Item 8.01. Other Events.

Vornado Realty Trust (“Vornado”) announced that the entity that owns 85 Tenth Avenue has completed a $625,000,000 refinancing of the property. The indebtedness matures in December 2026 and has a weighted average interest rate of 4.55%.

Out of the proceeds of the refinancing, Vornado received $192,000,000 in repayment of its loans to the entity. In 2007, Vornado made $50,000,000 of 11% PIK mezzanine loans to the entity and in 2013 and 2014 funded an additional $23,000,000 bringing its total investment to $73,000,000.

In connection with its initial investment, Vornado received the right to a 49.9% interest in the entity upon repayment of the mezzanine loans. Accordingly, Vornado now owns a 49.9% interest in the entity that owns 85 Tenth Avenue.

In conjunction with the repayment, in the fourth quarter Vornado will recognize a financial statement gain of approximately $161,000,000 and no tax gain.

85 Tenth Avenue is a 618,000 square foot Manhattan office building located on the border of the West Chelsea and Meatpacking Districts, directly across the street from Chelsea Market and The High Line, with direct Hudson River views. The principal tenants at 85 Tenth Avenue include Google, General Services Administration, Telehouse International, L-3 Communications, Moët Hennessy USA, Del Posto and Toro NYC Restaurant. The property is 100% leased.

A copy of Vornado’s press release, dated December 14, 2016, announcing this transaction is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

Certain statements contained herein constitute forward-looking statements as such term is defined in Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance. They represent the companies’ intentions, plans, expectations and beliefs and are subject to numerous assumptions, risks and uncertainties.
