compliant in all material respects with all written specifications or standards of production or care required by the Company to ensure that production output conforms to labeling claims, and the Company has access to and the right to have audited all production records to ensure that raw material used in the Products conforms to the specifications and standards of production and processing that are required to meet all advertising or labeling claims for such Products. All raw material used in the Company's Products in transit from any jurisdiction outside of the United States conforms with applicable USDA inspection requirements that are applicable to the import of such material into the United States.

(h) During the last six (6) years, to the Knowledge of the Company, the Company has not received written notice of any allegations or claims made by the FDA, USDA, FTC, state attorneys general, any other government agency, consumer, consumer group, competitor, supplier, customer, or attorney that any of the Company's Products were (1) unsafe; (2) posed a threat to human safety; (3) defective; (4) misbranded; or (5) falsely or misleadingly labeled or advertised.

(i) Except as set forth in Schedule 5.15(i), during the last six (6) years, (i) there have been no recalls or market withdrawals (as those terms are defined by the FDA and USDA, as applicable) of any Product of the Company, whether ordered by a Governmental Body or undertaken voluntarily by the Company, and (ii) none of the Products of the Company have been adulterated, misbranded, mispackaged, or mislabeled in violation of applicable Law, or pose a threat to the health or safety of a consumer when consumed in the intended manner.

SECTION 5.16 Environmental Matters.

(a) The Company is in material compliance with all applicable Environmental Laws. The Company has obtained each material Permit that it is required to obtain under any Environmental Law. The Company is, and during the last six (6) years has been, in compliance in all material respects with the terms and conditions of all material Permits issued to the Company pursuant to any Environmental Law. To the Knowledge of the Company, no incident, condition, change, effect or circumstance with respect to the Company has occurred during the last six (6) years that would reasonably be expected to prevent or interfere with the effectiveness or renewal of any material Permit.

(b) The Company is not a party to any pending or, to the Knowledge of the Company, threatened Proceeding alleging material non-compliance by the Company with, or that the Company has any material liability under, Environmental Laws. To the Knowledge of the Company, during the last six (6) years the Company has not installed, used, generated, treated, disposed of or arranged for the disposal of any Hazardous Material in any manner so as to create any liability under any Environmental Law or any other liability for the Company or Buyer.

(c) Sellers have delivered to Buyer a true, correct and complete copy of all reports, Permits, authorizations, disclosures and other documents relating to the status of any of the Leased Real Property or otherwise relating to the business of the Company with respect to any Environmental Law (including all Phase I and Phase II environmental site assessments related to any of the Leased Real Property) that are in the Company's or the Sellers' possession or control.

SECTION 5.17 Insurance. All insurance policies maintained by the Company as of the date of this Agreement are set forth on Schedule 5.17. As of the date of this Agreement, all such policies are legal, valid, binding, enforceable and in full force and effect, all premiums due and payable thereon have been paid (other than retroactive or retrospective premium adjustments that are not yet but may be required to be paid with respect to any period ending prior to the Closing Date) and to the Knowledge of the Company no notice of cancellation or termination has been received with respect to any such policy which has not been replaced on substantially similar terms prior to the date of such cancellation. The Company is not in default or otherwise in breach thereof (including regarding payment of premiums or giving of notices) in any material respect.

SECTION 5.18 Transactions with Affiliates. Except as set forth in Schedule 5.18, the Company is not, and for the three (3) years immediately preceding the date of this Agreement has not been, indebted to, or a party to any agreement with, any Seller, director, employee, manager or officer (or any of their Affiliates) of the Company (or in the case of any such Person who is an individual, any member of his or her immediate family) (each, a "Company Related Person"), other than the Company Employee Agreements, or for reimbursable business expenses in the Ordinary Course of Business or benefits under the Plans, nor is any Company Related Person indebted to the Company, other than for advances made to employees of the Company in the Ordinary Course of Business to meet reimbursable business expenses reasonably anticipated to be incurred by such obligor. No Company Related Person currently has any interest in real or personal property used by the Company.

SECTION 5.19 No Brokers. Except as set forth in Schedule 5.19 (all of which arrangements constitute Transaction Expenses), no Person has acted, directly or indirectly, as a broker, finder or financial advisor for the Company in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and no such Person is entitled to any fee or commission or like payment from the Company in respect thereof.

SECTION 5.20 Suppliers. Schedule 5.20(a) sets forth a list (listing the dollar volume for each) of (a) the ten (10) largest suppliers or vendors by dollar volume to the Company (or any co-packer or processor for the benefit of the Company) (based on purchases during the Company's 2014 fiscal year) (collectively, "Suppliers") and (b) in percentage terms, the sources of raw materials supplied to each of the Suppliers. Except as set forth in Schedule 5.20(b), during the twelve (12) months immediately prior to the date hereof, no Supplier has materially reduced, made any material adverse change in, canceled or otherwise terminated, or, to the Knowledge of the Company, threatened to materially reduce, make any material adverse change in, cancel or otherwise terminate, its relationship with the Company.

SECTION 5.21 Customers. Schedule 5.21(a) sets forth a list (listing the dollar volume for each) of the ten (10) largest customers by dollar volume ("Customers") of the Company (based on purchases during the Company's 2014 fiscal year). During the twelve (12) months immediately prior to the date hereof, no Customer has materially reduced, made any material adverse change in, canceled or otherwise terminated, or, to the Knowledge of the Company, threatened to materially reduce, make any material adverse change in, cancel or otherwise terminate, its relationship with the Company. As of the date hereof, no material changes have been made since the date of the Interim Financial Statements (with such amount determined by aggregating the line items for Sales Adjustments, CPU, Coupon and Trade in the Interim Financial Statements) to the aggregate amount of discounts, trade ins, allowances, price concessions, incentive or rebate programs (including discount, slotting/intro allowances, bill-back price concessions, or volume incentives) utilized by the Company, except changes due to seasonality that are consistent with the Company's 2015 annual budget provided to Buyer by the Company.

SECTION 5.22 Exclusivity of Company Representations. Except for the representations and warranties expressly set forth in this Article V (as modified by the Disclosure Schedules) and any representations and warranties expressly set forth in any Company Document, the Company makes no other representation or warranty, and the Company hereby disclaims all liability and responsibility for any other representation, warranty, projection, forecast, statement or information made, communicated or furnished (orally or in writing) to Buyer or its Affiliates or representatives (including any opinion, information, projection or advice that may have been or may be provided to Buyer or any of its Affiliates or representatives by any director, manager, officer, employee, agent, consultant or representative of any Seller, the Company, the Blocker or any of their respective Affiliates).

ARTICLE VI

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE BLOCKER

Except as disclosed in the Disclosure Schedules, the Blocker hereby represents and warrants to Buyer that each statement contained in this Article VI is true and correct.

SECTION 6.1 Organization. The Blocker is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware, and has all requisite corporate power and authority to own, lease and operate its properties and to carry on its business as now conducted. The Blocker is duly qualified or authorized to do business as a foreign entity in each other jurisdiction in which it owns, leases or operates properties, or conducts business, so as to require such qualification or authorization, except where the failure to be so qualified or authorized would not have a material adverse effect on the Blocker and the Company taken as a whole.

SECTION 6.2 Authorization of Agreement. The Blocker has all requisite corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and the other documents, instruments, certificates, and agreements contemplated hereby to be executed by the Blocker in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (the "Blocker Documents") and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and each Blocker Document by the Blocker have been duly authorized and approved by all necessary action with respect to the Blocker, and each such authorization and approval remains in full force and effect. This Agreement has been, and each of the Blocker Documents has been or will be at or prior to the Closing, duly and validly executed and delivered by the Blocker, and this Agreement constitutes, and each Blocker Document constitutes or when so executed and delivered will constitute, the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Blocker, enforceable against it in accordance with its terms, subject to the Bankruptcy and Equity Exception.

SECTION 6.3 Conflicts; Consents of Third Parties.

(a) None of the execution and delivery by the Blocker of this Agreement or the Blocker Documents, the consummation by the Blocker of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, or compliance by the Blocker with any of the provisions hereof or thereof will result (with or without notice or lapse of time, or both) in any amendment, suspension, modification, acceleration of rights under, the imposition of any Lien, violation of or default under, or give rise to a right of amendment, suspension, modification, acceleration of rights or obligations, termination, cancellation, or right to impose any Lien under any provision of (i) the certificate of incorporation or by-laws of the Blocker; (ii) any material Contract or material Permit to which the Blocker is a party or by which it or any of the properties or assets of the Blocker is bound; (iii) any Order applicable to the Blocker or by which any of the properties or assets of the Blocker is bound; or (iv) any applicable Law.

(b) No consent, waiver, approval or authorization of, or declaration or filing with, or notification to, any Governmental Body is required on the part of the Blocker in connection with the execution and delivery by the Blocker of this Agreement or the Blocker

Documents or the consummation by the Blocker of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, except (i) for compliance with the applicable requirements of the HSR Act and any other applicable Antitrust Laws and (ii) as may be necessary as a result of any facts or circumstance relating solely to Buyer or any of its Affiliates.

SECTION 6.4 Capitalization.

(a) The record owners of all of the outstanding Blocker Interests are set forth in Exhibit A.

(b) All outstanding Blocker Interests are duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable and not subject to and were not issued in violation of any purchase option, call option, right of first refusal, preemptive right, subscription right or any similar right under any provision of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, the organizational documents of the Blocker or any Contract to which the Blocker is a party or otherwise bound.

(c) There is no option, warrant, call, put, convertible instrument, Contract, commitment, purchase right, subscription right, conversion right, exchange right, right of first refusal, or similar right, agreement, arrangement or undertaking of any kind whereby any Person has, or has a right to receive, any equity interest of, or right or obligation to acquire any equity interest of, the Blocker. There are no proxies, voting trusts, voting agreements or similar rights or Contracts with respect to the Blocker Interests or the Blocker. There are no stock appreciation rights, profit participation rights, phantom stock or similar rights with respect to the Blocker.

(d) The Blocker does not own, or have any ownership interest in, any Person other than the Company.

SECTION 6.5 Title. The Blocker is the sole record and beneficial owner of, and has good and valid title to, the Units set forth opposite its name on Exhibit A.

SECTION 6.6 Blocker Operations. The Blocker was formed solely for the purpose of acquiring and holding Units and, other than the transactions pursuant to which the Blocker acquired the Units set forth opposite its name on Exhibit A and activities incidental to its ownership of the Units, the Blocker has not engaged in any business activities or conducted any operations whatsoever. As of the Closing Date, the Blocker will not have any liabilities, other than (i) its obligations in respect of Taxes and (ii) its obligations under this Agreement and the Blocker Documents, its certificate of incorporation, by-laws and similar governing documents. The Blocker has no liability, actual or contingent, with respect to any Plan sponsored or contributed to by the Blocker or any Person that, together with the Blocker, is or was (at a relevant time) treated as a single employer under Section 414 of the Code.

SECTION 6.7 Tax Representations.

(a) The Blocker has timely filed all material Tax Returns required to be filed by it and such Tax Returns were true and correct in all material respects, and all material Taxes owed by the Blocker have been timely paid (whether or not shown as due on any Tax Return).

35

(b) The Blocker has withheld and paid over, or caused to be withheld and paid over, to the appropriate Taxing Authorities, all material Taxes required to be so withheld and paid over for all periods under all applicable Law.

(c) Except as set forth in Schedule 6.7(c), no examination, claim, litigation or other Proceeding is pending or, to the knowledge of the Blocker, threatened with regard to any material Taxes of the Blocker.

(d) No requests for waivers of the time to assess any material Tax have been made that are still pending (other than extensions of time to file Tax Returns obtained in the ordinary course).

(e) The Blocker is not engaged in any "listed transaction" within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.6011-4(b)(2).

(f) In the last two (2) years, the Blocker has not distributed stock of another Person or had its stock distributed by another Person in a transaction that was purported or intended to be governed in whole or in part by Sections 355 or 361 of the Code.

(g) No written claim has been made in the last three (3) years by a Taxing Authority in a jurisdiction where the Blocker does not file any Tax Return that the Blocker is or may be subject to Taxation by such jurisdiction.

(h) The Blocker will not be required to include any material item of income in, or exclude any material item of deduction from, Taxable income for any Taxable period (or portion thereof) ending after the Closing Date as a result of any (i) change in method of accounting for a Taxable period ending on or before the Closing Date; (ii) "closing agreement" as described in Section 7121 of the Code or other agreement with a Taxing Authority (or any similar provision of any Law) executed on or before the Closing Date; (iii) intercompany transaction or excess loss account described in Treasury Regulations under Section 1502 of the Code (or any similar provision of any Law); (iv) installment sale or open transaction disposition made on or before the Closing Date; or (v) prepaid amount received on or before the Closing Date, other than any such amount received in the Ordinary Course of Business.

(i) Neither the Blocker, nor any predecessor of the Blocker, has been a member of a group (including an affiliated group) with which it has filed or been included in a combined, consolidated or unitary income tax Tax Return, other than the group in which it is currently a member. The Blocker has not been a party to or bound by any Tax indemnity agreement, Tax sharing agreement, Tax allocation agreement or similar Contract that includes any Person other than the Blocker (other than any such agreement or Contract not primarily related to Taxes). Neither the Blocker nor any predecessor of the Blocker is liable for any Tax of any Taxpayer other than the Blocker under Treasury Regulations Section 1.1502-6 (or any similar provision of any Law), as a transferee or successor, by Contract (including any Tax allocation agreement, Tax sharing agreement or Tax indemnity agreement) or otherwise, in each case for any Taxable period beginning before the Closing Date. After the Closing Date, neither the Blocker nor any predecessor of the Blocker will be bound by or have any liability under any Tax indemnity agreement, Tax sharing agreement, Tax allocation agreement or similar Contract entered into before the Closing (other than any such agreement or Contract not primarily related to Taxes), including for any amount due with respect to any taxable period ending on or before the Closing Date.

SECTION 6.8 Exclusivity of Blocker Representations. Except for the representations and warranties expressly set forth in this Article VI (as modified by the Disclosure Schedules) and any representations and warranties expressly set forth in any Blocker Document, the Blocker makes no other representation or warranty, and the Blocker hereby disclaims all liability and responsibility for any other representation, warranty, projection, forecast, statement or information made, communicated or furnished (orally or in writing) to Buyer or its Affiliates or representatives (including any opinion, information, projection or advice that may have been or may be provided to Buyer or any of its Affiliates or representatives by any director, manager, officer, employee, agent, consultant or representative of any Seller, the Company, the Blocker or any of their respective Affiliates).

ARTICLE VII

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF BUYER

Buyer hereby represents and warrants to the Company, the Blocker and the Sellers that each statement contained in this Article VII is true and correct.

SECTION 7.1 Organization. Buyer is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware and has all requisite corporate power and authority to own, lease and operate its properties and carry on its business as now being conducted, except where the failure to have such power and authority would not, individually or in the aggregate, have an adverse effect on the ability of Buyer to perform its obligations under this Agreement or consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

SECTION 7.2 Authorization of Agreement. Buyer has all requisite corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and the other documents, instruments, certificates, and agreements contemplated hereby to be executed by Buyer in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated this Agreement (the “Buyer Documents”), and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and each Buyer Document by Buyer have been duly authorized and approved by all necessary action with respect to Buyer, and each such authorization and approval remains in full force and effect. This Agreement has been, and each Buyer Document has been or will be at or prior to the Closing, duly and validly executed and delivered by Buyer, and this Agreement constitutes, and each Buyer Document constitutes or when so executed and delivered will constitute, the legal, valid and binding obligation of Buyer, enforceable against Buyer in accordance with its terms, subject to the Bankruptcy and Equity Exception.

SECTION 7.3 Conflicts; Consents of Third Parties.

(a) None of the execution and delivery by Buyer of this Agreement or the Buyer Documents, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, or compliance by Buyer with any of the provisions hereof or thereof will result (with or without notice or lapse of time, or both) in any amendment, suspension, modification, acceleration of rights under, the imposition of any Lien, violation of or default under, or give rise to a right of amendment, suspension, modification, acceleration of rights or obligations, termination, cancellation, or to impose any Lien under, any provision of (i) the certificate of incorporation or by-laws of Buyer; (ii) any Contract or Permit to which Buyer is a party or by which it or any of the properties or assets of Buyer is bound; (iii) any Order applicable to Buyer or by which any of the properties or assets of Buyer is bound; or (iv) any applicable Law, other than, in the case of clauses (ii), (iii) and (iv), such amendments, suspensions, modifications, accelerations, impositions, violations, defaults, terminations or cancellations that would not, individually or in the aggregate, have an adverse effect on the ability of Buyer to perform its obligations under this Agreement or consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(b) No consent, waiver, approval or authorization of, or declaration or filing with, or notification to, any Governmental Body is required on the part of Buyer in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the Buyer Documents or the consummation by Buyer of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, except for compliance with the applicable requirements of the HSR Act, any other applicable Antitrust Laws and Section 13(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

SECTION 7.4 Litigation. There are no Proceedings pending or, to the knowledge of Buyer, threatened against Buyer that are reasonably likely to prohibit or restrain the ability of Buyer to enter into this Agreement or consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

SECTION 7.5 Investment Intention. Buyer is acquiring the Units and the Blocker Interests for its own account, for investment purposes only and not with a view to the distribution (as such term is used in Section 2(11) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”)) thereof. Buyer understands that the Units and the Blocker Interests have not been registered under the Securities Act and cannot be sold, offered for sale, pledged or otherwise transferred unless subsequently registered under the Securities Act or unless an exemption from such registration is available. Buyer is an “accredited investor” (as such term is defined under Rule 501(a) of Regulation D under the Securities Act) and possesses such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters that it is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of its investment in the Units and the Blocker Interests.

SECTION 7.6 No Brokers. Buyer has no obligation to any Person, directly or indirectly, as a broker, finder or financial advisor for Buyer in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement that would cause any Seller, the Company or the Blocker to become liable for payment of any fee or expense with respect thereto.

SECTION 7.7 Sufficient Funds. Buyer has and will have as of the Closing cash available or existing borrowing facilities which together are and will be sufficient to pay all amounts to be paid by Buyer in connection with this Agreement and the other Buyer Documents and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, including the payment by Buyer of all obligations pursuant to Section 2.3(a), and Buyer’s costs and expenses on the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement, and there is SECTION 7.8 Solvency. Buyer is not entering into the transactions contemplated by this Agreement with the actual intent to hinder, delay or defraud either present or future creditors of the Company. Assuming the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the Company contained in Article V, at Closing, and after giving effect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, Buyer and the Company (a) will be solvent (in that both the fair value of its assets will not be less than the sum of its debts and the present fair saleable value of its assets will not be less than the amount required to pay its probable liabilities on its debts as they become absolute and matured); (b) will have adequate capital and liquidity with which to engage in its business; and (c) will not have incurred and will not incur debts beyond its ability to pay as they become absolute and matured.

SECTION 7.9 Condition of the Business. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, Buyer acknowledges that none of the Company, the Blocker, any Seller, any of their respective Affiliates or any other Person is making any representations or warranties whatsoever, express or implied, beyond those expressly given by the Sellers in Article IV (as modified by the Disclosure Schedules) or in the Seller Documents, the Company in Article V (as modified by the Disclosure Schedules) or in the Company Documents and the Blocker in Article VI (as modified by the Disclosure Schedules) or in the Blocker Documents. Buyer further acknowledges that none of the Company, the Blocker, any Seller, any of their respective Affiliates or any other Person has made any representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of any information regarding the Sellers, the Company, the Blocker or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, not expressly set forth in this Agreement, the Seller Documents, the Company Documents or the Blocker Documents, and none of the Company, the Blocker, any Seller or any of their respective Affiliates or any other Person will have or be subject to any liability to Buyer or any other Person resulting from the distribution to Buyer or any of its Affiliates or representatives of, or Buyer's or any such other Person's use of, any such information, including any confidential memoranda distributed on behalf of the Company or other publications or data room information provided to Buyer or any of its Affiliates or representatives, or any other document or information in any form provided to Buyer or any of its Affiliates or representatives in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby.

ARTICLE VIII

COVENANTS

SECTION 8.1 Access to Information. Subject to the Confidentiality Agreement and applicable Law relating to the sharing of information, prior to the Closing Date, upon reasonable notice to the Company, Buyer shall be entitled, through its officers, employees and representatives, to make such investigation of the properties, businesses and operations of the Company and such examination of the books and records of the Company as it reasonably requests (provided that Buyer and its representatives shall conduct any such activities in such a manner as not to interfere unreasonably with the business or operations of the Company) and, at Buyer's cost and expense, to make extracts and copies of such books and records. Any such investigation and examination shall be conducted during regular business hours upon reasonable advance notice and under reasonable circumstances and shall be subject to restrictions under applicable Law. Buyer and its representatives shall cooperate with the Company and its representatives and shall use reasonable best efforts to minimize any disruption to the business in connection with such investigation and examination. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, no such investigation or examination shall be permitted if such investigation or examination would jeopardize any attorney-client privilege or other privilege or contravene applicable Law. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, prior to the Closing, without the prior written consent of a representative of the Company (who shall be identified in writing to Buyer as the representative contemplated by this Section 8.1), (i) Buyer shall not contact any suppliers to, or customers or employees of, the Company with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby, and (ii) Buyer shall have no right to perform invasive or subsurface investigations of the properties or facilities of the Company. Buyer shall and shall cause Buyer's Affiliates and representatives to keep confidential any non-public information received from the Company, its Affiliates or its representatives, directly or indirectly, pursuant to this Section 8.1 in accordance with the SECTION 8.2 Conduct of the Business Pending the Closing.

(a) Prior to the Closing, except (i) as set forth on Schedule 8.2, (ii) as required by applicable Law, (iii) as otherwise contemplated by this Agreement or (iv) with the prior written consent of Buyer (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), each of the Company and the Blocker shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to conduct its business in the Ordinary Course of Business.

(b) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, except (w) as set forth on Schedule 8.2, (x) as required by applicable Law, (y) as otherwise contemplated by this Agreement or (z) with the prior written consent of Buyer (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), the Company and the Blocker shall not:

(i) issue or sell any shares of the Company's or the Blocker's capital stock or other equity securities;

(ii) issue or sell any securities convertible into, or options with respect to, warrants to purchase, or rights to subscribe for, any shares of the Company's or the Blocker's capital stock or other equity securities;

(iii) effect any recapitalization, reclassification, stock dividend, stock split or like change in the capitalization of the Company or the Blocker;

(iv) amend in any material respect the certificate of incorporation or by-laws or comparable organizational documents of the Company or the Blocker;

(v) other than in the Ordinary Course of Business or as contemplated by an existing Company Benefit Plan or Company Employee Agreement, agreement, policy or arrangement (including any collective bargaining agreement) (A) increase the annual level of compensation of any officer of the Company, (B) modify or amend any Company Benefit Plan or Company Employee Agreement in any manner that materially increases the amount of the liability attributable to the Company in respect of such Company Benefit Plan or Company Employee Agreement, (C) grant or pay any extraordinary bonus or other extraordinary discretionary compensation to any employee of the Company, or (D) enter into any employment

Contract (other than any Contract terminable without cost or penalty by the Company by notice of not more than sixty (60) days) with any individual to serve as an officer of the Company;

(vi) subject to any Lien any of the properties or assets (whether tangible or intangible) of the Company or the Blocker, except (A) in the Ordinary Course of Business or (B) for Permitted Exceptions;

(vii) become legally committed to make any capital expenditures, except for capital expenditures pursuant to projects for which work has already commenced or is otherwise contemplated in the capital expenditure budget;

(viii) enter into any merger or consolidation with any Person, or acquire the securities or a substantial portion of the assets of any Person;

(ix) incur or assume any indebtedness for borrowed money in excess of $200,000 or guarantee any such indebtedness, other than indebtedness incurred (A) in the Ordinary Course of Business or (B) under any existing credit facilities;

(x) other than with respect to customers in the Ordinary Course of Business and employees or managers as advances of business expenses in the Ordinary Course of Business, loan or advance any funds to any Person;

(xi) other than in the Ordinary Course of Business, sell, assign, license, transfer, convey or lease or otherwise dispose of any properties or assets of the Company having a value, in any individual case, in excess of $100,000;

(xii) make or rescind any material election relating to Taxes, settle or compromise any material Proceeding relating to Taxes, or, except as required by GAAP, make any material change to any of its methods of accounting or methods of reporting income or deductions for Tax or accounting practice or policy from those employed in the preparation of its most recent Tax Returns, other than to account for the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including making appropriate adjustments to estimated tax payments after the date hereof);

(xiii) enter into any collective bargaining agreement;

(xiv) other than in the Ordinary Course of Business, amend any material term of, or terminate or otherwise modify in any material respect any Material Contract;

(xv) other than in the Ordinary Course of Business, materially delay, decrease or increase the rate of promotional or marketing expenditures;

(xvi) cancel, terminate or modify any material insurance policy naming the Company as a beneficiary or a loss payable payee without obtaining reasonably comparable substitute insurance coverage;

(xvii) other than in the Ordinary Course of Business, license or sublicense any Company Intellectual Property;

41

(xviii) other than in the Ordinary Course of Business, settle or compromise any litigation, except for cash payments to be made prior to Closing;

(xix) acquire, purchase, redeem or encumber any equity interest; or

(xx) authorize, or commit or agree to do, anything prohibited by this Section 8.2(b).

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties to this Agreement acknowledge and agree that (i) nothing contained in this Agreement shall give Buyer, directly or indirectly, the right to control or direct the Company's operations for purposes of the HSR Act or any other applicable Antitrust Law prior to the expiration or termination of any applicable waiting period under the HSR Act or any other applicable Antitrust Law waiting period, or prior to receipt of any applicable approval under any antitrust or competition law; and (ii) notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, no consent of Buyer will be required with respect to any matter set forth in this Agreement to the extent the requirement of such consent would violate any applicable Law.

SECTION 8.3 Consents. Subject to Section 8.4, from the date hereof until the Closing, the Sellers, Buyer, the Company and the Blocker shall use their respective reasonable best efforts to obtain at the earliest practicable date all consents and approvals required to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including under the HSR Act; provided, however, that none of the Sellers, Buyer, the Company or the Blocker shall be obligated to pay any consideration to any third party from whom consent or approval is requested, other than the filing fees contemplated in Section 8.4.

SECTION 8.4 Regulatory Approvals.

(a) Each of Buyer and, where applicable, the Company, the Blocker and the Sellers shall (i) make or cause to be made the registrations, declarations and filings required of such party under the HSR Act and any other Antitrust Law listed in Schedule 8.4 ("Antitrust Filings") with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement as promptly as reasonably practicable and advisable after the date of this Agreement (but in no event later than ten (10) Business Days from the execution of this Agreement), and Buyer shall pay any filing fees associated therewith and such initial filings from Buyer and the Company shall request early termination of any applicable waiting period under the HSR Act, (ii) agree not to extend any waiting period under the HSR Act or enter into any agreement with any Governmental Body not to consummate the transaction contemplated by this Agreement, except with the prior written consent of the other party not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, (iii) subject to applicable Law, furnish to the other party as promptly as reasonably practicable all information required for any application or other filing to be made by the other party pursuant to any applicable Law in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (iv) respond as promptly as reasonably practicable to any inquiries received from, and supply as promptly as reasonably practicable any additional information or documentation that may be requested by the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice (the “DOJ”), the Federal Trade Commission (the “FTC”) or any other Governmental Body in respect of such Antitrust Filings, this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, (v) promptly notify the other party of any material communication between that party and the FTC, the DOJ or any other Governmental Body in respect of any Antitrust Filings or any inquiry or Proceeding relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby and of any material communication received or given in connection with any Proceeding by a private party relating to the transactions contemplated hereby, (vi) subject to applicable Law, discuss with and permit the other party (and its counsel) to review in advance, and consider in good faith the other party’s reasonable comments in connection with, any Antitrust Filing or communication to the FTC, the DOJ or any other Governmental Body or in connection with any Proceeding by a private party to any other Person, relating to any Antitrust Filing or inquiry or other Proceeding relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, (vii) not participate or agree to participate in any substantive meeting, telephone call or discussion with the FTC, the DOJ or any other Governmental Body in respect of any Antitrust Filing, inquiry or Proceeding relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby unless it consults with the other party in advance and, to the extent permitted by such Governmental Body, gives the other party the opportunity to attend and participate in such meeting, telephone call or discussion, (viii) subject to applicable Law, furnish the other party promptly with copies of all correspondence, filings and communications between them and their Affiliates on the one hand, and the FTC, the DOJ or any other Governmental Body or members of their respective staffs on the other hand, with respect to any Antitrust Filing, inquiry or Proceeding relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby and (ix) act in good faith and reasonably cooperate with the other party in connection with any Antitrust Filings and in connection with resolving any investigation or inquiry of any such agency or other Governmental Body under the HSR Act or any other Antitrust Law with respect to any such Antitrust Filing, this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby.

(b) In furtherance and not in limitation of the foregoing, the parties hereto agree to use their reasonable best efforts to resolve, avoid or eliminate impediments or objections, if any, that may be asserted with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby under any Antitrust Law; provided, however, that the parties hereto will not be required to propose, negotiate, commit to or effect, by consent decree, hold separate orders or otherwise, the sale, divestiture, disposition or license of, or otherwise take or commit to take actions that after the Closing Date would limit Buyer’s, any of its Affiliates’, or the Company’s freedom of action with respect to, or its or their ability to retain, one or more of the assets, properties, businesses, product lines or services of Buyer, any of its Affiliates, or the Company or any interest or interests therein.

SECTION 8.5 Further Assurances. Subject to Section 8.4, each Seller and each of Buyer, the Blocker and the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to (i) take all actions necessary or appropriate to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (ii) cause the fulfillment at the earliest practicable date of all of the conditions to their respective obligations to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and (iii) cause the Closing to occur. None of Buyer, the Sellers, the Blocker or the Company shall take any action that would, or that would reasonably be expected to, result in any of the conditions set forth in Article IX not being satisfied.

SECTION 8.6 Confidentiality. Buyer acknowledges that the information provided to it in connection with this Agreement and the other agreements contemplated hereby and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby is subject to the Confidentiality Agreement, the terms of which are incorporated herein by reference. Effective upon, and only upon, the Closing, the Confidentiality Agreement shall terminate. During the period beginning immediately following the Closing and ending on the second (2nd) anniversary of the Closing Date (except, with respect to any confidential and non-public information that is a trade secret under applicable Law, the following obligations will remain in effect so long as such information remains a trade secret), each Seller will keep confidential and not disclose, any confidential and non-public information of the Company or the Blocker, except (i) to the extent such information becomes available to such Seller after Closing as a result of disclosure not known by such recipient to have been improper or generally known to the public or (ii) as required by Law, regulation, legal process or Proceeding, in which case, to the extent practicable, such Seller will provide Buyer notice and such Seller will cooperate with Buyer's reasonable efforts to contest and oppose such disclosure, at Buyer's expense.

SECTION 8.7 Indemnification, Exculpation and Insurance.

(a) From and after the Closing, Buyer shall, and shall cause the Company to, (i) indemnify and hold harmless each individual who at the Closing is, or at any time prior to the Closing was, a director, manager or officer of the Company (each, an "Indemnitee" and, collectively, the "Indemnitees") with respect to all claims, liabilities, losses, damages, judgments, fines, penalties, costs (including amounts paid in settlement or compromise) and expenses (including fees and expenses of legal counsel) in connection with any Proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative), whenever asserted, based on or arising out of, in whole or in part, (A) the fact that an Indemnitee was a director, manager or officer of the Company or (B) acts or omissions by an Indemnitee in the Indemnitee's capacity as a director, manager, officer, employee or agent of the Company or taken at the request of the Company (including in connection with serving at the request of the Company as a director, manager, officer, employee, agent, trustee or fiduciary of another Person (including any employee benefit plan)), in each case under clause (A) or (B), at, or at any time prior to, the Closing (including any Proceeding relating in whole or in part to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement), to the fullest extent permitted under applicable Law, and (ii) assume all obligations of the Company to the Indemnitees in respect of indemnification and exculpation from liabilities for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the Closing as provided in (x) the Company's organizational documents as currently in effect and (y) any other indemnification arrangements between the Company and the Indemnitees, which arrangements shall survive the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and continue in full force and effect in accordance with their respective terms. Without limiting the foregoing, Buyer, for the six (6)-year period commencing at the Closing, shall cause the organizational documents of the Company to contain provisions no less favorable to the Indemnitees with respect to limitation of liabilities of directors, managers and officers and indemnification than are set forth as of the date of this Agreement in the organizational documents of the Company, which provisions shall not be amended, repealed or otherwise modified in a manner that would adversely affect the rights thereunder of the Indemnitees. In addition, from and after the Closing, Buyer shall, and shall cause the Company to, pay any expenses (including fees and expenses of legal counsel) of any Indemnitee under this Section 8.7 (including in connection with enforcing the indemnity and other obligations referred to in this Section 8.7) as incurred to the fullest extent permitted under applicable Law, provided that the person to whom expenses are advanced or paid provides an undertaking to repay such advances or payments to the extent required by applicable Law or the organizational documents of the Company.

(b) An Indemnitee shall have the right, but not the obligation, to assume and control the defense of any Proceeding relating to any acts or omissions covered under this Section 8.7 (each, a "Claim") with counsel selected by the Indemnitee, which counsel shall be reasonably acceptable to Buyer; provided, however, that Buyer shall be permitted to participate in the defense of such Claim at its own expense. Each of Buyer, the Company and the Indemnitees shall cooperate in the defense of any Claim and shall provide access to properties and individuals as reasonably requested and furnish or cause to be furnished records, information and testimony, and attend such conferences, discovery proceedings, hearings, trials or appeals, as may be reasonably requested in connection therewith.

(c) Prior to the Closing Date, the Company shall obtain, at the expense of the Company (which shall be a Transaction Expense), a "tail" policy in respect of the existing policy of directors' and officers' liability insurance maintained by the Company, for a period of six (6) years after the Closing Date to provide insurance coverage for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the Closing with respect to those persons who are currently (and any additional persons who prior to the Closing become) covered by the Company's directors' and officers' liability insurance policy on terms and scope with respect to such coverage, and in amount, not less favorable to such individuals than those of such policy in effect on the date hereof. Buyer shall cause such policy to be maintained in full force and effect, for its full term, and cause all obligations thereunder to be honored by the Company.

(d) The provisions of this Section 8.7 are (i) intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnitee, his or her heirs and his or her representatives and (ii) in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other rights to indemnification or contribution that any such Person may have by contract or otherwise. The obligations of Buyer and the Company under this Section 8.7 shall not be terminated or modified in such a manner as to adversely affect the rights of any Indemnitee to whom this Section 8.7 applies unless (x) such termination or modification is required by applicable Law or (y) the affected Indemnitee shall have consented in writing to such termination or modification (it being expressly agreed that the Indemnitees to whom this Section 8.7 applies shall be third party beneficiaries of this Section 8.7).

SECTION 8.8 Publicity. No party hereto shall issue any press release or public announcement concerning this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby without obtaining the prior written approval of Buyer and the Representative, which approval will not be unreasonably withheld, unless, in the judgment of counsel to the applicable party, public disclosure is otherwise required by applicable Law or by the applicable rules of any stock exchange, provided that, to the extent required by applicable Law or by the applicable rules of any stock exchange, the party intending to make such release shall use its commercially reasonable efforts consistent with applicable Law to consult with Buyer and the Representative with respect to the text thereof. The parties agree that the initial press release to be issued in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby shall be in a form mutually agreed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties hereto may disclose the terms of this Agreement to their respective employees, accountants, advisors, general and limited partners, Affiliates and other representatives as necessary in connection with the ordinary conduct of their respective businesses (so long as such Persons agree to or are bound by contract to keep the terms of this Agreement confidential).

SECTION 8.9 Employment and Employee Benefits.

(a) Buyer shall cause the Company to provide to each of the Employees who is an employee of the Company as of immediately prior to the Closing Date and continues to be employed by the Company after the Closing Date (the "Transferred Employees"):

(i) for the period of twelve (12) months immediately following the Closing Date, (x) annual base salary or hourly wages, as applicable, no less favorable to the Transferred Employee than such Transferred Employee's annual base salary or hourly wages, as applicable, in effect immediately prior to the Closing Date, (y) employee benefit and incentive plans, programs, contracts and arrangements that are no less favorable to the Transferred Employee, in the aggregate, than those employee benefit plans, programs, contracts and arrangements (excluding stock-based compensation, including the Long-Term Incentive Plan, the Management Incentive Units and any Weiser Options) provided by the Company to such Transferred Employee immediately prior to the Closing Date, and (z) continued coverage under the Company's severance plans or policies to the extent disclosed on Schedule 5.12(a) (other than such Company Employee Agreements that are Transaction Expenses), on the same terms and conditions of such plans or policies in place immediately prior to the Closing Date

(ii) For the period immediately following the Closing Date until December 31, 2015, cash incentive bonus opportunities that are at least as favorable as those provided in the Ordinary Course of Business to such Transferred Employee immediately prior to the Closing Date; and

(iii) provided, however, that, without limiting subparagraph (i)(z) above, for the period of twelve (12) months immediately following the Closing Date, each of the Transferred Employees set forth on Schedule 8.9(a)(iii)(1) shall be entitled to severance benefits of at least twelve (12) months' base salary continuation upon a termination of such individual's employment without "Cause" (as defined in the Company Operating Agreement as of the date hereof) and for the period immediately following the Closing Date until December 31, 2015, each of the Transferred Employees set forth on Schedule 8.9(a)(iii)(2) shall be entitled to severance benefits of at least twelve (12) months' base salary continuation upon a termination of such individual's employment without "Cause" (as defined in the Company Operating Agreement as of the date hereof).

From and after the Closing Date, Buyer or one of its Affiliates shall honor, and shall cause the Company to honor, in accordance with their terms, all employment, retention and severance agreements and all severance, incentive and bonus plans, programs and arrangements (excluding with respect to stock-based compensation or such arrangements that are Transaction Expenses) as in effect immediately prior to the Closing Date that are applicable to any Employees, to the extent disclosed on Schedule 5.12(a). Buyer or one of its Affiliates shall recognize or cause to be recognized the service of the Transferred Employees with the Company (including any and all predecessors, parents, Subsidiaries and Affiliates) prior to the Closing Date as service with

Buyer and its Affiliates in connection with any and all pension, welfare, and other employee benefit plans, programs, policies, agreements, and arrangements (including vacations, paid time-off, and holiday policies) sponsored or maintained by Buyer or one of its Affiliates (but excluding any retiree medical plan) which is made available to Transferred Employees following the Closing Date by Buyer or one of its Affiliates for any and all purposes, including any waiting period, vesting, eligibility, and benefit entitlement (but not for benefit accruals under a defined benefit plan). Buyer shall (i) waive, or cause its insurance carriers to waive, all limitations as to pre-existing and at-work conditions, if any, with respect to participation and coverage requirements applicable to Transferred Employees under any welfare benefit plan (as defined in Section 3(1) of ERISA) which is made available to Transferred Employees following the Closing Date by Buyer or one of its Affiliates, and (ii) provide credit to Transferred Employees for any co-payments, deductibles and out-of-pocket expenses paid by such Transferred Employees under the employee benefit plans, programs and arrangements of the Company during the portion of the relevant plan year including the Closing Date.

(b) Buyer shall cause the Company to (i) credit each of the Transferred Employees with an amount of paid time off days following the Closing Date equal to the amount of paid time off days each such Transferred Employee has accrued but not yet used or cashed out as of the Closing Date under the Company's vacation and sick leave policies as in effect immediately prior to the Closing Date, to the extent such amount is properly accrued in Closing Net Working Capital and disclosed to Buyer and (ii) allow each of the Transferred Employees to use such accrued paid time off days at such times as each would have been allowed under the Company's paid time off policies as in effect immediately prior to the Closing Date.

(c) The Company will take all actions necessary to terminate all Company Pension Plans that are defined contribution plans with a qualified cash or deferred arrangement within the meaning of Section 401(k) of the Code, including The Applegate Farms, LLC Retirement Plan, (the "Company 401(k) Plans"), effective immediately before and subject to the Closing Date, including adopting any relevant resolutions and any actions required under the terms of such Company 401(k) Plan and any other contractual obligations of the Company and applicable Law. Buyer shall cause the defined contribution plan maintained or sponsored by Buyer or an Affiliate of Buyer that includes a qualified cash or deferred arrangement within the meaning of Section 401(k) of the Code (the "Buyer 401(k) Plan") to allow each Transferred Employee to make a "direct rollover" to the Buyer 401(k) Plan of the account balances of such Transferred Employee (including promissory notes evidencing any outstanding loans) under the Company's 401(k) Plan if such direct rollover is elected in accordance with applicable Law by such Transferred Employee.

SECTION 8.10 Preservation of Books and Records. For a period of seven (7) years after the Closing Date or such longer time as may be required by Law:

(a) Buyer shall not and shall cause its Affiliates not to dispose of or destroy any of the books and records of the Company or the Blocker relating to periods prior to the Closing (the "Books and Records") without first offering to turn over possession thereof to the Representative by written notice to the Representative at least ninety (90) days prior to the proposed date of such disposition or destruction.

(b) Buyer shall and shall cause its Affiliates to allow the Sellers and their respective agents access to all Books and Records on reasonable notice and at reasonable times at Buyer's principal place of business or at any location where any Books and Records are stored, and any Seller shall have the right, at its own expense, to make copies of any Books and Records; provided that any such access or copying shall be had or done in such a manner so as not to unduly interfere with the normal conduct of Buyer's business.

(c) Buyer shall and shall cause its Affiliates to make available to any of the Sellers upon reasonable notice and at reasonable times (i) Buyer's personnel to assist such Sellers in locating and obtaining any Books and Records, and (ii) any of Buyer's personnel whose assistance or participation is reasonably required by such Sellers or any of their respective Affiliates in anticipation of, or preparation for, existing or future litigation or other matters in which such Sellers or any of their respective Affiliates are involved, subject to such Sellers reimbursing Buyer for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in performing the covenants contained in this Section 8.10(c).

SECTION 8.11 CERCLA Waiver. Effective upon the Closing, each of Buyer, the Blocker and the Company, for itself, its Subsidiaries and their respective successors and assigns, hereby waives, and unconditionally releases each Seller from, any rights or remedies that Buyer, the Blocker, the Company, any of their Subsidiaries or any of their respective successors or assigns may otherwise have against such Seller under any Environmental Law, including any claim for contribution under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act (42 U.S.C. § 9601 et seq.), as amended, or common law.

SECTION 8.12 Tax Matters.

(a) The parties agree that the sale of the Subject Units to Buyer shall be treated as giving rise to a termination of the Company for U.S. federal income tax purposes under Section 708(b) of the Code. The Company has made, or shall make, a valid election under Section 754 of the Code to adjust the basis of its assets in accordance with Section 743(b) of the Code for the Company's taxable period that ends on or prior to the Closing Date. The parties hereto agree that with respect to taxable periods beginning on the day following the Closing Date, Buyer shall file a consolidated tax return with the Blocker under Sections 1501 through 1504 of the Code and the regulations thereunder.

(i) To the extent provided (and subject to the limitations set forth) in this Section 8.12, the Blocker Sellers shall indemnify and hold harmless Buyer and its Affiliates against (A) all Pre-Closing Blocker Taxes, and (B) any liability of the Blocker for Taxes pursuant to Treasury Regulations Section 1.1502-6 (or any similar or comparable provision of state or local Law); provided, however, that no Blocker Seller shall be liable for (w) any Taxes imposed on the Blocker as a result of transactions occurring on the Closing Date that are properly allocable (based on, among other relevant factors, factors set forth in Treasury Regulations Section 1.1502-76(b)(1)(ii)(B)) to the portion of the Closing Date after the Closing, (x) any interest or penalties attributable to the negligence, delay or bad faith of Buyer or any of its Affiliates, or (y) any interest or penalties imposed or assessed, or losses incurred, to the extent attributable to the late filing of any Tax Return or late payment of any Taxes by Buyer or any of its Affiliates. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Buyer and its Affiliates shall not have any right to indemnification under this Agreement (including Section 10.1) with respect to, or based on, Taxes of the Blocker to the extent such Taxes (1) are attributable to Tax periods (or portions thereof) beginning after the Closing Date, or (2) are due to the unavailability in any Tax period (or portion thereof) beginning after the Closing Date of any net operating losses, credits or other Tax attribute of the Blocker.

(ii) To the extent provided (and subject to the limitations set forth) in this Section 8.12, the Sellers shall indemnify and hold harmless Buyer and its Affiliates against (A) all Pre-Closing Company Taxes, and (B) any liability of the Company for Taxes pursuant to Treasury Regulations Section 1.1502-6 (or any similar or comparable provision of state or local Law); provided, however, that no Seller shall be liable for (v) any such Taxes to the extent such Taxes were taken into account in the computation of Closing Net Working Capital, (w) any Taxes imposed on the Company as a result of transactions occurring on the Closing Date that are properly allocable (based on, among other relevant factors, factors set forth in Treasury Regulations Section 1.1502-76(b)(1)(ii)(B)) to the portion of the Closing Date after the Closing, (x) any interest or penalties attributable to the negligence, delay or bad faith of Buyer or any of its Affiliates, or (y) any interest or penalties imposed or assessed, or losses incurred, to the extent attributable to the late filing of any Tax Return or late payment of any Taxes by Buyer or any of its Affiliates. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Buyer and its Affiliates shall not have any right to indemnification under this Agreement (including Section 10.1) with respect to, or based on, Taxes of the Company to the extent such Taxes (1) are attributable to Tax periods (or portions thereof) beginning after the Closing Date, or (2) are due to the unavailability in any Tax period (or portion thereof) beginning after the Closing Date of any net operating losses, credits or other Tax attribute of the Company.

(i) Representative shall timely file or cause to be filed when due (taking into account any applicable extensions) all Tax Returns of the Company in respect of taxable periods that end on or prior to the Closing Date that are due following the Closing Date. Representative shall provide Buyer with copies of all such Tax Returns at least twenty (20) Business Days prior to the due date for filing thereof, along with supporting documentation, for Buyer's review and comment. Representative and Buyer shall attempt in good faith to resolve any disagreements regarding such Tax Returns prior to the due date for filing. In the event that Representative and Buyer cannot resolve any such dispute prior to the due date for filing the applicable Tax Return, (A) such dispute shall be submitted to the Accounting Firm to determine whether such Tax Return was prepared in accordance with the requirements of this Section 8.12(c)(i), (B) any resolution of such dispute shall be made in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 3.2, (C) the Company shall file such Tax Return as prepared by Representative, and (D) such Tax Return shall be amended thereafter, if applicable and necessary, to reflect the Accounting Firm's resolution of such dispute. The Sellers shall pay all Taxes shown due on such Tax Returns, as finally determined, or reimburse Buyer for such Taxes within fifteen (15) days of payment of such Taxes by Buyer (except in either case to the extent such Taxes were taken into account in the computation of Closing Net Working Capital).

(ii) Buyer shall timely file or cause to be filed when due (taking into account any applicable extensions) all Tax Returns of the Company in respect of Straddle Periods. Except as otherwise agreed by Representative, all Tax Returns for Straddle Periods of the Company shall be prepared on a "closing of the books" basis under Section 706 of the Code and analogous provisions of other applicable Law. Each Tax Return prepared pursuant to this Section 8.12(c)(ii) shall be prepared in accordance with the past practice and custom of the Company in preparing its Tax Returns, except as otherwise required by applicable Law. Buyer shall provide Representative with copies of all such Tax Returns at least twenty (20) Business Days prior to the due date for filing thereof, along with supporting documentation, for Representative's review and comment. Representative and Buyer shall attempt in good faith to resolve any disagreements regarding such Tax Returns prior to the due date for filing. In the event that Representative and Buyer cannot resolve any such dispute prior to the due date for filing the applicable Tax Return, (A) such dispute shall be submitted to the Accounting Firm to determine whether such Tax Return was prepared in accordance with the requirements of this Section 8.12(c)(ii), (B) any resolution of such dispute shall be made in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 3.2, (C) Buyer shall file such Tax Return in accordance with the manner of preparation described in the third sentence of this Section 8.12(c)(ii), without prejudice to the resolution of such dispute, and (D) such Tax Return shall be amended thereafter, if applicable and necessary, to reflect the Accounting Firm's resolution of such dispute. The Sellers shall pay the Pre-Closing Date Share of the Taxes shown due on such Tax Returns, as finally determined, or reimburse Buyer for such Taxes within fifteen (15) days of payment of such Taxes by Buyer (except in either case to the extent such Taxes were taken into account in the computation of Closing Net Working Capital).

(iii) The Blocker Sellers shall prepare or cause to be prepared (taking into account any applicable extensions) all Tax Returns of the Blocker in respect of taxable periods that end on or prior to the Closing Date that are due following the Closing Date, and shall deliver such Tax Returns to Buyer, which shall timely file or cause to be filed such Tax Returns. Each Tax Return prepared pursuant to this Section 8.12(c)(iii) shall be prepared in accordance with the past practice and custom of the Blocker in preparing its Tax Returns, except as otherwise required by applicable Law. The Blocker Sellers shall provide Buyer with copies of all such Tax Returns at least twenty (20) Business Days prior to the due date for filing thereof, along with supporting documentation, for Buyer's review and comment. The Blocker Sellers and Buyer shall attempt in good faith to resolve any disagreements regarding such Tax Returns prior to the due date for filing. In the event that the Blocker Sellers and Buyer cannot resolve any such dispute prior to the due date for filing the applicable Tax Return, (A) such dispute shall be submitted to the Accounting Firm to determine whether such Tax Return was prepared in accordance with the requirements of this Section 8.12(c)(iii), (B) any resolution of such dispute shall be made in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 3.2, (C) the Blocker shall file such Tax Return in accordance with the manner of preparation described in the second sentence of this Section 8.12(c)(iii), without prejudice to the resolution of such dispute, and (D) such Tax Return shall be amended thereafter, if applicable and necessary, to reflect the Accounting Firm's resolution of such dispute. The Blocker Sellers shall pay all Taxes shown due on such Tax Returns, as finally determined, or reimburse Buyer for such Taxes within fifteen (15) days of payment of such Taxes by Buyer (except in each case to the extent such Taxes were taken into account in the computation of Closing Net Working Capital).

(iv) Buyer shall timely file or cause to be filed when due (taking into account any applicable extensions) all Tax Returns of the Blocker in respect of Straddle Periods. Each Tax Return prepared pursuant to this Section 8.12(c)(iv) shall be prepared in accordance with the past practice and custom of the Blocker in preparing its Tax Returns, except as otherwise required by applicable Law. Buyer shall provide the Blocker Sellers with copies of all such Tax Returns at least twenty (20) Business Days prior to the due date for filing thereof, along with supporting documentation, for the Blocker Sellers' review and comment. The Blocker Sellers and Buyer shall attempt in good faith to resolve any disagreements regarding such Tax Returns prior to the due date for filing. In the event that the Blocker Sellers and Buyer cannot resolve any such dispute prior to the due date for filing the applicable Tax Return, (A) such dispute shall be submitted to the Accounting Firm to determine whether such Tax Return was prepared in accordance with the requirements of this Section 8.12(c)(iv), (B) any resolution of such dispute shall be made in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 3.2, (C) Buyer shall file such Tax Return in accordance with the manner of preparation described in the second sentence of this Section 8.12(c)(iv), without prejudice to the resolution of such dispute, and (D) such Tax Return shall be amended thereafter, if applicable and necessary, to reflect the Accounting Firm's resolution of such dispute. The Blocker Sellers shall pay all Taxes shown due on such Tax Returns, as finally determined, or reimburse Buyer for such Taxes within fifteen (15) days of payment of such Taxes by Buyer (except in each case to the extent such Taxes were taken into account in the computation of Closing Net Working Capital).

(d) With respect to Taxes of a Person relating to a Straddle Period, the parties agree that the portion of such Tax that relates to the portion of such Straddle Period ending on the Closing Date shall (i) in the case of any Taxes other than Taxes based upon, related to or measured by net income, gain, activities, events, receipts, proceeds, profits or similar items, be deemed to be the amount of such Tax for the entire Straddle Period multiplied by a fraction (A) the numerator of which is the number of days in the Straddle Period ending on the Closing Date and (B) the denominator of which is the number of days in the entire Straddle Period, and (ii) in the case of any Tax based upon, related to or measured by net income, gain, activities, events, receipts, proceeds, profits or similar items, be determined as though the taxable year of such Person terminated at the close of business on the Closing Date; provided that exemptions, allowances or deductions that are calculated on an annual basis, such as the deduction for depreciation, shall be apportioned ratably between the portion of the applicable Straddle Period ending on and including the Closing Date and the portion of such Straddle Period beginning after the Closing Date based on the number of days for the portion of such Straddle Period ending on and including the Closing Date on the one hand and the number of days for the portion of such Straddle Period beginning after the Closing Date, on the other hand.

(i) Any Tax refunds that are received by Buyer or any of its Affiliates (including, after the Closing for the avoidance of doubt, the Company or the Blocker), and any amounts credited against any Tax to which Buyer or any of its Affiliates (including, after the Closing for the avoidance of doubt, the Company or the Blocker) become entitled, in each case that relate to any taxable period (or portion thereof) ending on or before the Closing Date of the Blocker, shall be for the benefit of, and held in trust for, the Blocker Sellers, and Buyer or the Company shall pay over to the Blocker Sellers, as additional purchase price for the Blocker

Interests, any such refund or the amount of any such credit (including any interest thereon, but reduced by Tax, if any, owed by the Blocker as a result of such refund) within five (5) Business Days after receipt or entitlement thereto. At the Blocker Sellers' written request, Buyer shall timely and properly prepare, or cause to be prepared (in a manner consistent with Section 8.12(c)) and file, or cause to be filed, any claim for refund, amended Tax Return, or other Tax Return required to obtain any available Tax refunds that are payable to the Blocker Sellers pursuant to this Section 8.12(e). Buyer shall permit the Blocker Sellers to control at the Blocker Sellers' expense the prosecution of any such refund claim.

(ii) Any Tax refunds that are received by Buyer or any of its Affiliates (including after the Closing for the avoidance of doubt, the Company), and any amounts credited against any Tax to which Buyer or any of its Affiliates (including, after the Closing for the avoidance of doubt, the Company or the Blocker) become entitled, in each case that relate to any taxable period (or portion thereof) ending on or before the Closing Date of the Company shall be for the benefit of, and held in trust for, the Sellers, and Buyer or the Company shall pay over to the Sellers, as additional purchase price for the Subject Units and the Blocker Interests, any such refund or the amount of any such credit (including any interest thereon, but reduced by Tax, if any, owed by the Company or the Blocker as a result of such refund) within five (5) Business Days after receipt or entitlement thereto. At the Seller's written request, Buyer shall timely and properly prepare, or cause to be prepared (in a manner consistent with Section 8.12(c)) and file, or cause to be filed, any claim for refund, amended Tax Return, or other Tax Return required to obtain any available Tax refunds that are payable to the Sellers pursuant to this Section 8.12(e). Buyer shall permit the Representative to control at its expense the prosecution of any such refund claim.

(i) If, following the Closing Date, Buyer or the Company receives from any Taxing Authority written notice of any Tax Claim (including as a result of being liable for such Taxes on a pass through basis), Buyer or the Company shall promptly provide a copy of such notice to Representative.

(ii) Representative shall have the right to elect to control the conduct of any Tax Claim attributable to any taxable period ending on or prior to the Closing Date with respect to which the Sellers may reasonably have any liability (including as a result of being liable for such Taxes on a pass through basis), and make all decisions in connection therewith at its own expense; provided, that, (A) Representative shall keep Buyer reasonably informed with respect to any material issue relating to such Tax Claim and (B) Buyer shall have the right to participate in (but not control) such Tax Claim at its own expense.

(iii) Buyer shall control the conduct of any Tax Claim attributable to any Straddle Period, and make all decisions in connection therewith; provided, that, (A) Buyer shall keep Representative reasonably informed with respect to any material issue relating to such Tax Claim; (B) Representative shall have the right to participate in (but not control) such Tax Claim at its own expense; and (C) Buyer will not settle any Tax Claim, or enter into any resolution, closing or other agreement with respect thereto with a Taxing Authority without the prior written consent of Representative, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

(iv) To the extent any provision of this Section 8.12(f) conflicts with, or is inconsistent with, any other provision in Section 10.5, the provisions of this Section 8.12(f) shall govern.

(g)

(i) If, following the Closing Date, Buyer or the Blocker receives from any Taxing Authority written notice of any Tax Claim with respect to which the Blocker Sellers may reasonably have any liability, Buyer or the Blocker shall promptly provide a copy of such notice to the Blocker Sellers; provided, that the failure to promptly provide a copy of such notice to the Blocker Sellers shall not relieve the Blocker Sellers from their obligations under Section 8.12(b), except to the extent that the Blocker Sellers are actually prejudiced by such failure.

(ii) The Blocker Sellers shall have the right to elect to control the conduct of any Tax Claim attributable to any taxable period ending on or prior to the Closing Date at their own expense, and make all decisions in connection therewith; provided, that, (A) the Blocker Sellers shall keep Buyer reasonably informed with respect to any material issue relating to such Tax Claim; (B) Buyer shall have the right to participate in (but not control) such Tax Claim at its own expense and (C) the Blocker Sellers shall not settle any Tax Claim, in each case that would reasonably be expected to expressly affect taxable periods (or portions thereof) beginning after the Closing Date, without the consent of Buyer, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

(iii) Buyer shall control the conduct of any Tax Claim attributable to any Straddle Period, and make all decisions in connection therewith; provided, that, (A) Buyer shall keep the Blocker Sellers reasonably informed with respect to any material issue relating to such Tax Claim; (B) the Blocker Sellers shall have the right to participate in (but not control) such Tax Claim at its own expense; and (C) Buyer shall not settle any Tax Claim, or enter into any resolution, closing or other agreement with respect thereto with a Taxing Authority without the prior written consent of the Blocker Sellers, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

(iv) To the extent any provision of this Section 8.12(g) conflicts with, or is inconsistent with, any other provision in Section 10.5, the provisions of this Section 8.12(g) shall govern.

(h) Buyer, the Company, the Blocker Sellers and Representative shall cooperate fully, as and to the extent reasonably requested by the other party, in connection with the filing of Tax Returns or any Tax audit, litigation or other administrative or judicial proceeding, in each case attributable to any taxable period (or portion thereof) ending on or prior to the Closing Date. Such cooperation shall include the retention and (upon the relevant party's request) the provision of records and information which are reasonably relevant to any such Tax Return or Tax audit, litigation or other proceeding and making employees available on a mutually convenient basis to provide additional information and explanation of any material provided hereunder. Unless otherwise consented to in writing by Representative, Buyer and the Company shall not, for a period of seven (7) years following the Closing Date, destroy, alter or otherwise dispose of any of the books and records of the Company related to Taxes attributable to any taxable period (or portion thereof) ending on or prior to the Closing Date without first offering to surrender to Representative such books and records. Unless otherwise consented to in writing by the Blocker Sellers, Buyer and the Blocker shall not, for a period of seven (7) years following the Closing Date, destroy, alter or otherwise dispose of any of the books and records of the Blocker related to Taxes attributable to any taxable period (or portion thereof) ending on or prior to the Closing Date without first offering to surrender to the Blocker Sellers such books and records.

(i) Amended Tax Returns.

(i) Without the prior written consent of Representative (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), Buyer shall not, and shall not permit any of its Affiliates (including, after the Closing for the avoidance of doubt, the Company) to, (A) file, or cause to be filed, any amended Tax Return with respect to the Company for any taxable period (or portion thereof) ending on or prior to the Closing Date, (B) voluntarily approach any Taxing Authority regarding any Taxes or Tax Returns of the Company that relate to Taxes attributable to a taxable period (or portion thereof) that ends on or before the Closing Date, or (C) take any action on the Closing Date outside the ordinary course of business that could create a Tax liability on the Closing Date or otherwise related to Taxes.

(ii) Without the prior written consent of the Blocker Sellers (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), Buyer shall not, and shall not permit any of its Affiliates (including, after the Closing for the avoidance of doubt, the Company or the Blocker) to, (A) file, or cause to be filed, any amended Tax Return with respect to the Blocker for any taxable period (or portion thereof) ending on or prior to the Closing Date, (B) voluntarily approach any Taxing Authority regarding any Taxes or Tax Returns of the Blocker that relate to Taxes attributable to a taxable period (or portion thereof) that ends on or before the Closing Date, (C) make an election under Section 338(g) of the Code (or any similar or comparable provision of state, local or foreign Tax Law) with respect to the acquisition of the Blocker, or (D) take any action on the Closing Date outside the ordinary course of business that could create a Tax liability on the Closing Date or otherwise related to Taxes.

(j) Buyer shall prepare a proposed allocation of the Final Purchase Price among the assets of the Company (the "Proposed Asset Allocation Statement") for U.S. federal income tax purposes and provide it to the Representative on or before the earlier of (i) ninety (90) days after the determination of the Final Purchase Price and (ii) two hundred twenty-five (225) days after the Closing Date. The Representative shall deliver any comments to the Proposed Asset Allocation Statement no later than the thirtieth (30th) day following receipt of the Proposed Asset Allocation Statement. If Buyer accepts all comments requested by the Representative, the Proposed Asset Allocation Statement, as so revised, shall be the "Final Asset Allocation Statement," which shall be used by all parties hereto for U.S. federal income tax purposes. If Buyer does not accept the Representative's comments, the Representative and Buyer shall consult and attempt to resolve in good faith each such comment not accepted by Buyer. If all such comments are resolved, the version of the Proposed Asset Allocation Statement incorporating the resolutions to such comments shall be the Final Asset Allocation Statement. If the Representative and Buyer cannot mutually agree on the appropriate allocation(s) within fifteen (15) days, Buyer and the Representative shall utilize their own separate versions of the Proposed Asset Allocation Statement as their respective Final Asset Allocation Statements. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Buyer and the Representative agree that the allocation of the Final Purchase Price as reflected in the Final Asset Allocation Statements shall be done in accordance with the limitation set forth in Schedule 8.12(j).

SECTION 8.13 Non-Compete, Non-Solicit and Related Covenants.

(a) In order to induce Buyer to enter into this Agreement and to induce Buyer to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, (i) each Unit Seller (other than Weiser and Stephen M. McDonnell) hereby agrees that, during the period beginning immediately following the Closing and ending on the second (2nd) anniversary of the Closing Date, and (ii) each of Weiser and Stephen M. McDonnell hereby agrees that during the period beginning immediately following the Closing and ending on the fifth (5th) anniversary of the Closing Date, such Unit Seller shall not, and such Unit Seller shall not cause any of its Affiliates to, directly or indirectly, own, operate, be a partner, shareholder, co-venturer or otherwise invest in, lend money to, consult with, manage or render services to, act as agent for, or acquire or hold any interest in, any Person that engages in the Covered Business in North America without the consent of Buyer; provided, that such Seller may own up to five percent (5%) of any class of securities that is listed or admitted to trading on a national securities exchange. For this purpose “Covered Business” shall mean the business of marketing, distributing or selling natural or organic meat or cheese products conducted by the Company at any time during the one (1)-year period preceding the Closing Date or that is in development by, or being developed for, the Company immediately preceding the Closing.

(b) During the period beginning immediately following the Closing and ending on the second (2nd) anniversary of the Closing Date, no Seller shall solicit or hire for employment, or cause any of its Affiliates to solicit or hire for employment, any individual who, at the Closing, is an officer or management employee employed by the Company; provided that nothing herein shall prohibit any Seller from (i) conducting a general solicitation of prospective employees in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice if not specifically directed towards any employees of the Company or hiring any Person where the initial contact with such Person regarding such hiring primarily arose as a result of such general solicitation or (ii) soliciting or hiring any individual whose employment with the Company is terminated.

(c) During the period beginning immediately following the Closing and ending on the second (2nd) anniversary of the Closing Date, neither Stephen M. McDonnell nor Weiser shall, directly or indirectly, solicit, request or advise any key customer, key supplier or other key business contact of the Company to cancel, curtail or otherwise materially and adversely change its business or relationship with the Company.

(d) During the period beginning immediately following the Closing and ending on the second (2nd) anniversary of the Closing Date, (i) no Seller shall publicly disparage by any means (whether written or oral) the Company or any aspect of the Company’s management, policies, operations, products, services or practices in a manner that has or would reasonably have a material adverse effect on the Company and (ii) none of Buyer or the Company or any of their respective Affiliates shall publicly disparage by any means (whether written or oral) any Seller in a manner that has or would reasonably have a material adverse effect on such Seller.

(e) Subject to Section 8.13(f), each Seller, on behalf of such Seller, such Seller’s estate, heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives and trusts (as applicable), and such Seller’s successors and assigns (collectively, the “Releasing Persons”), hereby absolutely and unconditionally releases, waives and forever discharges each Releasee of and from any and all Proceedings, Losses, debts, sums of money, accounts, bonds, bills, rights, covenants, Contracts, obligations, controversies, entitlements, promises, benefits, awards, decisions, Orders, subpoenas and verdicts whatsoever, whether state or federal, in law or in equity, known or unknown, asserted or unasserted, suspected or unsuspected, liquidated or unliquidated, absolute or contingent, which the Releasing Persons ever had or may now have against any Releasee for, upon, arising out of, based in whole or in part upon, or by reason of the ownership (or any claimed ownership) by such Seller at any time at or before the Closing of any equity interest of the Company, the Blocker or any of their predecessor entities (by merger, asset purchase or otherwise) (or any other equity interest or right to purchase an equity interest in the Company or the Blocker), such Seller’s status as a member of the Company, or such Seller’s status as a stockholder of the Blocker, in each case arising out of any act or omission occurring at any time at or before the Closing;

(f) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 8.13(e), Section 8.13(e) shall not limit, reduce or otherwise affect any right or remedy of any Seller (1) arising under this Agreement or any Seller Document or (2) to be indemnified as an officer, director or manager of the Company or the Blocker under applicable Law or the Company's or the Blocker's organizational documents.

(g) For purposes of Section 8.13(e) "Releasees" shall mean (1) Buyer, the Company, the Blocker and each of their respective past, present and future Affiliates, related entities and subsidiaries, (2) each of the respective past, present and future employees, officers, directors, managers, members, shareholders, equity holders, partners, agents, representatives, successors and assigns of the entities described in Section 8.13(g)(1) above, and (c) any company providing insurance to any of the foregoing in the past, present or future (other than with respect to the "tail" policy described in Section 8.7(c)).

(h) The Sellers acknowledge that (1) the covenants set forth in this Section 8.13 are reasonable and an essential element of this Agreement, (2) but for the agreement of the Sellers to comply with these covenants, Buyer would not have entered into this Agreement and (3) breach of this Section 8.13 will harm Buyer to such an extent that monetary damages alone would be an inadequate remedy and Buyer would not have an adequate remedy at law. Therefore, in the event of a breach by any Seller of this Section 8.13, (1) Buyer (in addition to all other remedies Buyer may have) will be entitled to seek an injunction and other equitable relief restraining any Seller from committing or continuing such breach and to enforce specifically this Agreement and its terms and (2) the duration of any period in Sections 8.13(a), 8.13(b) and 8.13(c) will be extended beyond its then-scheduled termination date for a period equal to the duration of such breach, as applicable.

(i) If any provision contained in this Section 8.13 is held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable because of the duration of such provision, the geographic area covered thereby or otherwise, the court making such determination shall have the power to, and is hereby directed by the parties to, reduce the duration or geographic area of such provision or otherwise modify such provision, and, in its reduced or modified form, such provision shall be enforceable. In addition, upon a determination that any such term or other provision, or any portion thereof, is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in an acceptable manner to the end that the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated to the fullest extent possible.

SECTION 8.14 No Shop. Throughout the period that begins on the date hereof and ends upon the earlier of the Closing or the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 11.1, no Seller will, and no Seller will authorize the Company or the Blocker or any representative or agent of such Seller, the Company or the Blocker to, directly or indirectly, solicit, initiate, seek or encourage any inquiry, proposal or offer from, furnish any information to or participate in any discussion or negotiation with any Person (other than Buyer or any Person on Buyer's behalf) regarding any acquisition of the Company's or Blocker's equity interests, assets or business, in whole or in part (by purchase, merger, tender offer, statutory share exchange, joint venture or otherwise), except for sales of assets in the Ordinary Course of Business. Each Seller will, and each Seller will cause the Company and the Blocker and the other representatives and agents of such Seller, the Company and the Blocker to, immediately terminate all such discussions or negotiations that may be in progress on the date hereof.

SECTION 8.15 Notices. Throughout the period that begins on the date hereof and ends upon the earlier of the Closing or the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 11.1, the Company shall notify Buyer as promptly as practicable after receiving written notice from a Customer or Supplier reducing, making a material adverse change in, canceling or otherwise terminating its relationship with the Company or threatening to do any of the foregoing.

SECTION 8.16 Delivery of 2014 Audited Financial Statements. Within ten (10) Business Days after the date hereof, the Company shall deliver to Buyer copies of the audited balance sheet of the Company as of December 26, 2014 and the related statements of income and members' equity and cash flows of the Company for the fifty-two (52) weeks ended December 26, 2014, in each case, which are consistent with the 2014 Financial Statements.

SECTION 8.17 Advisory Committee. Promptly after Closing, Buyer shall cause the board of directors of the Company to (i) adopt the Advisory Committee Charter set forth on Exhibit F and (ii) form the advisory committee contemplated in the Advisory Committee Charter consisting of the initial members specified in the Advisory Committee Charter. Buyer shall cause the board of directors of the Company to keep the Advisory Committee Charter and advisory committee in place for a period of at least three (3) years following the Closing.

ARTICLE IX

CONDITIONS TO CLOSING

SECTION 9.1 Conditions Precedent to Obligations of Buyer. The obligations of Buyer to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement are subject to the satisfaction, on or prior to the Closing Date, of each of the following conditions (any or all of which may be waived by Buyer in whole or in part to the extent permitted by applicable Law):

(a) (i) the representations and warranties of the Sellers contained in Article IV (other than Sections 4.1 (Organization), 4.2 (Authorization of Agreement) and 4.4 (Title)) qualified by materiality or material adverse effect, shall be true and correct as of the Closing Date as if made on and as of the Closing Date (or, if given as of a specific date, at and as of such date), (ii) the representations and warranties of the Sellers contained in Article IV (other than Sections 4.1 (Organization), 4.2 (Authorization of Agreement) and 4.4 (Title)) not so qualified shall be true and correct in all material respects as of the Closing Date as if made on and as of the Closing Date (or, if given as of a specific date, at and as of such date) and (iii) the representations and warranties of the Sellers contained in Sections 4.1 (Organization), 4.2 (Authorization of Agreement) and 4.4 (Title) shall be true and correct as of the Closing Date as if made on and as of the Closing Date (or, if given as of a specific date, at and as of such date) with only such exceptions as are de minimis in nature; and Buyer shall have received a certificate signed by an authorized officer of the Company, confirming the foregoing;

(b) (i) the representations and warranties of the Company contained in Article V (other than Sections 5.1 (Organization), 5.2 (Authorization of Agreement) and 5.4 (Capitalization)) disregarding all qualifications and exceptions contained therein relating to materiality or Material Adverse Effect, shall be true and correct as of the Closing Date as if made on and as of the Closing Date (or, if given as of a specific date, at and as of such date), except where the failure of such representations and warranties to be so true and correct would not have a Material Adverse Effect and (ii) the representations and warranties of the Company contained in Sections 5.1 (Organization), 5.2 (Authorization of Agreement) and 5.4 (Capitalization) shall be true and correct as of the Closing Date as if made on and as of the Closing Date (or, if given as of a specific date, at and as of such date) with only such exceptions as are de minimis in nature; and Buyer shall have received a certificate signed by an authorized officer of the Company, confirming the foregoing;

(c) (i) the representations and warranties of the Blocker contained in Article VI (other than Sections 6.1 (Organization), 6.2 (Authorization of Agreement), 6.4 (Capitalization) and 6.6 (Blocker Operations)) qualified by materiality or material adverse effect, shall be true and correct as of the Closing Date as if made on and as of the Closing Date (or, if given as of a specific date, at and as of such date), (ii) the representations and warranties of the Blocker contained in Article VI (other than Sections 6.1 (Organization), 6.2 (Authorization of Agreement), 6.4 (Capitalization) and 6.6 (Blocker Operations)) not so qualified shall be true and correct in all material respects as of the Closing Date as if made on and as of the Closing Date (or, if given as of a specific date, at and as of such date), (iii) the representations and warranties of the Blocker contained in Section 6.6 (Blocker Operations), shall be true and correct as of the Closing Date as if made on and as of the Closing Date (or, if given as of a specific date, at and as of such date), except where the failure of such representations and warranties to be true and correct would not have a material adverse effect on the Blocker and the Company taken as a whole and (iv) the representations and warranties of the Blocker contained in Sections 6.1 (Organization), 6.2 (Authorization of Agreement) and 6.4 (Capitalization) shall be true and correct as of the Closing Date as if made on and as of the Closing Date (or, if given as of a specific date, at and as of such date) with only such exceptions as are de minimis in nature; and Buyer shall have received a certificate signed by an authorized officer of the Blocker, confirming the foregoing;

(d) the Company, the Blocker and the Sellers shall have performed and complied in all material respects with all obligations, covenants and agreements required by this Agreement to be performed or complied with by the Company, the Blocker or the Sellers at or prior to the Closing; and Buyer shall have received a certificate signed by an authorized officer of the Company, confirming the foregoing;

(e) no Governmental Body of competent jurisdiction shall have instituted any litigation to restrain, prohibit, or otherwise challenge the legality or validity of the transactions contemplated hereby that has not been dismissed or otherwise resolved in a manner that does not materially and adversely affect the transactions contemplated hereby and there shall not be in effect any Order by a Governmental Body of competent jurisdiction restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby;

(f) the waiting period applicable to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement under the HSR Act shall have expired or early termination shall have been granted; and

(g) from the date of this Agreement, there shall not have occurred any Material Adverse Effect.

SECTION 9.2 Conditions Precedent to Obligations of the Company, the Blocker and the Sellers. The obligations of the Company, the Blocker and the Sellers to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement are subject to the satisfaction, on or prior to the Closing Date, of each of the following conditions (any or all of which may be waived by the Representative in whole or in part to the extent permitted by applicable Law):

(a) (i) the representations and warranties of Buyer contained in Article VII (other than Sections 7.1 (Organization) and 7.2 (Authorization of Agreement)) disregarding all qualifications and exceptions contained therein relating to materiality or adverse effect, shall be true and correct as of the Closing Date as if made on and as of the Closing Date (or, if given as of a specific date, at and as of such date), except where the failure of such representations and warranties to be true and correct would not reasonably be expected to impair in any material respect the ability of Buyer to perform its obligations under this Agreement or prevent or materially delay consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and (ii) the representations and warranties of Buyer contained in Sections 7.1 (Organization) and 7.2 (Authorization of Agreement) shall be true and correct as of the Closing Date as if made on and as of the Closing Date (or, if given as of a specific date, at and as of such date) with only such exceptions as are de minimis in nature; and the Representative shall have received a certificate signed by an authorized officer of Buyer, confirming the foregoing;

(b) Buyer shall have performed and complied in all material respects with all obligations, covenants and agreements required by this Agreement to be performed or complied with by Buyer at or prior to the Closing; and the Representative shall have received a certificate signed by an authorized officer of Buyer, confirming the foregoing;

(c) no Governmental Body of competent jurisdiction shall have instituted any litigation to restrain, prohibit, or otherwise challenge the legality or validity of the transactions contemplated hereby that has not been dismissed or otherwise resolved in a manner that does not materially and adversely affect the transactions contemplated hereby and there shall not be in effect any Order by a Governmental Body of competent jurisdiction restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby;

(d) the waiting period applicable to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement under the HSR Act shall have expired or early termination shall have been granted; and

(e) the Representative shall have received evidence of payment of all amounts contemplated by Section 2.3 that are payable at or prior to the Closing.

SECTION 9.3 Frustration of Closing Conditions. None of the Company, the Blocker the Sellers or Buyer may rely on the failure of any condition set forth in Section 9.1 or Section 9.2, as the case may be, to be satisfied if such failure was caused by such party's failure to use its best efforts or reasonable best efforts, as applicable, to comply with any provision of this Agreement.

ARTICLE X

INDEMNIFICATION AND RESOLUTION OF CERTAIN DISPUTES

SECTION 10.1 Indemnification in Favor of Buyer.

(a) Subject to the other terms of this Article X, from and after Closing, the Sellers (severally, and not jointly, in accordance with their Pro Rata Portions) will indemnify, defend and hold harmless Buyer and each of Buyer's Other Indemnified Persons (including the Company from and after the Closing) from and against all Losses to the extent arising out of or resulting from any:

(i) breach of any Fundamental Representation made by the Company in Article V (A) in the case of any Fundamental Representation made as of a specific date, as of such date, and (B) in the case of all other Fundamental Representations, as of the date hereof or as of the Closing Date;

(ii) Indebtedness or Transaction Expenses, to the extent not included in the calculation of the Closing Indebtedness or Closing Transaction Expenses, or any inaccuracy in the Payment Schedule; or

(iii) action of the Representative acting in the Representative's capacity hereunder, including any breach or with respect to any disbursements to Sellers of any amounts held by the Representative for the benefit of the Sellers.

(b) Subject to the other terms of this Article X, from and after Closing, each Seller will indemnify, defend and hold harmless Buyer and each of Buyer's Other Indemnified Persons (including the Company from and after the Closing) from and against all Losses to the extent arising out of or resulting from any:

(i) breach of any Fundamental Representation made by such Seller in Article IV (A) in the case of any Fundamental Representation made as of a specific date, as of such date, and (B) in the case of all other Fundamental Representations, as of the date hereof or as of the Closing Date; or

(ii) breach of any covenant or agreement of such Seller in this Agreement to be performed at or after the Closing (other than the covenants and agreements of the Blocker Sellers in Section 8.12, which, for the avoidance of doubt, are addressed solely in Section 10.1(c)(iii)).

(c) Subject to the other terms of this Article X, from and after Closing, each Blocker Seller (severally, and not jointly, in accordance with their Pro Rata Portions) will indemnify, defend and hold harmless Buyer and each of Buyer's Other Indemnified Persons (including the Company from and after the Closing) from and against all Losses to the extent arising out of or resulting from any:

(i) breach of any Fundamental Representation made by the Blocker in Article VI (A) in the case of any Fundamental Representation made as of a specific date, as of such date, and (B) in the case of all other Fundamental Representations, as of the date hereof or as of the Closing Date;

(ii) Pre-Closing liabilities or Indebtedness of the Blocker (other than Pre-Closing Blocker Taxes which shall be governed exclusively by Section 8.12(b)(i)); or

(iii) breach of any covenant or agreement of such Blocker Seller in Section 8.12.

(d) Subject to the other terms of this Article X, from and after Closing, Buyer and each of Buyer's Other Indemnified Persons (including the Company from and after the Closing) shall be entitled to be indemnified and held harmless solely out of the funds in the Indemnification Escrow Account, if any, from and against all Losses to the extent arising out of or resulting from any:

(i) breach of any representation or warranty made by the Sellers in Article IV, the Company in Article V or the Blocker in Article VI (other than the Fundamental Representations) (A) in the case of any representation or warranty made as of a specific date, as of such date, and (B) in the case of all other representations or warranties, as of the date hereof or as of the Closing Date; or

(ii) breach of any covenant or agreement of the Company or the Blocker in this Agreement to be performed prior to the Closing.

SECTION 10.2 Indemnification in Favor of Sellers. Subject to the other terms of this Article X, from and after Closing, Buyer will indemnify, defend and hold harmless each Seller (including any Other Indemnified Person of any of them) from and against all Losses to the extent arising out of or resulting from any:

(a) breach of any representation or warranty made by Buyer in this Agreement (A) in the case of any representation or warranty made as of a specific date, as of such date, and (B) in the case of all other representations or warranties, as of the date hereof or as of the Closing Date; or

(b) breach of any covenant or agreement of Buyer in this Agreement.

SECTION 10.3 Certain Limitations and Other Matters Regarding Claims.

(a) Threshold on the Sellers' Obligations.

(i) There will be no right to obtain any indemnification under Section 10.1(d), unless and until the aggregate amount of Losses for which indemnification rights arise under Section 10.1(d) exceeds $4,000,000 (the "Deductible"), at which point an indemnification claim can be made to the extent of any such excess, subject to the other limitations in this Article X.

(ii) Neither Buyer nor any of Buyer's Other Indemnified Persons shall have any right to indemnification under Section 10.1(d) for any Losses resulting from any individual or series of related events that do not exceed $100,000 (which Losses shall not be counted toward the Deductible).

(b) Buyer's Recovery Limited to Amount in the Indemnification Escrow Account. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, after the Closing, the Sellers shall have no obligation for any breach of any representation or warranty made in this Agreement (other than the Fundamental Representations) or any breach of any covenant or agreement of the Company or the Blocker in this Agreement to be performed prior to the Closing, and neither Buyer nor any of Buyer's Other Indemnified Persons shall have any right to indemnification under Section 10.1(d) at any given time for any amount in excess of the amount in the Indemnification Escrow Account at such time.

(c) Super Cap on the Sellers' Obligations. After the Closing, the aggregate liability of each Seller hereunder for Losses suffered by Buyer and each of Buyer's Other Indemnified Persons shall in no event exceed such Seller's Pro Rata Portion of the Enterprise Value. The maximum aggregate amount of indemnifiable Losses that may be recovered by Buyer and the Buyer's Other Indemnified Persons pursuant to Article X shall be equal to the Enterprise Value.

(i) Threshold on Buyer's Obligations. There will be no right to obtain any indemnification under Section 10.2(a) unless and until the aggregate amount of Losses for which indemnification rights arise under Section 10.2(a) exceeds the Deductible, at which point an indemnification claim can be made to the extent of any such excess, subject to the other limitations in this Article X.

(ii) Neither Seller nor any of Seller's Other Indemnified Persons shall have any right to indemnification under Section 10.2(a) for any Losses resulting from any individual or series of related events that do not exceed $100,000 (which Losses shall not be counted toward the Deductible).

(e) [Reserved].

(f) Super Cap on Buyer's Obligations. After the Closing, the aggregate liability of Buyer hereunder for Losses suffered by any Seller and any of the Seller's Other Indemnified Persons shall in no event exceed the Enterprise Value. The maximum aggregate amount of indemnifiable Losses that may be recovered by the Sellers and the Sellers' Other Indemnified Persons pursuant to Article X shall be equal to the Enterprise Value.

(g) [Reserved].

(h) Sole and Exclusive Remedies. Notwithstanding any other term herein, other than (i) as contemplated herein regarding the Accounting Firm under Section 3.2 (Post-Closing Adjustment), (ii) the indemnification provided in Section 8.12 (Tax Matters), and (iii) claims for actual fraud (provided that such fraud is of a type of which an element is intent), after the Closing, the sole and exclusive remedies of the parties hereto arising out of, relating to or resulting from any breach, inaccuracy, non-fulfillment or non-performance of any representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or other claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby will be strictly limited to those contained in this Article X and Section 12.14 (Performance). In furtherance of the foregoing, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable Law, other than in the case of fraud (provided that such fraud is of a type of which an element is intent), upon consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, each party hereto waives and (if necessary to give effect to this Section) will cause each of its Other Indemnified Persons to waive, all claims, causes of action and other remedies with respect to such Person against each other as a matter of Contract, equity, under or based upon any applicable Law or otherwise (including for rescission) arising out of, relating to or resulting from this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, except to the extent expressly stated in Section 3.2 (Post-Closing Adjustment), 8.12 (Tax Matters), 12.12(e) (Representative), 12.14 (Performance) or this Article X (Indemnification and Resolution of Certain Disputes).

(i) [Reserved].

(j) Knowledge Not Limiting. No right or obligation under this Article X will be waived or otherwise affected by any knowledge (of any form or type) of Buyer or by any investigation, due diligence or verification by or on behalf of Buyer on or before the date hereof or at or before Closing. All representations, warranties, covenants and agreements herein will be deemed material and relied upon by each party hereto, and none will be waived by any failure to pursue any action or consummation of the transactions contemplated herein, except to the extent stated herein.

(k) Recoveries. The amount of any and all Losses under this Article X shall be determined net of (i) any Tax benefit arising in connection with accrual, incurrence or payment of any such Losses that is received in cash or as an offset to any Tax by the applicable Claiming Party or any of its Affiliates for the Taxable year the Loss is incurred and (ii) any insurance proceeds actually received by a Claiming Party from a third-party insurer (after giving effect to any deductible) for the Losses giving rise to the right of indemnification (less any directly related out-of-pocket costs, expenses and fees resulting from or incurred in connection with such insurance claim or claims). The existence or potential existence of monies from an insurer shall not, however, delay any payment pursuant to the indemnification provisions contained herein and otherwise determined to be due and owing to a Claiming Party, it being understood that a Claiming Party shall have no obligation to first seek recovery from a third party or submit or to collect upon any applicable insurance coverage as a precondition to making a claim for indemnification hereunder or obtaining indemnification for Losses thereof. The out-of-pocket costs and expenses of the efforts to mitigate any claim, liability or indemnifiable Losses that are entitled to indemnification hereunder shall be included in the amount of indemnifiable Losses. If a Claiming Party actually receives proceeds or payment in respect of indemnifiable Losses after payment from the Indemnifying Party for such Losses, the Claiming Party will pay as promptly as practicable to the Indemnifying Party such proceeds or payment (less any directly related out-of-pocket costs, expenses and fees resulting from or incurred in connection with such insurance claim or claims) to the extent of the prior payment from the Indemnifying Party.

SECTION 10.4 Certain Survival Period.

(a) Survival of Representations and Warranties and pre-Closing Covenants and Agreements. Subject to Section 10.4(b), each representation or warranty herein and each covenant and agreement to be performed prior to the Closing will survive the execution and delivery of this Agreement and remain in full force and effect until the date that is eighteen (18) months after the Closing Date, at which time such representation, warranty, covenant or agreement will expire and terminate and no indemnification obligation will be associated therewith or based thereon, except that (i) each Fundamental Representation (other than the Tax Representations) will survive until the date that is six (6) years after the Closing Date and (ii) each Tax Representation will survive until the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations.

(b) Survival of Representations and Warranties Until Final Determination. Notwithstanding Section 10.4(a), for each claim for indemnification hereunder regarding a representation or warranty or covenant or agreement that is made before expiration of such representation or warranty or covenant or agreement, such claim and associated right to indemnification for such claim (including any right to pursue such indemnification, including via any Proceeding) will not terminate before final determination and satisfaction of such claim.

(c) Survival of Covenants and Agreements. Each covenant and agreement set forth in this Agreement (other than representations or warranties or the covenants and agreements to be performed prior to the Closing), and all associated rights to indemnification, will survive Closing and will continue in full force thereafter pursuant to the terms thereof.

SECTION 10.5 Notice of Claims and Procedures.

(a) Notice of Claims. A Person entitled to indemnification hereunder (the “Claiming Party”) will give to the Representative (if the Indemnifying Party is a Seller) and each other Person obligated to provide such indemnification (the “Indemnifying Party”) prompt notice of any claim, for which such Claiming Party proposes to demand indemnification, (1) by a Person that is not a party hereto or Other Indemnified Person (such a claim being a “Third Party Claim” and such notice of such Third Party Claim being the “Initial Claim Notice”) or (2) that does not involve a Third Party Claim, in each case specifying in reasonable detail the amount and nature of, and the facts and circumstances giving rise to, such claim (to the extent known), a reference to the provision of this Agreement upon which such claim is based and such other information with respect thereto as the Representative (if the Indemnifying Party is a Seller) or the Indemnifying Person may reasonably request. Thereafter, the Claiming Party will give the Indemnifying Party, promptly after the Claiming Party’s (or any of its applicable Other Indemnified Person’s) receipt or delivery thereof, copies of all documents (including court papers) received or delivered by the Claiming Party (or any such Other Indemnified Person) relating to any such Third Party Claim. The failure to promptly give such notice or to promptly give such copies will not relieve the Indemnifying Party of any liability hereunder, except, and only to the extent that, the Indemnifying Party was adversely affected or prejudiced by such failure.

(b) Access and Cooperation. Each Claiming Party and Indemnifying Party will, and will cause its Other Indemnified Persons to, cooperate and assist in all reasonable respects regarding such Third Party Claim, including by promptly making available to each other (and each other’s legal counsel and other professional advisers with a reasonable need to know) all books and records in its possession or control relating to such Third Party Claim, subject to reasonable confidentiality precautions.

(c) Defense and Participation.

(i) Election to Conduct Defense. After receiving an Initial Claim Notice under Section 10.5(a), the Indemnifying Party will have the option, exercisable by written notice to the Claiming Party within thirty (30) days of receipt of such Initial Claim Notice, to conduct the defense of such Third Party Claim, with counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Claiming Party, at the expense of the Indemnifying Party, except if (A) the Claiming Party and the Other Indemnified Persons have certified to the Indemnifying Party that (x) the aggregate amount of the reasonable potential obligations of the Claiming Party (or its Other Indemnified Persons) regarding such Third Party Claim exceeds the then-current balance (less any other pending claims) of the Indemnification Escrow Account and (y) recovery of such Third Party Claim is limited to the Indemnification Escrow Account, (B)

such Third Party Claim seeks a temporary restraining order, a preliminary or permanent injunction or specific performance against the Claiming Party (or any of its Other Indemnified Persons) or other material non-monetary damages, restrictions or limitations on the Claiming Party (or any of its Other Indemnified Persons) other than non-disparagement, non-disclosure and other customary settlement terms, or (C) that involves criminal allegations against the Claiming Party. To elect to conduct such defense, the Indemnifying Party must give written notice of such election to the Claiming Party within thirty (30) days after the Claiming Party gives the corresponding Initial Claim Notice to the Indemnifying Party (otherwise, such right to conduct such defense will be deemed waived). If the Indemnifying Party validly makes such election, it will nonetheless lose such right to conduct such defense if it fails to conduct such defense in a reasonably active and diligent manner.

(ii) Conduct of Defense, Participation and Settlement. If the Indemnifying Party conducts the defense of such Third Party Claim, then (A) the Claiming Party may participate, at its own expense (except that the Indemnifying Party will be responsible for the fees and expenses of the Claiming Party's counsel (but not more than one law firm per jurisdiction) if the Claiming Party reasonably concludes that there is a conflict of interest between the Indemnifying Party and the Claiming Party in the defense of such Third Party Claim), in such defense (including any Proceeding regarding such Third Party Claim) and will have the right to receive copies of all notices, pleadings or other similar submissions regarding such defense, (B) the Indemnifying Party will keep the Claiming Party reasonably informed of all matters material to such defense and Third Party Claim at all stages thereof, (C) the Claiming Party will not (and will cause its Other Indemnified Persons not to) admit liability with respect to, or compromise or settle, such Third Party Claim without the Indemnifying Party's prior written consent (which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) and (D) there will be no compromise or settlement of such Third Party Claim without the consent of the Claiming Party (which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed)

(iii) Indemnifying Party Does Not Conduct Defense. If the Indemnifying Party does not have the option to conduct the defense of such Third Party Claim or does not validly elect such option or does not preserve such option (including by failing to commence such defense within thirty (30) days following receipt of such Initial Claim Notice), then (A) the Indemnifying Party may participate, at its own expense, in such defense (including any Proceeding regarding such Third Party Claim) and will have the right to receive copies of all notices, pleadings or other similar submissions regarding such defense, (B) the Claiming Party will keep the Indemnifying Party reasonably informed of all matters material to such defense and Third Party Claim at all stages thereof, (C) the Indemnifying Party will not admit liability with respect to, or compromise or settle, such Third Party Claim without the Claiming Party's prior written consent (which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), and (D) there will be no compromise or settlement of such Third Party Claim without the consent of the Indemnifying Party (which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed).

SECTION 10.6 Materiality Qualifiers. Solely for the purposes of this Article X and solely for the purposes of determining the amount of any Losses (and not, for the avoidance of doubt, for purposes of determining if such an inaccuracy or breach has occurred), all qualifications to any representation or warranty (other than the representations or warranties set forth in Section 5.5 (Financial Statements), 5.7 (Absence of Certain Developments), 5.20 (Suppliers), 5.21 (Customers) and the definition of "Material Contracts") by use of the word "material," "materially" or other variations of the root word "material" or by a reference regarding the occurrence or non-occurrence or possible occurrence or non-occurrence of a Material Adverse Effect or a "materially adverse effect" will be ignored and each representation and warranty will be read and interpreted without regard to any such qualification.

SECTION 10.7 Effect of Purchase Price Calculation. To avoid double counting, any Loss for which a Person would otherwise be obligated to provide indemnification hereunder will be offset to the extent (but only to the extent) such Loss is reflected in the calculation of the Purchase Price under Article III.

SECTION 10.8 Indemnification Adjusts Purchase Price for Tax Purposes. Indemnification payments under this Agreement will be treated (including retroactively) as adjustments to the Purchase Price for Tax purposes to the extent permitted under applicable Law.

SECTION 10.9 Reconciliation Escrow Amount and Indemnification Escrow Amount. The Reconciliation Escrow Amount will be used only for matters arising out of, relating to or resulting from Section 3.2. The Indemnification Escrow Amount may be used for matters arising out of or resulting from Section 3.2 to the extent the Reconciliation Escrow Amount has been depleted. Subject to the terms of this Agreement (and the Escrow Agreement), Buyer or Buyer's Other Indemnified Persons may seek disbursement for any Seller's indemnification obligation under Section 10.1 (other than Section 10.1(b)(ii)) from the Indemnification Escrow Amount, without regard to whether fewer than all Sellers owe the related indemnification obligation to Buyer or Buyer's Other Indemnified Persons and without regard to whether such obligation is several and not joint. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Buyer and Buyer's Other Indemnified Persons must seek disbursement for any Seller's indemnification obligation under Section 10.1(a) first from the Indemnification Escrow Amount. Disbursements from such escrow accounts will occur pursuant to the applicable terms of this Agreement and the Escrow Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) the escrow accounts are the sole source of funds for Sellers' obligations under Section 3.2, (ii) the Indemnification Escrow Amount is the sole source of funds for any Losses that are indemnifiable under Section 10.1(d) and (iii) Buyer's sole recourse for any Seller's indemnification obligation under Section 10.1(b)(ii) is against the applicable breaching Seller; provided that if a Seller's indemnification obligation under Section 10.1(b)(ii) is unpaid or unresolved as of the Indemnification Escrow Release Date, (i) the amount of cash in escrow that would otherwise be released to such Seller shall be reduced by (x) the amount of the unpaid indemnification obligations under Section 10.1(b)(ii) owed by such Seller and such amount shall, instead, be used to satisfy such unpaid indemnification obligations, if any, and (y) the amount of unresolved indemnification claims made by Buyer or Buyer's Other Indemnified Persons under Section 10.1(b)(ii) against such Seller prior to that time (and such funds subject to unresolved claims shall remain in the Indemnification Escrow Account until the resolution thereof), if any, and (ii) the joint written instructions to the Escrow Agent issued by Buyer and the Representative shall provide for the adjustments and payments required by the foregoing clause (i).

ARTICLE XI

TERMINATION

SECTION 11.1 Termination of Agreement. This Agreement may be terminated and the transactions contemplated hereby may be abandoned any time prior to the Closing as follows:

67

(a) by the Representative or Buyer on or after August 24, 2015 (the "Outside Date") if the Closing shall not have occurred by the close of business on such date; provided that if the DOJ or FTC issue a "second request" under the HSR Act, such Outside Date shall be extended until February 22, 2016; provided, further, that the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 11.1(a) shall not be available to the Representative or Buyer, as applicable, if the principal reason the Closing shall not have occurred by such time is the breach by such party (including the Sellers, the Company and the Blocker, in the case of the Representative) of any of its obligations under this Agreement;

(b) by mutual written consent of the Representative and Buyer;

(c) by the Representative or Buyer if there shall be in effect a final nonappealable Order of a Governmental Body of competent jurisdiction restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby; provided that the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 11.1(c) shall not be available to the Representative or Buyer, as applicable, if the issuance of such final nonappealable Order was primarily due to the breach by such party (including the Sellers, the Company and the Blocker, in the case of the Representative) of its obligations under this Agreement;

(d) by Buyer if (i) Buyer is not then in material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement, and (ii) any of the conditions set forth in Section 9.1, is incapable of fulfillment by the Outside Date, or if the breach giving rise to the failure of any such conditions to be satisfied is incurable by the Outside Date; or

(e) by the Representative if (i) none of the Sellers, the Blocker or the Company is then in material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement, and (ii) any of the conditions set forth in

Section 9.2 is incapable of fulfillment by the Outside Date, or if the breach giving rise to the failure of any such conditions to be satisfied is incurable by the Outside Date.

SECTION 11.2 Procedure Upon Termination. In the event of termination of this Agreement by Buyer or the Representative, or both, pursuant to Section 11.1, written notice thereof shall forthwith be given to Representative by Buyer (in the event Buyer terminates this Agreement) or by the Representative to Buyer (in the event that the Representative terminates this Agreement), and this Agreement shall terminate, and the transactions contemplated hereby shall be abandoned, without further action by the parties.

SECTION 11.3 Effect of Termination. If this Agreement is validly terminated pursuant to Section 11.1, this Agreement shall become void and of no effect with no liability on the part of any party (or any stockholder, director, manager, officer, employee, agent, consultant or representative of such party) to the other parties hereto; provided, however, that, subject to the terms of this Agreement, if such termination shall result from the failure of any party to perform an agreement or covenant contained herein, such party shall not be relieved of any liability as a result of such failure or breach; provided, further, that the provisions of Section 8.8, this Section 11.3, Article I and Article XII and the provisions of the Confidentiality Agreement shall survive any such termination.

MISCELLANEOUS

SECTION 12.1 Payment of Sales, Use or Similar Taxes. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the sales, use, transfer, intangible, recordation, documentary stamp or similar Taxes or charges of any nature whatsoever (including any penalties, interest and additions to Tax), applicable to, or resulting from, the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be borne fifty percent (50%) by each of Buyer and Sellers. Buyer and Sellers shall reasonably cooperate with respect to all filings, Tax Returns, reports and forms as may be required with respect to all such Taxes.

SECTION 12.2 Expenses. Except as is expressly stated otherwise herein, each party to this Agreement shall bear its respective fees, costs and expenses incurred in connection with the preparation, negotiation, execution and performance of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby (including legal, accounting, financial advisor and other professional fees), except Sellers will bear all such fees costs and expenses of the Company and the Blocker. Without limiting the foregoing, Buyer shall pay and be solely responsible for all filing fees payable under the HSR Act.

SECTION 12.3 Entire Agreement. This Agreement (including the schedules and exhibits hereto), the Confidentiality Agreement, and each other agreement, document, instrument or certificate contemplated hereby or to be executed in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby, represent the entire understanding and agreement among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and thereof, and supersede all prior agreements among the parties respecting the transactions contemplated hereby. The parties hereto have voluntarily agreed to define their rights, liabilities and obligations respecting the transactions contemplated hereby exclusively in contract pursuant to the express terms and provisions of this Agreement and the other agreements, documents, instruments and certificates contemplated hereby.

SECTION 12.4 Amendments and Waivers. This Agreement can be amended, supplemented or changed, and any provision hereof can be waived, only by written instrument making specific reference to this Agreement signed by Buyer and the Representative. No action taken pursuant to this Agreement, including any investigation by or on behalf of any party, shall be deemed to constitute a waiver by the party taking such action of compliance with any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained herein. The waiver by any party hereto of a breach of any provision of this Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a further or continuing waiver of such breach or as a waiver of any other or subsequent breach. No failure on the part of any party to exercise, and no delay in exercising, any right, power or remedy hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of such right, power or remedy by such party preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or remedy.

SECTION 12.5 Governing Law. All matters relating to the interpretation, construction, validity and enforcement of this contemplated hereby (including any claim or cause of action based upon, arising out of or related to any representation or warranty made in or in connection with this Agreement or as an inducement to enter into this Agreement), shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the domestic Laws of the State of Delaware without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule (whether of the State of Delaware or any other jurisdiction) that would cause the application of Laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of Delaware.

SECTION 12.6 Jurisdiction and Venue. Any litigation against any party to this Agreement arising out of or in any way relating to this Agreement shall be brought exclusively in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware (unless the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware declines to accept jurisdiction over a particular matter, in which case, in any state or federal court within the State of Delaware located in New Castle County) (together with the appellate courts thereof, the “Chosen Courts”) and each of the parties hereby submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Chosen Courts for the purpose of any such litigation. Each party irrevocably and unconditionally agrees not to assert (a) any objection which it may ever have to the laying of venue of any such litigation in any Chosen Court, (b) any claim that any such litigation brought in any Chosen Court has been brought in an inconvenient forum and (c) any claim that any Chosen Court does not have jurisdiction with respect to such litigation. To the extent that service of process by mail is permitted by applicable Law, each party irrevocably consents to the service of process in any such litigation in such courts by the mailing of such process by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, to such party at its address for notices provided for herein.

SECTION 12.7 Notices. All notices and other communications under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed given (i) when delivered personally by hand (with written confirmation of receipt), (ii) when sent by facsimile or e-mail of a PDF document (with written confirmation of transmission) or (iii) one (1) Business Day following the day sent by overnight courier (with written confirmation of receipt), in each case to the parties at the following addresses (or to such other address as a party may have specified by notice given to the other parties pursuant to this provision):

SECTION 12.8 Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced by any Law or public policy, all other terms or provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated hereby is not affected in any manner materially adverse to any party. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in an acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible.

SECTION 12.9 Binding Effect; Assignment; Third Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Except as contemplated by Section 8.7 (Indemnification, Exculpation and Insurance) and for the Other Indemnified Persons (each of which provisions is intended to be for the benefit of the Persons referred to therein and may be enforced by any such Person), nothing in this Agreement shall create or be deemed to create any third party beneficiary rights in any Person not a party to this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, prior to the Closing, the Company shall have the right to enforce the rights of the Sellers to pursue damages in the event of Buyer's breach of this Agreement. In addition, the Representative shall have the right, but not the obligation, to enforce any rights of the Sellers under this Agreement. No assignment of this Agreement or of any rights or obligations hereunder may be made by any party, directly or indirectly (by operation of law or otherwise), without the prior written consent of the other parties hereto, and any attempted assignment without the required consents shall be void.

SECTION 12.10 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which will be deemed to be an original copy of this Agreement and all of which, when taken together, will be deemed to constitute one and the same agreement. A signature delivered by facsimile or by electronic means intended to preserve the original graphic and pictorial appearance thereof shall be deemed to be an original signature.

SECTION 12.11 Waiver of Jury Trial. Each party hereto hereby waives to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law any right it may have to a trial by jury in respect of any Proceeding directly or indirectly arising out of, under or in connection with this Agreement, any Company Documents, any Blocker Documents, any Seller Documents, any Buyer Documents or any transaction contemplated hereby or thereby. Each party hereto (i) certifies that no representative, agent or attorney of any other party has represented, expressly or otherwise, that such other party would not, in the event of litigation, seek to enforce the foregoing waiver and (ii) acknowledges that it and the other parties hereto have been induced to enter into this Agreement and the other documents contemplated hereby, as applicable, by, among other things, the mutual waivers and certifications in this Section 12.11.

SECTION 12.12 Representative.

(a) Without any further act of any Seller, Weiser is hereby irrevocably appointed as the agent and attorney-infact for each of the Sellers to act as the initial Representative under this Agreement and the other agreements contemplated hereby in accordance with the terms of this Section 12.12. The Representative may resign upon written notice to all Sellers. The Representative may be changed or replaced by vote of a majority of Sellers (computed on the basis of their respective Pro Rata Portions) upon written notice to the Representative. The Representative will immediately inform Buyer in the event of the Representative's removal or resignation. In the event of the resignation or removal of the Representative, a successor Representative reasonably satisfactory to Buyer shall thereafter be appointed by an instrument in writing signed by Buyer and such successor Representative.

(b) The Representative is hereby authorized and empowered to act for, and on behalf of, any and all of the Sellers (with full power of substitution in the premises) in connection with such matters as are reasonably related to the transactions contemplated in this Agreement and the other agreements contemplated hereby including: (i) to receive all payments owing to the Sellers under this Agreement, (ii) to terminate, amend, waive any provision of, or abandon, this Agreement or the other agreements contemplated hereby, (iii) to act as the representative of the Sellers to review and authorize all claims and disputes or question the accuracy thereof, (iv) to negotiate and compromise on their behalf with Buyer any claims asserted hereunder and to authorize payments to be made with respect thereto, (v) to take such further actions as are authorized in this Agreement and the other agreements contemplated hereby, and (vi) in general, do all things and perform all acts, including executing and delivering all agreements (including the Escrow Agreement and the other agreements contemplated in this Agreement), certificates, receipts, consents, elections, instructions and other documents contemplated by, or deemed by the Representative to be necessary or desirable in connection with, this Agreement, the other agreements contemplated hereby and the transactions contemplated herein or therein. Buyer shall be entitled to rely on such appointment and to treat the Representative as the duly appointed attorney-in-fact of each Seller. Notices given to the Representative in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement shall constitute notice to the Sellers for all purposes under this Agreement. In all matters relating to this Section, the Representative will be the only party entitled to assert the rights of Sellers. The Representative will have no power or authority to bind Buyer, and Buyer will not have any liability to any person for any act or omission by the Representative.

(c) The appointment of the Representative is an agency coupled with an interest and is irrevocable and any action taken by the Representative pursuant to the authority granted in this Section 12.12 shall be effective and absolutely binding on each Seller notwithstanding any contrary action of or direction from such Seller. The death or incapacity, or dissolution or other termination of existence, of any Seller shall not terminate the authority and agency of the Representative. Buyer and any other party to any document contemplated by this Agreement in dealing with the Representative may conclusively and absolutely rely, without inquiry, upon any act, statement, action, representation, or decision of the Representative as being the binding acts of all Sellers or any of them, notwithstanding any communication from any Seller to the contrary (other than communication regarding the resignation or removal of the Representative pursuant to this Section).

(d) The Representative shall not be liable to any Seller or any other Person (other than Buyer) with respect to any action taken or omitted to be taken by the Representative in its role as Representative under or in connection with this Agreement, unless such action or omission results from or arises out of willful misconduct or gross negligence on the part of the Representative, and the Representative shall not be liable to any Seller in the event that, in the exercise of its reasonable judgment, the Representative believes there will not be adequate resources available to cover potential costs and expenses to contest a claim made by Buyer. Sellers shall be responsible to Buyer for any breach by the Representative of its obligations hereunder.

(e) The Representative shall be indemnified from the Sellers for any and all expenses, charges and liabilities, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by the Representative in the performance or discharge of its duties pursuant to this Section 12.12 (the "Representative Expenses"). In addition, the Representative shall be entitled to reimbursement from the Representative Expense Amount for the Representative Expenses.

(f) As soon as practical following the later of (i) the date that is twenty-four (24) months after the Closing Date and (ii) the final resolution of all indemnification claims made under this Agreement that are outstanding as of the date that is twenty-four (24) months after the Closing Date, the Representative shall pay or cause to be paid the unused portion of the Representative Expense Amount (if any) to the Sellers by wire transfer of immediately available funds.

SECTION 12.13 Legal Representation.

(a) In any dispute or Proceeding arising after the Closing under or in connection with this Agreement or any of the other agreements contemplated hereby, the parties agree that any of the Sellers shall have the right, at its election, to retain any Law Firm to represent such Seller in such matter, and Buyer and the Company (on behalf of themselves, their respective Affiliates, directors, managers, officers, employees and representatives and their respective successors and assigns) hereby irrevocably waive and consent to any such representation in any such matter.

(b) Each of the parties further agrees that all communications solely between any Law Firm and the Company or any Law Firm and any Seller in connection with this Agreement or any of the other agreements contemplated hereby, together with the attorney-client privilege related thereto (if any), the expectation of client confidence related thereto (if any) and all other rights to any evidentiary privilege related thereto, belong to such Seller, and shall not pass to or be claimed by the Company or any of its Affiliates.

(c) If the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the other agreements contemplated hereby are consummated:

(i) the Company shall have no right of access to or control over any of the records of the Law Firms related to such transactions, which shall become the property of (and be controlled by) the Sellers, as applicable; and

(ii) it would be impracticable to remove from the records (including emails and other electronic files) of the Company any communications with or among any Law Firm, the Company and any Seller. The Company and Buyer agree not to access, review or otherwise use, examine or rely upon such communications that may remain in the records of the Company, and the parties agree that no attorney-client privilege, attorney work product or other privilege or protection is waived or intended to be waived by allowing such material to remain in the files of the Company.

(d) Furthermore, in the event of a dispute between any of the Sellers, on the one hand, and the Company, on the other hand, arising out of or relating to any matter in which any Law Firm acted for them both, none of the attorney-client privilege, the expectation of client confidence or any other rights to any evidentiary privilege will protect from disclosure to the Sellers, as applicable, any information or documents developed or shared during the course of either Law Firm's joint representation of the Sellers and the Company.

SECTION 12.14 Performance. The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement was not performed in accordance with its specific terms or was otherwise breached, and that monetary damages or legal remedies, even if available, would not be an adequate remedy therefor. Therefore, it is accordingly agreed that, in addition to any other remedies, each party shall be entitled to equitable relief, including an injunction or injunctions, to prevent or restrain any breach or threatened breach of this Agreement by any other party and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement to prevent breaches or threatened breaches of, or to enforce compliance with, the covenants and obligations of any other party, in the Chosen Courts, and appropriate injunctive relief (including any Order sought by the Company and/or the Representative to cause Buyer to perform its covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement) may be applied for and granted in connection therewith. Each of the parties hereto hereby waives: (i) any defenses in any action for specific performance, including the defense that a remedy at law would be adequate; and (ii) any requirement to post a bond or other security as a prerequisite to obtaining equitable relief.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this Agreement as of the date first written above.

Section 3: EX-31.1 (EX-31.1)

EXHIBIT 31.1

I, Jeffrey M. Ettinger, certify that:

1. I have reviewed this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q of Hormel Foods Corporation for the period ended April 26, 2015;
2. Based on my knowledge, this report does not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements made, in light of circumstances under which such statements were made, not misleading with respect to the period covered by this report;
3. Based on my knowledge, the financial statements, and other financial information included in this report, fairly present in all material respects the financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows of the registrant as of, and for, the periods presented in this report;
4. The registrant's other certifying officer and I are responsible for establishing and maintaining disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e)) and internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f)) for the registrant and have:
 - a. Designed such disclosure controls and procedures, or caused such disclosure controls and procedures to be designed under our supervision, to ensure that material information relating to the registrant, including its consolidated subsidiaries, is made known to us by others within those entities, particularly during the period in which this report is being prepared;
 - b. Designed such internal control over financial reporting, or caused such internal control over financial reporting to be designed under our supervision, to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles;
 - c. Evaluated the effectiveness of the registrant's disclosure controls and procedures and presented in this report our conclusions about the effectiveness of the disclosure controls and procedures, as of the end of the period covered by this report based on such evaluation; and
 - d. Disclosed in this report any change in the registrant's internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the registrant's most recent fiscal quarter (the registrant's fourth fiscal quarter in the case of an annual report) that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the registrant's internal control over financial reporting; and
5. The registrant's other certifying officer and I have disclosed, based on our most recent evaluation of internal control over financial reporting, to the registrant's auditors and the audit committee of registrant's board of directors (or persons performing the equivalent functions):
 - a. All significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in the design or operation of internal control over financial reporting which are reasonably likely to adversely affect the registrant's ability to record, process, summarize and report financial information; and
 - b. Any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in the registrant's internal control over financial reporting.
