

OPUS BANK COMPLETES ACQUISITION OF RMG CAPITAL CORPORATION AND FULLERTON COMMUNITY BANK, FSB

IRVINE, Calif. – November 1, 2011 – Opus Bank announced today that its acquisition of RMG Capital Corporation (“RMG”) was completed effective at the close of business on October 31, 2011. In accordance with the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization announced on June 6, 2011, RMG’s bank subsidiary, Fullerton Community Bank, FSB (“Fullerton”), merged with and into Opus Bank, with Opus Bank as the surviving institution.

Stephen H. Gordon, Chairman, President, and Chief Executive Officer of Opus Bank, stated, “I am proud of the tremendous effort by all involved to bring these two great institutions together, and am excited to welcome Fullerton’s clients to Opus Bank. I look forward to the Fullerton banking team, including Tom Meyer, former Chairman of RMG and former Chairman and CEO of Fullerton, who joins Opus Bank as President of the Orange County Region and Senior Managing Director, Commercial Business Banking for Opus Bank’s Orange County and Los Angeles County Regions, contributing to the success of Opus Bank and that of its clients. We will continue our steadfast commitment to delivering the same high-quality, relationship-based community banking experience that both of our banks take great pride in having been founded upon, as we grow into a strong, super-community bank with a presence in all the major metropolitan areas up and down the West Coast.” Gordon added, “With one of the highest capital ratios in the Western region, 37 banking offices, and its strong reputation for focusing on Commercial Business, Income Property, Residential Real Estate, Retail, and Private Relationship Banking, Opus Bank is well positioned to partner with those small and mid-sized commercial businesses, entrepreneurs, real estate investors, high-net-worth individuals, professionals, and consumers who share our vision to expand and grow.”
