Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On December 11, 2018, the Board of Directors of Trustmark National Bank (the Bank), a wholly owned subsidiary of Trustmark Corporation (Trustmark), appointed Duane A. Dewey, 60, to serve as Chief Operating Officer of the Bank, effective January 1, 2019.

Mr. Dewey has served as President of Corporate Banking at Trustmark since 2008. In this capacity, he provides leadership and strategic direction for corporate banking, real estate banking, the insurance and wealth management divisions and treasury management. In addition, Dewey oversees Trustmark's business activities in the Houston, Texas, market. Previously, Dewey was responsible for the Central Region of Trustmark, which included all retail, commercial and community banking activities in the Jackson, Vicksburg and Mississippi Delta markets. Dewey joined Trustmark in 2003 as President of Wealth Management. He began his banking career at Republic Bank (now part of Bank of America) in 1985 with corporate banking responsibilities in Dallas, Texas, and private banking responsibilities in Washington, D.C. and McLean, Virginia. Dewey also served as Managing Director of the wealth management division of Provident Bank in Cincinnati, Ohio, before joining Trustmark.

As of the date of this Current Report on Form 8-K, neither Mr. Dewey nor any of his immediate family members is a party, either directly or indirectly, to any transaction that would be required to be reported under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K, nor is Mr. Dewey a party to any understanding or arrangement pursuant to which he is to be selected as an officer.

Mr. Dewey will receive a salary of $450,000 effective January 1, 2019. The bonus (short term incentive) level of 2019 performance is targeted at 60% of salary. The equity award (long term incentive) level for the 2019 grant will be targeted at a value of $300,000.

Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On December 11, 2018, the Board of Directors of Trustmark approved an amendment to Article III, Section 2 of Trustmark's bylaws (Bylaws) to provide a one-year exception from the mandatory retirement age of 70 for the director serving as Chairman at the time of the Bylaws amendment, in order to permit the Chairman, R. Michael Summerford, to be nominated for election to an additional one-year term as director following the completion of his current term at the 2019 annual meeting of shareholders. The full text of the last sentence of Article III, Section 2 of the Bylaws, as amended and restated, is reprinted below:

“Upon attaining the age of seventy (70) years, a director shall retire effective upon the completion of such director's then current term of office; provided, that the person serving as Chairman at the time of the adoption of the amendment to this Article III, Section 2 shall not be required to retire until the completion of such director's term of office following the director's attainment of the age of seventy-one (71) years.”

The amendment to the Bylaws is effective as of December 11, 2018, and is filed herewith as Exhibit 3.1 hereto.

News Release

Trustmark Names Duane A. Dewey Chief Operating Officer

JACKSON, Miss. – December 11, 2018 – Trustmark Corporation (NASDAQ:TRMK) announced that Duane A. Dewey has been named Chief Operating Officer of Trustmark National Bank effective January 1, 2019. Gerard R. Host, President and Chief Executive Officer, commented, “Duane is a valuable member of our executive team and has a distinguished record of achievement during his 15-year tenure at Trustmark. He understands our customers, markets and culture and is ideally suited for this position. I am delighted that the Board has recognized Duane’s contributions and leadership at Trustmark and look forward to continuing to work with him to serve our customers, enhance the growth of our franchise and create additional value for our shareholders.”

Dewey, 60, has served as President of Corporate Banking at Trustmark since 2008. In this capacity, he provides leadership and strategic direction for corporate banking, real estate banking, the insurance and wealth management divisions and treasury management. In addition, Dewey oversees Trustmark’s business activities in the Houston, Texas, market. Previously, Dewey was responsible for the Central Region of Trustmark, which included all retail, commercial and community banking activities in the Jackson, Vicksburg and Mississippi Delta markets. Dewey joined Trustmark in 2003 as President of Wealth Management. He began his banking career at Republic Bank (now part of Bank of America) in 1985 with corporate banking responsibilities in Dallas, Texas, and private banking responsibilities in Washington, D.C. and McLean, Virginia. Dewey also served as Managing Director of the wealth management division of Provident Bank in Cincinnati, Ohio, before joining Trustmark.

“I am pleased to have this opportunity,” stated Dewey. “Together with our experienced management team and dedicated associates, we will continue to provide banking and financial solutions to meet the needs of our customers and the marketplace while strengthening our communities and building value for our shareholders.”

Mr. Dewey received Bachelor and Master of Science degrees in Finance from Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge. Active in community affairs, Mr. Dewey has served on the Board of St. Dominic Health Services Foundation, Inc., the Jackson Preparatory School Board of Trustees, the Board of Fellowship of Christian Athletes of Mississippi and the Dean’s Advisory Council of the E. J. Ourso College of Business at LSU.

R. Michael Summerford, Chairman, remarked, “Duane’s experience and record of achievement across diverse business lines has positioned him well for the role as our Chief Operating Officer. The Board appreciates his commitment to Trustmark and looks forward to his continued contributions toward our long-term success.”
