JANUS CAPITAL EXPANDS FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS SALES TEAM IN GERMAN-SPEAKING EUROPE

LONDON – Janus Capital International, the international arm of Janus Capital Group Inc. (NYSE: JNS), today announced the appointment of Steven Bilodeau to join the Financial Institutions sales team in German-speaking Europe. His role will cover Germany, Switzerland and Austria.

Steven comes to Janus from Threadneedle where he was a sales manager for Germany. In his new role, Steven will be responsible for developing business with key financial institutions: fund of fund investors, insurance companies, savings and co-operative banks and private banks, and will work alongside Thomas Doring. He will be based in Janus' Munich office and report to Michael Jones, Head of Financial Institutions for Europe.

Steven has worked in both the US and European markets covering equity and fixed income products and previously worked for Cortal Consors, A.G. Edwards, the US brokerage firm and Bear Stearns.

Commenting on the appointment, Michael Jones, Head of Financial Institutions for Europe said: “We regard German-speaking Europe as one of our most important regions with large growth potential for our mutual fund range. Professional investors in German-speaking Europe are increasingly supportive of our research-driven fundamental Janus approach and our risk-managed mathematical INTECH process, and Steven’s experience will be invaluable in helping to develop our business significantly.”
