Cautionary Statements

These materials and oral statements made from time to time by executive officers of WellCare may contain “forward-looking” statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, known as the PSLRA. Such statements that are not historical facts are hereby identified as forward-looking statements and intended to be covered by the safe harbor provisions of the PSLRA and can be identified by the use of the words “believe,” “expect,” “predict,” “project,” “potential,” “estimate,” “anticipate,” “should,” “intend,” “may,” “will,” and similar expressions or variations of such words, or by discussion of future financial results and events, strategy or risks and uncertainties, trends and conditions in WellCare’s business and competitive strengths, all of which involve risks and uncertainties.

Many factors could cause actual future events to differ materially from the forward-looking statements in this communication, including but not limited to: (i) the risk that the transaction may not be completed in a timely manner or at all, which may adversely affect WellCare’s business and the price of the common stock of WellCare, (ii) the failure to satisfy the conditions to the consummation of the transaction, including the adoption of the merger agreement by the stockholders of Universal American and the receipt of certain governmental and regulatory approvals, (iii) the parties may be unable to achieve expected synergies and operating efficiencies in the merger within the expected time frames or at all and to successfully integrate Universal American’s operations into those of WellCare, (iv) the transaction may not result in the accretion to WellCare’s earnings or other benefits expected to be achieved from the transactions, (v) such integration may be more difficult, time consuming or costly than expected, (vi) revenues following the transaction may be lower than expected, (vii) the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstance that could give rise to the termination of the merger agreement, (viii) the effect of the announcement or pendency of the transaction on WellCare’s business relationships, operating results, and business generally, risks related to the proposed transaction disrupting current plans and operations of WellCare and potential difficulties in Universal American’s employee retention as a result of the transaction, (ix) risks related to diverting management’s attention from WellCare’s ongoing business operations, (x) the outcome of any legal proceedings that may be instituted against WellCare, its officers or directors related to the merger agreement or the transaction, (xi) the possibility that competing offers or acquisition proposals for Universal American will be made, (xii) WellCare’s progress on top priorities such as improving health care quality and access, ensuring a competitive cost position, and delivering prudent, profitable growth, (xiii) WellCare’s ability to estimate and manage medical benefits expense effectively, (xiv) any changes to WellCare’s government program contracts, (xv) WellCare’s ability to access capital and (xvi) WellCare’s ability to comply with the terms of the Corporate Integrity Agreement.

Where, in any forward-looking statement, we or our management expresses an expectation or belief as to future results or actions, there can be no assurance that the statement of expectation or belief will result or be achieved or accomplished. Our actual results may differ materially from our expectations, plans or projections. Forward-looking statements are only predictions and estimates, which are inherently subject to risks, trends and uncertainties, many of which are beyond our ability to control or predict with accuracy and some of which might not even anticipate. There can be no assurance that we will achieve our expectations and we do not assume responsibility for the accuracy and completeness of the forward-looking statements. Future events and actual results, financial and otherwise, may differ materially from the results discussed in the forward-looking statements as a result of many factors, including the risk factors described in the risk factor section of our SEC reports. Other unknown or unpredictable factors could also have material adverse effects on future results, performance or achievements of WellCare.

All forward-looking statements included in these materials are based upon information available to WellCare as of the date of these materials, and we assume no obligation to update or revise any such forward-looking statements

Our 2016 financial guidance is as of November 1, 2016 and is not being updated in conjunction with this presentation.
