CACI Selected for AWS Public Sector Partner Program

Extends Commitment to Delivering Innovative and Improved Cloud-Based Mission Solutions for Customers

ARLINGTON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- CACI International Inc (NYSE: CACI) announced today that it has been selected for inclusion in the Amazon Web Services (AWS) Public Sector Partner Program. The AWS Public Sector Partner Program recognizes companies with a strong overall AWS practice, and demonstrates their experience and readiness to support government, education, and/or non-profit customer missions. CACI's selection to the program builds upon the company's work to provide customers with comprehensive, rapid, and agile cloud services and solutions using AWS, and enhances the company's presence across its market areas including enterprise IT, intelligence systems, business systems, and intelligence services.

Through its membership in the program, CACI continues and extends its services and solutions in client adoption and migration onto AWS and AWS GovCloud (US). CACI is an industry leader in providing innovative and improved mission uptime and greater efficiencies to our customers through its solutions supported on these infrastructures. The company has guided customers in cloud adoption, migrated applications to the cloud, expanded cloud services to enhance mission integrity and efficiency, and is developing new mission-responsive applications in the cloud.

CACI Chief Operating Officer and President of U.S. Operations John Mengucci said, "Participation in the AWS Public Sector Partner Program strengthens our commitment to delivering greater mission agility, resilience and measurable efficiencies to our customers across the defense, intelligence, homeland security, and civilian communities.

Ken Asbury, CACI's President and Chief Executive Officer, said, "There is no doubt that cloud-based solutions are transforming the market. CACI is committed to providing innovative cloud-based solutions that our government customers need to successfully complete their critical missions. This partnership is aligned with CACI's strategy to provide complete solutions and offerings to our enterprise customers."

CACI provides information solutions and services in support of national security missions and government transformation for Intelligence, Defense, and Federal Civilian customers. A Fortune magazine World's Most Admired Company in the IT Services industry, CACI is a member of the Fortune 1000 Largest Companies, the Russell 2000 Index, and the S&P SmallCap600 Index. CACI's sustained commitment to ethics and integrity defines its corporate culture and drives its success.
